If Rhode Island went Democratic yesterday Cleveland stock mounted another rung in the ladder skyward.

This morning it looks very much like that distinguished American and greatest of living Democrats, Grover Cleveland, will be the nominee of the Democratic party for 1892 and the next President of these United States.

Hon. A. M. Waddell will deliver an oration before the University at the next Commencement on the "Life and Character of Col. Wm. L. Saunders." The oration will be delivered Alumni Day, Tuesday, May 31, before the Alumni Association. Rarely have speaker and subject been so happily united.

The Winston Tobacco Journal with its issue of March 26th entered upon its eleventh volume. It celebrated the occasion by "spreading itself" to the tune of 48 pages, not counting the cover and two beautiful photo-tint supplements. Bro. Harman is issuing the best Tobacco Journal that comes to this office and he is in close touch with the farmers who plow tobacco.

Judge D. L. Russell, Col. G. W. Stanton and R. M. Norment, were appointed a committee by a conference of Republicans representing thirteen counties, to prepare an address to the Republicans of the State. The address was published in Saturday's Messenger. They discourage the nomination of a State ticket this year, and say practically the same as the three Republicans we quote on fourth page. We will publish this address next week.

The Greenville Reflector has a masterly article in reply to an attempt of the Salisbury Herald to read Col. Harry Skinner out of the Democratic party. The Reflector's call upon some of the State Press to cease abusing Democrats is very timely. Of Col. Harry Skinner it very accurately says: "We know Col. Harry Skinner is a Democrat. We know the Democratic party needs the aid of all its talent in the present crisis, therefore we call upon the press to cease to abuse and misrepresent those who may be of great use in the coming struggle. Harry Skinner's clarion voice and eloquent words have electrified many a Democratic audience in the past, the party needs him now and we feel confident in saying that he will be ready and willing to obey its behests."

NOT SEEKING THE NOMINATION. But if the People Call for Him Shall not Call in Vain—His Personal Preference is the Present Position he Occupies—This is Alexander's Position.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 1.—The recent Raleigh special to a Richmond paper, to the effect that Representative Alexander had telegraphed some one at Raleigh that he had never said he would never accept the nomination for Governor, and the telegram of Dr. John Tull, to the Morganton Herald, of somewhat similar import, have both been pretty generally discussed by the North Carolina colony at the national capital, this week.

With a view of offsetting the accuracy of these statements, and of obtaining an ultimatum on the subject of his candidacy, I showed Capt. Alexander the published reports, and asked if he would not make a written statement that would dispel all doubts as to his actual position. He did so, and here is the statement: "In reply to many inquiries, I have always stated that I was not a candidate for Governor, but that a re-nomination to Congress would be acceptable to me."

S. B. ALEXANDER. It will be seen that he does not say he will decline the nomination if tendered him, but simply that he is not a candidate for the office, in the ordinary meaning of the term. He has therefore placed himself in a position to accept the nomination if the Democratic convention sees fit to make him its standard-bearer. A good many North Carolinians having been in Washington within the past several weeks, and while they have expressed a variety of preferences as to the man for Governor, I have been struck with the frequency with which ex-Lieutenant Governor Stedman's name has been mentioned in that connection, although it seems to be generally understood that he, like Capt. Alexander, is not seeking the honor.—E. A. Oldham in Charlotte Observer.

(SPECIAL COR. THE ADVANCE.)

WASHINGTON, April 3rd, '92. The Mooreville postoffice fight, the bone of contention which started the Mott-Eaves feud anew in North Carolina, was decided on Friday at the Postoffice Department in favor of Dr. Mott's man, Atwell. Templeton, the former postmaster, Eaves & Co., had succeeded in having Atwell's commission held up about three weeks after the appointment was determined on. But Dr. Mott and Charles Price, Esq., came here Thursday evening and on Friday afternoon Atwell's commission was forwarded to Mooreville.

Hon. John G. Carlisle will deliver the Commencement address at Chapel Hill. I congratulate the students on their selection of an orator.

Hon. B. H. Bunn has been chosen to represent North Carolina on the Congressional Campaign Committee. All the naval officers who went from here to witness the launching of the Raleigh speak in high terms of the Raleigh ship, his family and staff Mrs. Haywood's beauty and grace especially attracted attention. I hope our able Chief Executive will receive a unanimous nomination, a compliment he richly deserves.

The silver bill is dead. The National Democrat of to-day, says editorially:

"The sober second thought of the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives, which prompted an abandonment of the proposition to force a vote over the protest of a vehement minority within the party, was soundly Democratic and conservative. The central idea of Democracy being that the people prompt all proper legislation, to defer action pending a positive expression of will on their part conforms to party principles and politics."

The conservative "second thought" of the people of North Carolina will agree with the editor, who by the way is a Mr. J. L. Bullock, a member of the sterling old Bullock family of Granville county, North Carolina. His grandfather, John Bullock, settled in Granville county in 1790 and he has many relations in the State. Like Senator Harris, whose people belong to the same county, Mr. Bullock now hails from Tennessee. He runs a good Democratic paper here, and has I hope acted wisely in reviving the National Democrat.

The transfer of Mr. Mills, of Texas, to the Senate removes from the House one of its landmarks. Mr. Mills entered the Forty-third Congress, and was, therefore, at the end of the present term have served consecutively twenty years. He accepts the promotion to the Senate for the unexpired term of Senator Reagan filed, since that Senator's resignation, by Senator Chilton, appointed during a recess of the State Legislature by the Governor of Texas. The term expires March 3, 1893, and Senator Mills will probably be before the next legislature for re-election, when that body assembles fresh from the voters of the State.

The New York Times of last Thursday publishes an item which I unhesitatingly pronounce a slander on the North Carolina delegation in the House. Here is the entire paragraph: "Senator Hill caused a slight ripple of surprise in the Senate Chamber to-day, by appearing in his seat. It was generally supposed that he would remain in Albany to coach the young men who are engaged in the whitewashing of Judge Maynard, and the fact that he returned was construed as an indication that the Judge would soon be declared guilty. Certainly David would not have left Albany unless he felt sure that his plans were being fully carried out. He had a long talk with Rockwell of Elmira, who is under sentence of decaipitation in the House, and who relies upon Hill to save him. Having laid the wires to acquit Maynard, David will now turn his attention to getting out of the scrape which his attempt to bulldoze the House Committee on Elections brought him into. He will find the undertaking a formidable one. It is understood that he has obtained assurances from the North Carolina delegation, by persons speaking for them, that they will vote against the Elections Committee's report."

When my attention was called to the above I hastened to two of the most influential members to get from them an authoritative denial of this for your paper. The first one I approached said: "There is not a shadow of foundation for the statement. When Rockwell's case comes before the House we shall vote in accordance with the evidence brought before us. We cannot be intimidated by either side, as you well know." I did not know it, but preferred to give an authoritative denial. I am in cordial sympathy with the "Times" generally, and especially in its advocacy of Grover Cleveland, but when it intimates that Grover Cleveland or David B. Hill, or any other man carries the able, independent and courageous North Carolina delegation "in his coat pocket" it is going too far. If the report of the Elections Committee, which is unfavorable to Rockwell, is sustained by the evidence, I guarantee that he will not have a single vote from the North Carolina delegation. If Rockwell was not elected he will not be seated by North Carolina votes, and David B. Hill cannot bulldoze a single member of our delegation. Recently the Times had a very misleading allusion to Senator Ransom because he refused to prophesy for that paper on the probable Presidential candidate of the Democratic party. Senator Ransom as a member of both National and Executive Democratic Committees has too much weight to assume the role of Delphic Oracle for the Metropolitan press. The Times correspondent asked General Ransom if

AS THEY ESTEEM HIM.

Here is the Full Measure of Mr. Fife By the Wilson Yard Stick.

Everybody here has been talking for the last week about Mr. Fife's meeting. It filled the town. It permeated everybody. It has been discussed and talked about on all sides. What is the man's power and what did the meeting accomplish? are questions asked on every hand. THE ADVANCE answered these questions as best it could. To-day we bring to our assistance the pastors of Wilson, and give their opinions as follows:

"AN INCALCULABLE BLESSING."

I believe that Evangelist Fife has done a special work, and that he is thoroughly fitted by NATURE and GRACE for that mission. When the Spirit of God endorses, the approval of man is of slight consequence, but, such as it is, he has mine, most heartily. I speak of the man and the work in its entirety. His meeting in Wilson was an incalculable blessing. The churches, and the entire community, owe to him, under God, their profoundest gratitude.

H. W. BATTLE.

"ONE OF THE GREATEST."

I regard Mr. Fife as one of the greatest living Evangelists. His greatness consists in his simplicity of method and thorough earnestness. He preaches "The Word" or rather he lets God's word do the preaching, esteeming himself as only an instrument or medium through which Divine truth impresses himself upon his hearers. His recent meeting here I regard as a great blessing to our town and county, in that it was pre-eminently the work of God's Spirit. In all my experience I have never seen a revival in which the Spirit's influence was more manifest in the awakening and conversion of the ungodly. Such a work of Grace I presume was never before known in this community. J. H. CORDON.

"HIS EQUAL HARD TO FIND."

Eternity alone will be able to reveal the good accomplished by the "Drummer Evangelist" during his short stay in our town. Mr. Fife is a close Bible student, and the secret of his success is his wonderful knowledge of the written Word. The Bible is his only text book, and with him it is sharper than a two edged sword; the power of God unto salvation, a lamp and a light. "In union there is strength." The fraternal feeling manifested by the various churches during Mr. Fife's meeting added much in winning souls for Christ. Such a union meeting has never before been witnessed in Wilson. Would to God such a feeling could continue.

Mr. Fife has fully consecrated himself to the work of his Master. He is earnest, sincere and overflowing with love and zeal for poor lost souls. His meeting has been a blessing to our town and to the various churches. Let the same feeling manifested during the meeting continue, and "the half has not been told."

Mr. Fife created a desire for reading the Bible that many of our citizens had never before experienced, and the good he done along this line will prove an incalculable blessing to the town of Wilson. He has been a merciful God. It is evident that Mr. Fife is studying "to show himself approved unto God, a workman that need not be ashamed," and when he leaves home to rightly divide the Word, his equal as an evangelist will be hard to find. R. W. STANCILL.

EVANGELIST FIFE'S WORK.

WILSON, N. C., April 4, 1892.—Yesterday was a notable day in the religious life of this community. For two weeks evangelist Fife has been conducting a revival here with wonderful success. At 7 o'clock Sunday morning all the bells in the town were rung as an expression of thanksgiving for the great good accomplished. Every church on Sunday was crowded and all of them receiving large accessions to their membership. Rev. H. W. Battle, who has accepted a call to Petersburg, Va., officiated at Missionary Baptist church, and preached a sermon on the question of baptism and close communion, which all who heard it declare was the most logical and profound upon that line ever heard here. 49 members were received into this church [The number is now 55.—ED] He is one of the most scholarly and well-equipped divines in the State and his departure is greatly regretted by the Baptist Female Seminary in Raleigh I have looked to see Dr. Battle elected to its presidency when the college is opened for young women. He is well equipped by learning and every other qualification, and is too useful and able a man for North Carolina to lose permanently. The many friends of Dr. Cordon in Raleigh will be glad to know that he received 66 members in the Methodist church Sunday night, and expects other additions. He is very popular here and is an able and growing preacher. Rev. A. H. McCall, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is one of the most talented of the young men in the State and received 31 members into his church. Rev. Stancill, the earnest and esteemed pastor of the Disciple church, received four members, and will receive more. Eighteen of the converts of Mr. Fife's meeting will join the Episcopal church, of which Rev. C. J. Wingate is the accomplished rector. Many of the converts lived in the country and will join churches in different parts of the county. There is difference of opinion now as to some of Mr. Fife's methods; but there are no differences in regard to the fact that his meeting here was productive of untold and permanent good.—Josephus Daniels in State Chronicle.

NASHVILLE NOTES.

What the People of "Good Old Nash" are Doing and Saying

(SPECIAL COR. TO THE ADVANCE.)

April 5th, 1892. Mr Simon Carpenter, an old resident of Cooper's Township, died a short time ago, aged 77 years.

Hon B H Bunn was in town last Monday and, as usual, met a hearty reception from his many friends.

We regret to hear that Mrs Patsy Ricks, wife of David B Ricks, Esq, died last Saturday night at the residence of her husband in the 81st year of her age.

Jno T Morgan, Esq, Clerk of the Committee on Claims of the House of Representatives, is at home and looks as if he has fared well in the Nation's Capitol.

R D Armstrong, Esq, who has been doing a large grocery business here, has sold out and his clerk, W F Doles, Esq, has returned to Rocky Mount. The business will be continued by J D Winstead, Esq, at the same place.

We were pleased to hear that Messrs Boddie, Ward & Co, and V B Batchelor, Esq, merchants who have been financially embarrassed for some time, have made satisfactory arrangements with their creditors and will continue in business.

Our County Commissioners were in session last Monday and transacted the usual routine business of examining accounts and issuing orders. An order was made authorizing the opening of a new road from the Frazier place on the Stanhope and Louisville road to the old Raleigh road near Turkey Creek bridge. The following were appointed List Takers for the several Townships: Castalia, T J Braswell; Griffin, Geo B Cooper; Whitakers, W R Mann; Stony Creek, G T Cooley; Cooper's, J H T Baker; Nashville, J H Harper; Mannings, J T Fulford; Ferrells, J S Denton; Bailey's, Taylor Eatman; Jackson, J M Baines; Rocky Mount, O J Winstead.
