THE ADVANCE, Wilson, N. C.

THURSDAY, Dec. 22nd, 1892.

WORK FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

When the New York Times remarks that "nobody has any doubt what the election of Mr. Cleveland means," it talks incontrovertible sense.

There is everywhere a steady demand for good roads and America will no doubt in the near future be a country of well-kept high-ways.

David M. Furches, late Republican candidate for Governor, comes out in a card in the Winston Republican giving his views as to the cause of the Republican defeat in the last election in North Carolina.

Cotton has again gone up to ten cents. This improvement in price is due entirely to short crops, and as this shortness of crop becomes more and more apparent the tendency will be to an advance rather than decline.

Miss Ella Wheeler Wilcox makes an interesting statement in her latest poem. She tells us that "if all the world were solid ice heaped to the clouds and higher, my yearning, burning love for thee would set the pile on fire."

The powers of the Railroad Commission should be amended and enlarged. Though it has already been a boon to the people its usefulness has been greatly impaired by its lack of power to act in cases demanding its interference.

Do not tax knowledge. The tax on books is burdensome and unnecessary and should be abolished. It oppresses all who seek knowledge, bearing especially heavy on many a worthy, aspiring young man whose brain is his only fortune.

There is great division in Kansas over the Lease Senatorial boom, but if Mary Ellen wants a foreign appointment a simple announcement of this fact will produce large chunks of harmony.

There will be 142 new members in the next Congress—70 Democrats, 69 Republicans and 3 Third Party.

Boston has re-elected her Democratic Mayor, Nathan Mathews, Jr., by a majority of more than 12,000.

A young boy at Coblenz Germany, was lately sentenced to 12 years imprisonment at hard labor.

The Government expenditures for the past two years have been $100,000,000 a year in excess of the revenue.

Most of us have recollections of visions quite as fair as this if we could only express them. Not only the tales of the Thousand and One Nights but Hans Andersen, Mother Goose and all the rich lore of Fairy Land have peopled our imagination with heroes and heroines of no mortal mold.
