POETRY.

THE YOUNG WIDOW.

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD.

She is modest, but not bashful—Free and easy, but not bold, Like an apple, ripe and mellow—
Not too young and not too old; Half inviting, half repulsing—Now advancing, and now shy;
There is mischief in her dimple, There is danger in her eye.

See she studied human nature—
She is schooled in her arts;
She has taken her diploma As a mistress of all hearts;
She can tell the very moment When to sigh, and when to smile; Oh, a maid is sometimes charming;
But a widow all the while.

Are you sad? How very serious Will her handsome face become!
Are you angry? She is wretched, Lonely, friendless, fearful, dumb!
Are you mirthful? How her laughter, Sill-er-sounding, will ring out!
She can lure, and catch, and play you As the angler does the trout.

Ye old bachelors of forty Who have grown so bald and wise, Young Americans of twenty With the love-lock in your eyes, You may practice all the lessons Taught by Cupid since the fall, But I know a little widow Who can win and fool you all.

Rose, of the Methodist conference.

Peace.

ton and West Indies Navigation Company. Passed its readings with amendments.

town of Lewiston in Bertie county.

the Hon. Jefferson Davis, to be placed in the State Library, passed second and third readings.

A bill to allow John F. Hellen, a disabled Confederate soldier, to peddle in any of the counties of the 1st congressional district without paying a license tax, passed second and third readings.

House amendments to senate bill 76 house bill 443, amending chapter 49 of the Code in relation to the running of local railroad trains on Sunday. The amendment leaves the matter as it stands in Code. Concurred in.

A bill to amend the charter of Trinity College Park in Durham county, passed second and third readings.

assessing damages for taking and occupancy of lands by railroad companies and other corporations passed second and third readings.

EVENING SESSION.

The senate reassembled at 8 o'clock p. m. pursuant to adjournment, and the bill to provide for the establishment and organization of the county of Scotland was taken up.

The committee on counties, cities and towns unanimously recommended its passage.

At 11:15 the debate closed and an aye and no vote was taken, resulting as follows: Ayes 28, nays 10. So the bill passed its second reading.

HOUSE.

Mr. Carraway, to authorize the commissioners of Greene county to levy a special tax. Finance.

The same, to incorporate the town of Sartillon, Greene county. Corporations.

Mr. Graves, to amend section 2831 of the Code. Judiciary.

Mr. Stevens, a bill to authorize the commissioners of Johnston, Wayne and Lenoir counties have the drift and trash removed from the river.
Propositions and Grievances.

The bill was taken up and put on its second reading, the question being upon the motion of Mr. Lovill to strike out the second section of the bill which included the additional appropriation of $15,000 in addition to $25,000 appropriated out of the direct tax fund of the legislature of 1891.

Mr. Merritt opposed the bill very warmly. He had promised in the campaign to do so and would do so in any shape it came.

Mr. McKennize demanded the ayes and noes on the passage of the bill, with call being sustained.

The question was on Mr. Lovill's amendment which strikes out section 2 (the further sum of $15,000).

The amendment was adopted ayes 88, nays 16. Then the bill amended was put on its second reading. During the progress of the vote several gentlemen had given notice, explained their vote when their names were reached.

Mr. Graves said the committee in good faith had pledged the faith of North Carolina. He voted "aye."
The bill passed its second reading by a vote of ayes 90, noes 15, and was put on its third reading and passed and was ordered to be engrossed.

Bill to allow Railroads to give passes was taken.

The bill passed and was ordered to be engrossed.

House bill 450, a bill for the protection of sheep husbandry, came up on its second reading. (The bill provided—in the substitute presented—to list dogs as other property; on each dog an annual tax of 25 cents, the listing to be done at the same time, and in the same form as other property is listed, and paid into the school fund in the counties where listed.)

Mr. Vance, of Buncombe, thought the tax too low, but expressed the sense of the house and of the committee. There is no exemption of any dog. We may be sure of the effects of the bill before the meeting of the next legislature.

Mr. Holt demanded the ayes and nays, and the bill was tabled by a vote of ayes 64, nays 33.

And then the house adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

a. m.

HOUSE.

Mr. Harris (the introducer of the bill) said he would accept Mr. Long's amendment to postpone till next Thursday at 12 o'clock. The vote adopted the amendment.

The balance of the day was spent in discussing the Homestead law.

RALEIGH, February 11.—The Senate was called to order at 10:30 o'clock by Lieutenant Governor Doughton and prayer was delivered by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, of the Baptist Tabernacle.

Owing to the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Democratic caucus relative to the public printing, there were only a few bills reported from committees.

By Senator Battle, in relation to the probate of wills when witnesses can not be found in the State.

The bill to incorporate the Bank of Weldon passed its second reading.
Under a suspension of the rules the passed its third reading.

The bill to incorporate the People's bank of Kinston passed its third reading.

The Senate adjourned until 10:30 o'clock Monday morning.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Not many bills were introduced.
The principal ones were as follows:
By Mr. Lovill, to allow the Railway Commission to pay its clerk for extra work when necessary.

By Mr. Vance, of Buncombe, to exempt men 60 years of age from jury duty.

The unfinished business was taken up; this being Mr. Watson's bill to amend the homestead act.

Mr. Jones of Caldwell, offered an amendment making the privy examination of the wife unnecessary in cases of conveyance.

Mr. Merritt said he would be willing to vote for a total abolition of the homestead, but would vote for this bill if he could get nothing better.
He said he was astonished to hear Mr. Kitchin say yesterday that though he had petitions asking the repeal of the homestead he would not support the measure. He declared the homestead law to be nothing less than a curse to the laboring man.

Mr. Robertson said this was one of the great questions before the Legislature and then addressed himself to the objections which yesterday were made to the bill. He said the lien law was the foster child of the mortgage system. He said that under the lien law the farmer had paid from 10 to 50 per cent. more to the right of justices of the peace to issue summons to other counties than their own, was discussed and then referred to the Judiciary.

Senate bill 460, House bill 756, to incorporate the Cape Fear Harbor and Coal company, place of business Southport, passed and was ordered to be enrolled.

On account of a fire, which seemed to threaten the Moseley House, where a number of the members boarded, a motion to adjourn was made and carried.

RALEIGH, February 10, Senate.— Reports of standing committees were made.

The committee on rules recommended the appointment of a committee to inquire into the expediency of the establishment of a car wheel foundry in connection with the penitentiary.

the improvement and support of the Soldiers' Home.

Mr. Battle, a petition against changing the name of Elm City to Toisnoit.

Bill to amend an act to provide for a display of North Carolina products at the Chicago World's fair and to make an appropriation therefor, providing an appropriation of $25,000 out of the direct tax fund came up.
The bill provided that this money should be paid out of the direct tax fund, and if any deficiency is caused so that the fund shall not be enough to meet the demands of claimants, the State Treasurer shall meet their claims when presented. Mr. Campbell explained the bill and made a convincing and logical argument in its favor, after which the bill passed almost unanimously.

Bill to confirm and enlarge the powers of the Wilmington Homestead and Loan Association, giving it banking powers, passed its third reading.

The bill to erect the county of Scotland passed its third reading by a vote of ayes 25, noes 11.

Bill to appropriate annually $40,- 000 to the support, completion and improvement of the North Carolina School for the Deaf and Dumb at Morganton, was re-referred to the committee.

HOUSE.

The hour for the special order having arrived, bill 480 was ordered to be read—which was a bill to regulate the employment of women and minors in woolen and cotton factories so that they shall not be required to work more than an average of eleven hours per day, the employees being required to furnish his operatives with comfortable seats.

Mr. Long, of Alamance, moved to amend by striking out the last clause.
He said he had sent copies of the bill to various constituents and had not had a reply as to their wish in the matter; and he therefore moved to postpone till next Thursday at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Harris (the introducer of the
amendment to postpone till next Thursday at 12 o'clock. The vote
adopted the amendment.

The balance of the day was spent
in discussing the Homestead law.

that he would have paid in cash. The right to waive the homestead without the wife's signature was the valuable provision of the bill. Any man, be he drunkard, rascal or what not, can get his wife to sign a mortgage.
Outstanding mortgages are safe under this bill. There is no politics in the bill, though demagogues may try to drag it in. That frightens no thinking man.

Mr. Jones, who is one of the ablest men in the House, presented his case with marked force and grace and was given close attention by the House and the scores of people in the lobby.
He said he had as a lawyer seen people take the homestead on other men's property. This astounding rascality he described and said all lawyers had seen cases of the kind.
He said that he would have preferred a stronger bill, but that this was a compromise bill prepared by the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Long said he asked leave to withdraw his amendments as to the date of the election, as he had discovered that the election must, under the constitution, be had at the next general election.

Several other speeches were made all brief, Mr. Fuller, of Randolph, favoring the amendment to except the wife.

Mr. Anderson moved to table the entire bill. This was lost, 22 to 70.

The bill was then made the special order for next Tuesday at 11 o'clock, on motion of Mr. Adams.

The House then took up the bill, which was discussed at length yesterday, to allow quite a number of counties until May 1st to settle State taxes.
There was some discussion, and on motion of Mr. Watson, of Forsyth, the bill was tabled.

THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

The Stars and Stripes Flights From the Public Buildings.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—The most important news brought by the Steamship Australia, which arrived from Honolulu last night is that United States Minister Stevens had established a protectorate over the Islands. At nine o'clock on the morning of the 1st instant, when the stars and stripes were raised over Aliulani Hall, Minister Stevens issued the following proclamation:

TO THE HAWAIIAN PEOPLE.— At the request of the provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands, I hereby, in the name of the United States of America, assume protection of the Hawaiian Islands for protection of life and property and occupation of the public buildings on Hawaiian soil as far as may be necessary for the purpose specified, but not interfering with the administration of public affairs by the provisional government.
This action is taken pending and subject to negotiations at Washington.

(Signed) JOHN L. STEVENS, Envoy Extraordinary, and Minister Plenipotentiary of the U. S.
United States Legation, Feb. 1, 1893.

Approved and executed by C. C.
Wiltse, captain United States navy, commanding United States steamship Boston.

The Hawaiian flag still flies in the palace court yard, palace, barracks, police station, custom house, etc, and will remain in possession of the provisional government which will administer public business as usual, Arms and ammunition will be withdrawn from Aliulani hall, which, until separate intelligence arrives from the United States, will be guarded by a detachment from the Boston. The event of this morning is hailed with joy throughout the community. It will bring about peace and prosperity and will please all except those who don't want Hawaii to enjoy these or any other blessings.

Railroad's Compromise Rejected.

RALEIGH, N. C. Feb. 9.—The joint committee of the senate and house on railroads met again yesterday evening, and after three hours of discussion decided, by a vote of 17 to 6, to reject the proposition as embraced in the bill of Mr. Spruill.

The sub committee was instructed to have an interview today with Messrs. Elliott and Walters, of the Wilmington and Weldon company, for the purpose of ascertaining if they will make another proposition of compromise.

It is not believed that the railroad company will make a second proposition.

If this course is taken the whole controversy will be relegated to the courts and litigation will begin and end in the Supreme Court of the United States. This will require several years unless the suit when put on the docket should be advanced for a hearing and speedy determination.

A Drummer's Narrow Escape.

RICHMOND VA., February 8.— Mr. Charles Weisenger, a Richmond drummer, connected with the house of Stephen Putney & Co., who returned to-night from Lee Courthouse Va., relates a singular adventure which befell him at Hubbard Springs, a town near the Tennessee border.
When he reached the place he found that the village was in the hands of outlaws and a reign of terror prevailed.
While passing down the road several of the desperadoes, who he ambushed in a house, mistook him for a detective and were preparing to shoot him when one of their party recognized him and checked them in their desperate purpose. Rush Morgan, the leader of the gang of outlaws was killed by one of the citizens. Mr.
Weisenger left the town on the first train.

Walter Bridges, Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores, and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefited."

rtional amount of the $75,000 as
