WILSON'S OUTLOOK.

We wish to call the attention of the people of Wilson to the fact that a great many manufacturers North are looking for locations in the South where the natural and acquired advantages are of such a nature as to induce the locating of their plants.

That Wilson, in the course of a very few months now, will have a perfect system of electric lights, and water works is an item of no small moment. Add to this the fact that for years our cotton market has been, and still is, one of the best interior cotton markets in the State, the prices paid on the streets often actually exceeding the current prices in Norfolk and Wilmington.

Our tobacco market opened just about three years ago and during our first season, with but one warehouse and no prize houses in the town, we marketed one and a half millions of pounds, a record unsurpassed or equaled by any town or city on the globe.

And this is all natural, spontaneous growth. We regret to say such things, but the facts compel us to do so. Our monied men, with a few notable exceptions, have done little to bring about these benefits. They occupy much the position of a horse hitched to a loaded cart on a steep hill, it is a case of move or be run over, and they have, reluctantly, moved but only to the bottom of the hill.

What we want is push, public spirit, enterprise, a disposition to make the pace, not follow in the rut made by our fathers.

Wilson, with its back country of farming lands, is one of the finest localities in the State for the establishment of factories for the manufacture of cotton and tobacco. We should today have at least two more cotton factories and half a dozen factories for the working up of our supply of leaf tobacco into plug, smoking tobacco and cigarettes.

A CONDITION, NOT A THEORY.

If there is any lack of Moral Tone in our town, and that there is, the most charitable will admit, it must have a cause. There must be a reason for it.

To find the cause and strive to remove it, we will worth our effort. If our material improvement be worth the money expended and the labor of our energetic commissioners, surely the higher interests—those that relate to family, bore and individual character,—deserve at our hands care and attention. One of our fruitful causes of the moral destemper which breaks out ever and anon among us and which is not so observable from its frequent eruptions, as from the ever hanging cloud of moral apathy that floats through our streets, we have not far to go to find. We ask the attention of the Wilson readers of THE ADVANCE to these facts: We have in this town about three thousand and white inhabitants. We have no slums, no alleys, districts such as are found in large cities where misery, want and crime can sleep and welter. Vice has no retreat surrendered and marked in the town of Wilson. Yet, listen: We have five churches, built purposely to breed moral tone and purity, easy of access, no pew rent, good singing and good preaching. By cheerfully inquiring and visiting in person we have found that the combined congregation of these churches on any given Sunday morning is less than eight hundred.

Here is the statement again: A town, of three thousand white, free and intelligent souls and over two thousand of that number non-attendants on religious service. And yet we live in a Christian land. We have been reared every one of us by Christian people and under Christian influences. And individually now if one of the preachers were to come to us and ask us man to man, if we did not believe in the Christian religion and its surpassing value to our community, we would ask him what he took us to be.—Hottentots or Gorillas? The bare suggestion would be an insult. These figures make a bad show for Wilson as a moral and religious community. Is there no public conscience to which they appeal? If there is not, why is there not? Because it has been cut and tabbed to death by a moral delinquency, the more shameful that it is unusual.

Three thousand people—white people—mostly people of culture and good raising, fellow citizens—and not eight hundred of them attendants upon the worship of God.

Sometimes when contemplating these facts we have thought of Sodom and Gomorrah—those cities which stand in history as representatives of the highest point reached of municipal wickedness, and have wondered what those cities would be like if the moralists did on Sunday, and when they had any hotels or drug stores for looking resorts. They must have had. There is no way to account for Lot's virtuous loneliness except in this conclusion. But the trouble about the matter is this: There seem to be few signs of improvement. This condition from its very nature must tend constantly to grow worse. Evangelists do not seem to be able to stem the current in any permanent way. Life comes, but except in few individual cases, everything falls back into the old way; and somehow these reactions seem to plunge a community into deeper moral stupor. It causes us to be so mad do violence to their honest pledges—till the great religious spasm which seemed so full of good and Godliness, assumes nothing but the form of a hollow jest—an object of flippant remark—the laugh-breeder of every group of the reformed and fallen, both male and female.

Oh ye men—give us time—give us ten years, give us twenty. Let us see these seeds of moral disease—these habits of moral laxity so markedly characteristic of a large number of our citizens. Let the almighty dollar God and King spread his religion thro the two coming decades. Let us transmit intensified these influences to our successors in life and rule—and the snow white spotlessness of this town, the pearly purity of its social character will be enough to make even angels envy its fortunate population.

The Southern League.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 8.—The Southern League of ball clubs held its regular meeting in this city today. The principal work done was the adoption of a schedule for the coming season.

The most important action of the base ball meeting was the creation of a sinking fund by the deduction of 3 per cent of the gross receipts at each game. The Southern League on the subject of rule changes, recommends that the flat bat be abolished; that the pitcher go back from five to ten feet, and that foul bunts be called strikes.

It is generally conceded by all who have tried it and their "name is legion" that Salvation Oil is the best liniment in the market to-day. It is compounded only of the best ingredients, and is guaranteed to be positively pure.

LEGISLATURE.

(Continued from first page.) MONDAY, Feb. 15.—The Senate was called to order at 10:30 this morning by Lieutenant Governor Doughton, and prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Porter, of the Senate.

A bill to require the railroad commissioners to regulate the handling of baggage, passed third reading. A bill to require the railroad commissioners to make annual reports to the governor, passed third reading.

A bill to amend the act erecting the railroad commission relative to assessments of property, passed second reading. Resolution asking for the appointment of a committee of five to inquire into the expediency of establishing a penitentiary for manufacturing car wheels passed second and third reading.

To amend chapter 177, laws of 1887, changing the name of Thompson Ordnance to the Thompson Training Institution, passed third reading.

MONDAY, Feb. 15.—The house was called to order this morning at half past 10 o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Hurley of the city.

CALENDAR. House bill 29, to prevent fire insurance to operate under a combination fixing rates, was laid on the table. House bill 314, to prevent violations of the insurance laws, and prevent injury to the finances of the state. An amendment was adopted striking out "one half going to the informer." The bill passed its second reading and was then more fully explained, and appeared to be aimed at persons pretending to act as agents who were not such in reality. It then passed its third reading and was ordered to be engrossed.

House bill 382, a bill in relation to divorce, providing conditions if other party willfully leave the state, &c., was laid on the table. House bill 524, to establish an astronomical observatory in North Carolina, was laid on the table.

House bill 543, to extend the time for the redemption of land sold for taxes—extending the time twelve months, was laid on the table. House bill 554, to amend section 3737 of the Code, relating to the fees of solicitors, was discussed and amended so as to leave fees for certain officers as they are, changing the law only as affecting capital offences, when the fee of $20 is to be paid whether there is conviction or not.

Mr. Anderson hoped the bill would not pass; solicitors are now well paid, some get $4,500 a year. Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, denied this. Fees are only paid on conviction. Big fees are paid on the side of the defence. There were heavy toll in the face of discouraging conditions, and often the only chance of anything like success is to yield to a verdict of a lower grade.

Mr. Long, of Alamance, said the farmer paid his laborers whether he makes a crop or not. The laborer was worthy of his hire. He was with the lawyers, engaged day after day. He should receive his pay. Mr. Cartaway moved to lay the bill on the table, on which motion Mr. Nash called the ayes and nays, and the motion failed; but on a division, the house tabled the bill—ayes 65, nays 20.

House bill 605, to protect consumers of illuminating oils, and to provide for the same, and to require a fire test not under 120, was put on its reading. On motion of Mr. Blair the bill was laid on the table.

At 2:15 p. m. the house adjourned until tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock a. m.

I have been a great sufferer from dry catarrh for many years, and I tried many remedies, but none did me so much benefit as Ely's Cream Balm. It completely cured me. M. J. Lally, 39 Woodward Ave., Boston Highlands, Mass.

BEAUFORT, N. C., February 9.—The Congregational church, Washburn Seminary and two small frame buildings were burned Wednesday. The loss on the former is estimated at $8,000; fully insured.

Cups and saucers, plates and all crockery ware, at cost, at Young's.

RALEIGH, N. C., February 9.—Fire on Blount street this afternoon destroyed the store house of Latta and Wyatt, where 200 bales of cotton was stored. It was fully insured. A stable and tenement house of Frank Stronack was also destroyed.

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and use every available medicine that was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me. Emanuel Meyers, Winfield L. L. N. Y.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 8. In the whiskey-trust investigation today before the House Judiciary Committee, Thomas Dewey testified that he was approached by Gibson, secretary of the Distilling and Cattle-Feeding Company, and requested to assist in destroying the Shufeldt distillery. He stated that Gibson said he could give him something that if put under the tank of alcohol in the distillery would go off in a few hours, no one would know anything about it, and the difficulty of his company in Chicago would be done away with. He was to get $10,000 in case of success and $8,000 in case of failure. Subsequently, on the advice of his superior revenue agent, Somerville met Gibson and accepted "the thing," and Gibson explained how to use it. Saw Gibson the following day and told him he would probably have to go to other distilleries and would not have a chance to use it. Was then ordered to St. Paul.

Congressman-Elect Cannon Hadly Beaten by a Republican. SPRINGFIELD, ILL., February 8.—Congressman-elect Cannon and State Senator Bacon had a personal encounter in the lobby of the Leland Hotel this morning, which resulted in a painful but not serious injury to the Congressman's nose and face. Cannon fell to the floor from the blows which were rained upon him, while the Senator, who is many years the Congressman's junior and has something of a reputation of an athlete, escaped without a scratch. Each of the belligerents charged the other with being the aggressor, but the general belief is that both of the men were rather "eager for the fray." Cannon and Bacon have for some years been leaders of rival factions in the Republican party. The Congressman attributes his defeat in the congressional election two years ago to the opposition or lethargy of the Bacon faction.

Shawls, towels, all grades, at cost, at Young's.

Counting The Vote. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8.—An immense crowd were drawn to the Capitol today by the merely formal ceremonies incident to the official counting of the electoral vote. The bright sunshine and tonic bracing breeze which marked the day, were boldly claimed as "Cleveland weather," and were sharply contrasted with the dreary atmospheric surroundings which have so unfortunately accompanied nearly every one of Harrison's public appearances, commencing with a drenching rain on his inauguration day.

Vice-President Morton some days since, appointed as tellers on behalf of the Senate for this important ceremony, Mr. Hale of Maine, and Mr. Blackburn of Kentucky.

Speaker Crisp appointed Judge Chipman of Michigan, and Henry Cabot Lodge (Senator-elect from Massachusetts), as the House tellers. The actual ceremonies were nearly the same today as four years ago, with a slight difference in the personnel. There was the ceremonious opening of the safe in the Vice-President's room and the taking out of 88 sealed packages supposed to represent the votes of 44 States as received in duplicate by mail and messenger.

The boxes having been safely deposited in the House, the Senate in a body followed shortly before one o'clock.

The Vice-President ascended the Speakers platform and took his seat at the right hand of Speaker Crisp, the Senators ranging themselves in places assigned to them on the right of the hall, and the Speaker sitting at the left of the Vice-President and in this manner the count proceeded in the presence of the densely packed galleries and crowded floor. Following the precedent observed on former occasions, unless demand was made that the certificate be reported in full, the tellers, having ascertained that the certificates are in due form and properly authenticated, omitted the formal statement of the proceedings of the colleges and proceeded rapidly with the reading and ascertainment of the result.

Total, Cleveland and Stevenson, 277; Harrison and Reid, 145; Weaver and Field, 22; grand total, 444.

After the last certificate had been read and the results footed up the Vice-President made the customary announcement that under the law this was sufficient declaration that Grover Cleveland, of the State of New York, was elected President of the United States, and that Adlai E. Stevenson, of the State of Illinois, was elected Vice-President of the United States, each for the term beginning March 4th, 1903, and that this result would be entered, together with the list of votes, on the journals of the Senate and House of Representatives. The joint session was then declared dissolved, the Senate withdrew, and each house resumed business in its own chamber.

Hanged for Murder. SUFFOLK, VA., February 9.—John B. Royster, the negro who murdered John P. Eppes on the night of July 30th, 1891, expiated his crime on the gallows in the county jail here today. Royster was visited in jail by a large number of people this morning, including the white and colored ministers of the town who read scriptures and prayed with him until the hour of his execution. He was led to the scaffold at 12:20 o'clock, when Sheriff Baker read to him the order for his execution and gave him an opportunity to say anything he might desire, but the condemned man was too frightened to make any connected statement. Prayer was offered on the scaffold for him and at 12:23 o'clock the drop fell and at 12:40 o'clock life was pronounced extinct by the attending physician. He died almost without a struggle.

Spoons, bluing, clothes pins at cost, at Young's.

Cold and high winds predicted for tomorrow.

RALEIGH, N. C., February 8.—The Legislative Committee on Railroads and Railroad Commission, which has for several days had under consideration the question of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad taxes, and of which Mr. Little is Chairman of the Senate Branch and Mr. Spruill chairman of the House Branch, after several private conferences, held an open meeting yesterday afternoon at which the officials of the road and those representing the interests of the State were present and were heard.

The meeting was to consider and to discuss the proposition which the Wilmington and Weldon has made for the settlement of taxes and in regard to its exemption.

The proposition is to the effect that the Railroad Company shall surrender all its exemption from taxation and all its right to make rates free from State control and pay all back taxes for two years.

The committee was addressed by Ex-Gov. Thos. J. Jarvis who urged that the proposition be accepted as a fair and equitable adjustment. Addresses were also made by Col. Thos. W. Strange and Col. Jas. W. Hinds, representing the interests of the county of Wilmington and the county of New Hanover, and by Mr. Warren G. Elliott, President of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

Without taking any action the committee adjourned to further consider the matter today.

Mr. Harvey Hood. Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat.

"I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health." Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state a few facts: For several years I have suffered from catarrh and heart failure, getting so bad I could not work and could scarcely walk.

I had my throat examined and found it was so bad that I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and were sure that I could not live long. I tried many remedies, but none did me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, telling me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been cured.

At Death's Door. I was on the point of death from Catarrh. After talking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I had continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and my pills for restoration to perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla, Laceyville, O.
