THE UNRAVELING OF A GREAT MYSTERY

BY SKILLED DETECTIVES "The Rajah's Ruby"

Hats! Strawberries and cream. Spring chickens are ripe. Memorial next Wednesday. Excursion season approaches.

Learn obedience so that you will be qualified to command.

Messrs. J. J. Privett & Co., have moved to the store formerly occupied by Mr. Lochman, on Tarboro Street.

We commence one of the most thrilling stories of the age today. "The Rajah's Ruby." Don't fail to read it.

If you place any value upon life, don't mention strawberries to railroad employees.

In our last issue we stated that Mr. Dorsey Boykin, who died at Barnes Store, was a Primitive Baptist. We should have said Freewill Baptist.

Guston Davis, who lives with Mr. C. W. Knight, at Barnes Store, killed a chicken hawk which measured three feet eight inches from tip to tip.

Mr. John N. Pearce, formerly of Wilson, but now freight conductor on the A. & D. R. R. spent several days in town last week on account of a mashed hand.

On account of sickness, the ice cream party that was to have been held at Mrs. Geo. Hackney's, was held at the residence of Mrs. W. D. Hackney's last Saturday evening.

The man who called sarsaparilla a raud had good reason; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.

Ladies who use cosmetics or powders to cover up or hide a bad complexion, do not know that we can furnish them with Blush of Roses, which is clear as water, purifies the skin, and positively removes black heads and all skin diseases, takes the shiny look from the face and whitens it soon as applied. A. J. Hines.

We are pleased to announce that doctor Harmon, the Ophthalmic Optician, will not leave Wilson as stated in our last issue, but has consented to remain for a week or two longer.

The Doctor finds that his many friends here have not forgotten him and insist on his staying with them until they are all fitted out with glasses. While in his rooms at the Briggs House Saturday, we saw a trifling swarn to be of the leading physicians of an adjoining county, in which they testify to his skill and reliability. If you want to know anything about your eyes, call and see him and he will tell you honestly what he can do for you.

Those wishing to buy building lots will do well to see Mr. W. P. Simpson—see his Ad. "Suburban property."

Mr. J. W. Batts' horse ran away Tuesday and broke his drag right badly. The horse escaped any serious damage.

There was a very enjoyable "Gypsy Tea" given at Wiggins' mill last Wednesday evening by the young people of Wilson.

Prof. Smith started his new class Monday. Miss Emmie Greene took first and Charlie O'Hagan second prize in his last class.

Monday the dwelling house of William Woodard, colored a tenant on Mr. C. A. Young's plantation caught fire and burned to the ground. Nothing saved.

The water works are progressing rapidly. The chimney at the power house which is to be 65 feet high was started Tuesday. The work of laying pipe in the town is almost completed.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Woodard last week was a grand success. After the regular program was completed, Mr. Henry Blount in his happiest style, announced refreshments.

When we gaze at the small army of berry pickers at work on the farms near Mount Olive, we cannot refrain from making a mental calculation of the number of square inches of back ache to each quart of berries.

The election on Monday resulted in the election of the following aldermen: 1st Ward, J. D. Bullock; 2nd Ward, E. N. Mercer; 3rd Ward, Dr. A. Anderson; 4th Ward, T. A. Davis; 5th Ward, J. T. Ellis.

The wealth and prosperity of a community depends altogether upon its manufacturing industries and agricultural resources. We have the latter, but need the factories to create a demand for our produce. A home market is the best in the world.

The largest gathering for some months was witnessed in Mt. Lebanon Lodge, No. 117, A. F. M., last Monday night. The occasion was the conferring of the E. A. degree which was most admirably rendered. By the way, how do you feel Dave?

A Rose Tea will be given by the St. Agnes Guild at the residence of Mr. E. G. Rawlings, Thursday evening from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. Refreshments served without extra charge. Every body cordially invited to attend.

If you are thinking of keeping cool this summer, it is in order to make preparation. J. & D. Oettinger invite you to examine their goods. Their motto "Right goods at Right Prices" has the proper ring, and they will do as they advertise.

We don't believe there is a railroad in the United States whose employees surpass those of the Atlantic Coast Line for efficiency in the performance of their duties or in the kind attention they extend to the travelling public. They are always kind, courteous, and attentive to the public and assiduous in the discharge of their duties.

Mr. P. T. Lucas had a mule stolen from him last Saturday and came up to the ADVANCE to advertise, and while describing the mule we were able to put him on the track of his animal. Half an hour later he passed the office with his mule. Moral: when you want anything come to the ADVANCE.

On Sunday last the funeral of Mr. Alfred Ellis was held near Moyeton. Mr. Ellis was one of the founders of the Joseph Warren Lodge, Number 92, at Moyeton, N. C. The funeral was attended by about 1,500 people. The masons turned out in full force. Dr. Moyer acted as master of ceremonies, and W. H. Applewhite, as marshal.

What has become of our proposed new tobacco warehouse? Don't let the scheme fall through. What we want is every possible means of attracting the tobacco trade. Every body knows that three houses can sell more than two. We also need more pack-houses. Why don't you build them? A pack-house will pay a net rental of 1 1/2 per cent.

Your Name in Print. Mr. Geo. Connor was in town Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Hargrave has returned home.

Mr. Fred Morrill, of Green county, was in town this week.

Mr. White, of the firm of Guild & White, contractors for the water works, is in town. Mr. White brings his wife with him.

BLACK CREEK ITEMS.

Mr. F. J. Woodard was in town Monday.

Mr. P. L. Woodard who has been quite sick for several days, we are indeed glad to learn that he is much better.

Mr. Dorsey Battle, Manager of the Keely Institute at Rocky Mount gave us a very interesting lecture on Monday night.

The Town Election passed off quietly on Monday. The following candidates were elected: A. Barnes, Mayor; Geo. T. Rowe, Police; W. A. Brooks, Clerk; Commissioners: R. G. Privette, P. L. Woodard and A. W. High.

Fremont and the home boys crossed bats Saturday. Watson and Hooks Battery, Sauls and Privette battery on the home team. Struck out by Watson 4. Struck out by Sauls 18. Score, Black Creek 24, Fremont 6.

Our new Post Master, Mr. A. Barnes takes the post office today. Our old one we must confess has made us a good one. But Mr. Cleveland you see has started around and all you folks that didn't remember him on the 4th, will have to take a back seat and remain until it comes your time again. Its little tough at first, but we can become acclimated in 4 years, it seems.

A pavilion and lake will be among the attractions of the park, besides ball grounds and arrangements for other field sports.

Sunshine in the House! "I'm weary with work!" the good wife sighed. "But after all," she said, "It's sweet to labor for those we love. No wonder that maids will wed."

A wise housewife lightens her toil and gladdens her home circle by her cheerfulness. But health is the first requisite, and her just prerogative. Health follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which repairs the ravages caused by those peculiar diseases which afflict womankind. It enriches the blood, cures the cough, increases the flesh, prevents hysteria, nervousness and low spirits, and is a veritable fountain of life to women, young and old. Satisfaction, or the price ($1.00) refunded. Of druggists.

According to the correspondents, Chicago has suddenly become converted to the high tariff policy.

Constipation, and all troubles, with the digestive organs and the liver, are cured by Hood's Pills. Unequaled as a dinner pill.

Mr. Murphy, otherwise known as "Cornel" Murphy, is now on his way back from Europe, where he has been engaged in introducing maize products. He met with much success.

What ear splitting cries we hear daily in the streets of every large city! But these itinerant dealers who hawk their wares about are, when under proper restrictions, a useful portion of the community, and not such nuisances as the catarrh hawkers. This is a stubborn disease to conquer, but Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy does it. It is mild, soothing and antiseptic, unlike snuffs that irritate, or solutions that burn. It corrects offensive breath, and restores taste, smell and hearing. Nasal catarrh often ends in consumption. Apply the cure in time. Price 50 cents by all druggists.
