LOCAL.

The big fire which took place at Goldsboro Sunday evening, destroyed $3,000 worth of cotton.

Mr. J. H. Lee is conducting a school near the factory. He has about twenty five scholars enrolled.

Mr. E. G. Rose will commence immediately the erection of a two story frame house near the base-ball grounds.

Mr. John Pruden has opened up a first-class grocery store near the factory. He invites all his friends to call and give him a trial.

Mr. Floyd Bynum had an encounter with a mad dog on his way home the other evening. Fortunately the dog did not hurt him.

Last Friday night the ladies of the Methodist church had a lawn party on Court House square. It was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

Messrs. Geo. and Alex Stronach, of Raleigh, intend opening up a first class family grocery store at the old McCraw stand about the first of August.

Painful Accident. We are very sorry to learn that Mr. Lockamy, while cutting a piece of tin, the scissors slipped and cut his finger off.

A Good Move. Mr. Kincaid intends to commence the manufacture of cigars and cigarettes on about the first of August. He will use the Corbett Hotel property and is now having it fitted up for that purpose.

Attention. The owners of dogs are hereby notified that the ordinances require that all dogs must be registered by August 1st and all persons failing to register their dog will be fined $2.00 and the dog will be destroyed.

Christian Teacher's Assembly. From July 20th to 30th the Christian Teacher's Assembly will be in session at Littleton. Quite a crowd of distinguished teachers will be in attendance, and interesting exercises are promised.

The Weekly Visitor. We have received the first number of The Weekly Visitor, a little paper published by Rev. J. M. Rhodes, President of Littleton Female College. It is bright and newsy, and will no doubt be a valuable addition to school journalism in North Carolina.

Democratic Convention. Next Saturday the Primary Conventions of the Democratic party will be held in the various townships to select delegates to the county convention which meets in Wilson July 25th. The county convention will select delegates to the State, congressional, and Judicial convention.

Picnic at Rock Ridge. Tomorrow there will be a picnic at Rock Ridge this county. It will be the occasion of the annual gathering of the farmers of this county. Dr. C. Y. Thompson and Mr. Marion Butler will be on hand and deliver speeches. At night they will speak in the Court House in Wilson.

Two Papers Born. This has been an eventful week in journalism for Wilson. Two papers have been launched upon the uncertain sea of popular approval. Wilson now has four newspapers and one religious journal. What town in North Carolina can show more activity for one week than Wilson?

The Reformer. Tomorrow the Populist paper, The Reformer, will make its appearance. It will be under the direction of Mr. S. P. Clark, one of the prosperous merchants of Wilson, and owned by fifteen stockholders. Mr. Clark being among the number. It will gain the support no doubt, of our Populist friends, and will doubtless merit such support.

Sunday Night. Sunday night Annie Rodgers, (col.) fell dead in the yard at her home in this town. She was apparently well before, had been to church that evening, and coming back home retired as usual. Sometime during the night she got up, left the room, and went out to the well, her husband following her. While there she fell to the ground in a faint and died before help could arrive.

Warehouses to Open.

All the Warehouses in Wilson will be opened the first of August. We have been informed that there will be several new buyers on the market. Farmers may rest assured that no better place to sell can be found than Wilson.

Most Liberal. Liquor dealers in Wilson have to pay $400 license tax. This money must come from advertising as they seem to be the most liberal advertising patrons of the Wilson papers.—Greenville Index.

Search the columns of the ADVANCE, brother, and see what you see.

A Big Day. On Wednesday August 1st, there will be at the Fair grounds in Wilson trotting races, bicycle races and base ball between two of the best amateur clubs in the State. A good band will furnish music for the occasion. The opening of all the Tobacco Warehouses and a big break expected. Let every body come. Wilson never does anything by halves.

Races in August. During the first week in August there will be some fine races at the race track near town. The following gentlemen have entered for the contest: Jack Baker, Doc Thorne, of Greene county, John Selby, and Jeff Farrior. These are all good managers of horse flesh and the public may expect much good fun.

Mr. Stickney has a Call to Richmond. The congregation of the Monumental church, of Richmond, Va., has extended a call to Rev. F. S. Stickney, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church of this city. It is sincerely hoped that he will not accept it. Mr. Stickney was chosen to the rectorship of this parish to succeed the newly elected bishop of the Episcopal Church of North Carolina. He is wanted in Richmond to succeed the newly-elected bishop of the diocese of Virginia.—Charlotte Observer, July 15th.

Mr. Stickney's friends here will rejoice to hear of his good fortune in being wanted in two such good places.

An Unknown Admirer. About one year ago a pretty young lady attending Richmond High School received a package from a little town in Virginia containing a handsome and valuable diamond ring. Accompanying the package was a note stating that the donor was unknown to her and she would, perhaps, never see him, but that he admired her. The ring had engraven in it the word "Unknown."

The young lady graduated this year, and recently she received a package postmarked from a small town in North Carolina. It contained an elegant gold watch and chain. A note accompanying the present stated that her unknown admirer knew her birthday occurred about the middle of June and that the gift was intended as a birthday present. The enamored unknown took great pains to keep the young lady and her friends from discovering his identity.

He even carved out the numbers in the watch so the jeweler who sold it could not be traced. Neither the young lady nor any of her friends have the faintest idea as to who the knowing admirer can be, they not knowing any one in the towns from which the presents came.—Ex.

The singing of Mrs. Hill at Centenary M. E. Church Sunday was much admired by those in attendance there. She has a remarkably pure and clear soprano voice, and sings with the greatest ease. At the Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday Mrs. Hill again sang to the pleasure of a number that had been notified that she would sing there. It has been decided to have an informal gathering at the hall Friday night at which she will be assisted by the Y. M. C. A. Orchestra and other home talent.—Newbern Journal.

DEBS was committed to jail Tuesday for contempt of court. He had continued to issue his orders after an injunction restraining him was issued, and the court committed him to jail for contempt.

NELLIE BLY bearded the lion in his den the other day. She went to Springfield and asked Gov. Altgeld the pointed question, "are you an anarchist?" The Gov. didn't want to answer at first, but Nellie smiled at him, and then he replied that he was not.

NELLIE BLY has been to Pullman. She tells a tale about the strike which is different from most accounts of it. She says the strikers have not burned any cars, or torn up any roads. On the contrary they have been at home nursing the babies, while the deputies and soldiers have been doing the rioting. How newspapers do prevaricate!

From Elm City.

I see that there is some discussion relative to the manner that delegates and candidates are to be nominated.

Now as one of the voters of old Townsend township, I am in favor of Primary elections, and I speak for a majority of the Democratic voters of this township. It will give all an opportunity to express their sentiments at the polls and as we should work together in harmony so that we can roll up a handsome majority for old Democracy.

RANG THEM IN.

Peculiar Method of Gathering an Audience in Texas.

Before theaters were built in Texas companies going there would play in the schoolhouses. A manager upon his arrival in town was assured by the inhabitants whom he met that he would have a "big crowd to the show that night."

The countenance of the hopeful manager beamed with delight upon the schoolhouse as he opened the door and found such a large crowd standing at the door that he became almost delirious with visions of the ponderous bags of silver he would carry away from that town. He felt as if he walked on air as he pushed his way through the crowd, opened wide the schoolhouse doors and told the janitor to light the lamps, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. The lamps were soon lighted, the front box open and the manager's smile reached a greater distance than he ever dreamed his mouth would stretch. His heart beat faster than for weeks before.

At that moment, however, the smile contracted, the bounding heart became more tranquil, for the doors had now been opened and the lamps lighted for twenty minutes, and still the crowd, which had now acquired immense proportions, remained outside. Not a soul had entered. In desperation the manager demanded of the janitor: "Why in thunder don't they come in?"

"Oh," the janitor explained, "they won't come in till you ring the bell!"

The manager sprang on the step-ladder, and with an energy which would do credit to "Curfew Shall Not Ring To-night," pulled that bell-rope and everybody in town could hear the bell ring.

The audience all rushed in and almost pulled hair for seats. The next morning this manager took away not only his large bag of silver, but with it a lesson in ringing in a Texas audience.

FROM ELM CITY.

EDITORS ADVANCE:—I see from the papers that the Senate has completed the tariff bill at last. What has Senator Matt W. Ransom done in the Senate? Absolutely nothing.

He has sat in his seat and allowed a bill passed taxing woolen goods for poor woman and children 30 per cent. This is something that every poor woman and child in North Carolina have to have to protect them from the icy blasts of winter.

I wish that there was woman's suffrage to revenge this wrong directly, but I guess the indignation of woman's husbands and children will when Senator Ransom comes before them for this suffrage again make itself pitifully felt. There is not a man in North Carolina who can say and tell the truth that Senator Ransom has lived up to his campaign pledges. The Democratic party of North Carolina which he was elected to represent in the Senate has been almost ignored, but few of his acts are indorsed by the Democratic party in the State. I say acts the acting he's done, was to vote to confirm all the Radicals, mugwumps and coons that Cleveland has put up for office.

Senator Ransom's interfering with Senator Vance's recommendation for office in the West is going to damage his prospect. The people of the West had too much love and admiration for Senator Vance to support any man for office that would interfere with his arrangements. Senator Ransom did this: He went before Cleveland and did his best to have some of Senator Vance's recommendations ignored.

Remember, that the Legislature elects the United States Senator. You should be very careful to select men that can be trusted, of integrity and truth, to go to Raleigh, and vote for men to represent you in the United States Senate. Wilson county doesn't want Senator Ransom any longer. The Democratic conventions of North Carolina should be very careful not to indorse Cleveland's administration. There will be a few Democrats again, who have been sucking Uncle Sam's teat and a few rings who wish to control, ready to endorse everything and anything just as they have been in the habit of doing. It will be exceedingly unwise and impolitic for the party in open convention to endorse Cleveland.

The people by no means have gotten what they were promised, neither by Cleveland nor Senator Ransom. We should be resentful for the things which, though promised we have not received. The Democratic party should maintain its honor and sell respect.

Now Mr. Editor, in conclusion, Wilson county wants an expression on the Senatorial question and the only way to get it is to have primaries for all the officers in the county. Let us have primaries for Senator on the day of election so our representatives will know who to vote for, know who their constituents want for Senator.
