It was a great victory for the young Whig, Zeb Vance, when he defeated the Democrat, W. W. Avery, for Congress before the war. Avery said everywhere in the joint canvass that Vance would stand no show, as cently we have had occasion to see he couldn't overcome the 2,000 Democratic majority in the district. Vance, however was elected by 2,000 majority himself, and in the joint meeting, at Asheville, of the rival candidates, customary to be held in those days after an election, to make friends and heal old wounds, Vance made the most of his success. He said in effect: "My opponent charged that I would be snowed under, but it was vice versa. I remind myself of the F Caldwell county 'possum, which an indignant mountaineer told me about. Said he: 'I stretched that 'possum's neck tell I thought he was dead; I skinned him, and biled him for three hours, but don't you think when I took the led off'n the pot, the cussed little devil was a settin' up there on its hind iegs, and had licked up all the gravy?" RICHMOND, VA., July 2nd, 1894.

H. B. HARTMAN, DEAR SIR :- I take pleasure in commending your Arsenic Lithia Water. It seems to possess the properties of a tonic as well a dimetic. I find it a splendid regulator of the system. It is a general favorite with the patients, many like Mrs. Bibb, will doubtless procure it for themselves after leaving
