NUMBER 42

Two Blind Men and a Dog.

While strolling in Sixth avenue the other day I paused to note an interesting incident of that busy street, when I heard just behind me the jolly voice of a man:

"It always does me good to meet you, old man."

"Thanks—how's trade? You're getting some new wrinkles in yours, eh?"

The last speaker was slowly passing his hand over the face of the other man. He held a long staff in the other hand, and the man who was being examined had a string attached to a small dog. Both men were blind.

"Oh, I have nothing to complain about," said the man with the dog, though the latter didn't appear to take such a cheerful view of affairs. He sniffed dejectedly, and his tail was wholly destitute of wag. Did you ever notice that a blind man's dog never manifests any particular interest in mundane things? They gradually acquire a moody temperament and affect a gloomy view of life. All the time these two sightless men laughed and chatted the dog sat looking at them in the most melancholy and morose manner.—New York Herald.

Why is he so irritable?

This question is often heard and nearly as often unanswered. It is not often remembered as it should be, that the occasion of ill-temper and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons affected. What is the use of trying to harmonize a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tortured with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to get at the cause. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparil; this is why it is an effective tranquilizer, a peaceful messenger, and a preventive of domestic quarrels.

Jarvis' Loyalty.

Senator Jarvis made a speech at the opera house here last Tuesday night to a large and attentive audience of ladies and gentlemen. He was very cordially received and made a telling speech. It was a clear exposition of Democratic doctrine; portrayed what the Democratic party has done, and explained the present tariff law. Senator Jarvis came right square out and said he was flat-footed on the State platform and in favor of silver and currency, and as demanded by the State Democratic platform. He did not waver or dodge the question. This was enthusiastically received. It showed that the people are not deceived or misled by gold bug teachings. He said he had neither sympathy nor respect for the "Whangdoodle" utterances of the men who opposed fulfilling the Democratic pledges as to free coinage.—Hickory Press.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen and Co., Chicago, Ill., and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by B. W. Hargrave, druggist.

Irresistible.

Book-cannassers should take courage from a story told by an English lecturer on "The Art of Book-binding."

A man of their profession had called at a house whose occupant met him with a growl.

"It's no use to me, I never read."

"But there's your family," said the canvasser.

"Hav't any family—nothing but a cat."

"Well, you may want something to throw at the cat."

TURNER FAILED IN PROVING GUILT.

The Story of the Great Express Robbery Verdict Yet in the World of Sensation—Fifteen Days on the Case—Only Point in Hand.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—Nothing new has developed in the Quantico train robbery that is regarded with satisfaction.

The original report that a signal-man saw the flying engine coming along the track and telegraphed to Quantico to look out for it is incorrect. The engine was rushing into Quantico station until announced at the rate of a mile a minute, when a switchman named O'Leary, by a happy instinct, came to the conclusion that something was wrong and instantly seized the switch bar, threw the target over and sent the engine dashing up a steep grade into a coal dump where it smashed, three or four coal cars and unspooled in a miraculous wreck.

But in Pinkerton's Hands.

The managers and assistant managers of the Adams express company were in consultation in this city yesterday. Their part of the investigation has been placed in the hands of the Philadelphia office of the Pinkertons.

The governor of Virginia has offered rewards for the arrest of the robbers. Other rewards have been offered by the express company and by the railroad and the governor of Maryland will cooperate in every way.

A number of detectives from Pinkerton's headquarters, at Philadelphia, reached Aquia Creek yesterday and started a search of the locality. Several New York Pinkerton men are also there.

Turner Could Not Prove Guilt.

The man Turner, who was arrested here while in a drunken condition Saturday night and who claimed to be one of the robbers who was cheated out of his share, turned out to be an irresponsible person. The express messenger saw him and said that he was not the man who entered the car.

The police authorities received word that a small schooner, with suspicious characters aboard, was anchored about twenty miles down the river. Thinking they might be the robbers, a squad of officers, heavily armed, sailed in the police boat to the schooner. Arriving there the officers found the schooner deserted but the inhabitants of that section said that the schooner's occupants had not deserted the vessel, but had left her temporarily, possibly over Sunday.

MEAN RETURN TO THEIR LOOMS.

The Strike at Fall River Formally Broken by Example.

FALL RIVER, October 15.—The entire business community is interested in the result of today's action of the employees, the interest centering in the action of the weavers. There is little doubt but that the rest of the employees will go in. It is expected that many of the weavers will return because the loss of wages for the past eight weeks has driven many of them, as well as other operatives, into straitened circumstances. The manufacturers are of the opinion that the operatives will have trouble in operating the machinery for a few days but do not anticipate that the loss will stay away from the mills after the first week in sufficient numbers to seriously affect business. But few entered early today.

FROM THE BATTLE FIELDS.

Chinese Agents Abroad Urged to Represent Their Advertisers Differently.

SHANGHAI, October 15.—It is reported that in consequence of the projected $10,000,000 ten per centage loan, to be guaranteed by the imperial customs, Chinese agents abroad have been instructed to put their best face possible on the result of the Chinese exports and to represent the fleet as being active and efficient. The outbreak of the Kinsho-wei society in Hankow was spread rapidly. Troops were sent out to quell it, but they were resisted bravely, and eventually put to flight. Two mandarins were killed.

DR. STUART DOUGLAS DEAD.

Famous as an Expert on Insanity, He Stood at the Head of His Profession.

NEW YORK, October 15.—Dr. Stuart Douglas, who has of late years been in charge of the insane pavilion at Bellevue hospital, is dead. Dr. Douglas was 54 years old, and was a graduate of the college of physicians and surgeons. He acquired fame as an expert on insanity and took charge of the insane ward at Bellevue hospital in 1872. He held that position continuously till he was taken ill three weeks ago. The remains were taken to Richmond, Va., the home of the deceased, at 6 o'clock last evening.

ANOTHER CHAPTER ADDED.

Sensational Waterlogged Sallies Arrive in Pensacola to Tell of the Late Storm.

PENSACOLA, Fla., October 15.—Captain Sante and sixteen men of the crew of the Spanish bark Barcelona from New Orleans to Barcelona, with a cargo of staves, were brought here yesterday by the pilot boat Haze. The Barcelona was dismantled and waterlogged, her pumps and everything on deck being carried away in last Monday's storm. One seaman was swept overboard and drowned.

The Stamp Losses Not Heavy.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—The officials of the bureau of engraving and printing express the opinion that the losses of postage stamps by the thefts of snails and his confederates will not exceed $1,300 or $1,500.

First Parliamentary Election.

BRUSSELS, October 15.—Belgium's first parliamentary election with universal suffrage was held yesterday. No summary yet possible.

The Requirement of Culture.

"Do you consider travel essential to an education?" asked the young man.

"Not if you live in Boston," replied the young woman with blue glasses.—Washington Star.

THE BLUE GRASS LYNCHING.

Prominent and Wealthy Citizen of Kentucky Strung Up by His Neighbors.

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 15.—Yesterday another lynching was added to the fall series of the Blue Grass lynchings. Saturday at the close of the Kentucky fair, Oscar Morton, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Stanton, in Powell county, went on the warpath. Only two weeks ago Morton killed a man at Stanton and was out on $5,000 bond to appear next week at the Powell circuit court. When Morton arrived at the fair he proceeded to get drunk and then went to find Sheriff William Simms, who was his deadly enemy, a feud of long standing existing between the two men. Simms and Morton met near the entrance to the fair grounds, and after a few words both of them drew guns and a quick exchange of shots followed. When the smoke had cleared away it was found that Sheriff Simms was dead. Before a crowd could collect Morton was hustled to the county jail. The people became infuriated and a mob quickly formed and marched to the jail. The jailer was overpowered and the keys to Morton's cell were obtained. After a short parley he was taken to a little some distance from the town and the rope was placed around his neck. The leaders drew their guns and told him to jump or else he would be riddled with bullets. He jumped breaking his neck, after cursing his captors. Further trouble is expected. This is the eighth lynching in three months.

CINCINNATI THE GATEWAY.

The Southern Anxious for the C., N. O., and T. P. Railway—Stockholders Meeting.

CINCINNATI, October 15.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railway company, to be held at the general offices here today, there will be two tickets for directors in the field. One ticket will be made up by the C. H. & D. syndicate people, and the other will be a ticket representing the southern railway interest. The Cincinnati Hamilton and Dayton also have booked six of the present members of the present board of directors to retire. Those who are to go out are Messrs. Rice, Thomas, Langford, McLaughlin, Weir and Anderson. The gentlemen are to be succeeded by H. F. Shoemaker, Alfred Sully, of New York, and E. W. Kittredge, Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., M. D. Woodford, and Eugene Zimmerman of Cincinnati. There is not likely to be any legal interference today. Mr. Greenough said last night that while the Southern railway was anxious to get hold of the property, as Cincinnati was the gateway between their lines and New York, they would probably wait and buy the stock.

DEATH IN BRISTOLE'S CAVE.

Uncle and Nephew, Alabama Kindred, Fight to a Fatal Finish.

CADSWELL, Ala., October 15.—In Bristol's cave, four miles from Mountaineer, near the county line between Etowah and Marshall, there occurred a cold-blooded murder late Saturday evening. The facts are as follows, as near as they could be learned: George Bartlett and his nephew, Dave Hubbard, had been engaged in getting out stone timber and had some work over the settlement. Saturday they were engaged in gathering corn, when the difficulty was returned. Bartlett was on the wagon and grabbing a hickory standard, struck at Hubbard, who also grabbed a legal interloper. The hickory struck Bartlett in the head, knocking him out of the wagon. Hubbard then went to the house and telling what he had done, fled the country. Parties went to the field where they found Bartlett dead.

NEW YORK'S REGISTRATION.

Heavy Gains Noted at All the Points Over the Last Enrollment.

ALBANY, N. Y., October 15.—Saturday, the third day of the registration, 6,215 names were enrolled in this city, making a total of 15,000 for the three days against 17,041 for the three days of last year, an increase this year of 1,322. Advice from other points show that the registration thus far is ahead of last year's considerably.

GEORGIA DIRECT TO EUROPE.

Twenty-Five Ships at Savannah Will Load With Cotton.

SAVANNAH, Ga., October 15.—There are twenty-five foreign steamships in port to load with cotton for Europe. The total tonnage is 40,000, and they will carry about 1,500,000 bales, or 50,000 more bales than are now in port. The receipts here are about 8,000 bales per day.

An Era of Unprecedented Prosperity.

HARRISBURG, Pa., October 15.—Iron and steel mills in this locality are enjoying an era of unprecedented prosperity. At the Pennsylvania steel works the production of rails and Bessemer steel last week was the heaviest of years.

Front in the Southern States.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—Forecast: For Georgia, fair, northeasterly winds, light frost in the interior, followed by slightly warmer weather. For Western Florida, Alabama and Mississippi, generally fair, easterly winds, slightly cooler.

Shot Dead While Escaping Prison.

QUINCY, Ill., October 15.—George Williams, who escaped from the Missouri prison, together with another convict, was shot and killed by Sheriff Pratt at Palmyra last evening. Williams' companion surrendered to the sheriff.

Richmond's Three Days Racing.

RICHMOND, October 15.—The three days racing of the Virginia exposition begins today with two running and two trotting trials. This will be the most important event of Virginia's turf history.

An American Wins the Honor.

THE POPULISTS FUSE

In Alabama It is a Heated Fight in the Congressional Race.

DEMOCRATS GETTING MORE ACTIVE.

The Anti-Democratic Southerners Straighten Out Republicans in Three of the Districts—Only Two Complete Tickets Now in the Field.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., October 15.—As November approaches the congressional campaign grows more heated. The populist in Alabama appeared and are just now putting forward greater efforts than ever. They are jubilant over the Georgia result.

However, the democrats are very active, and are preparing to meet every move made by the opposition. They are inviting to this state such speakers as Speaker Crisp, Secretary of Interior Smith, Congressman John Allen, of Mississippi, and others, besides Senator Morgan. All the congressional candidates are already on the stump, and a very lively campaign is being waged.

In the first, fourth and fifth districts the anti-democratic nominees are straight out republicans, whom the populist and Jeffersonian or Kolbitz has endorsed in their district conventions and approved to support. In the remaining districts, except the sixth, the opponents of democracy are populists or Kolbitz, who have the endorsement of the republican conventions, so that the fusion between the populists, Kolbitz and republicans is complete, one district excepted so far as the convention and party machinery of the three parties are concerned. This admits of but two complete sets of tickets in the field, the democratic and anti-democratic.

ONLY ONE STRANGE FACE.

Tennessee's Delegation in the Next Congress to be Only Slightly Changed.

MILAN, Tenn., October 15.—Only one face will be absent from the Tennessee delegation to congress next term—Alfred A. Taylor, republican of the first district. He will go on the lecture stage with his brother, ex-Governor Bob Taylor, who defeated him for governor in the famous "War of the Roses." Isham Harris, Tennessee's senior senator, who is going on in the campaign for work in the state, will succeed himself. Harris is president pro-tem of the United States senate, and one of the most noted southerners in the national congress. The old man is seventy-six years of age, and there is no opposition against him.

READY FOR THE OCCUPANTS.

The White House Finished for the Reception of President and Mrs. Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—President and Mrs. Cleveland will return to the city during the week. There is considerable work going on in anticipation of their coming and the mansion will be in comfortable shape for their reception. The east room is the most upset, as the painters are just finishing the woodwork and touching up the gilt. It is a very pleasant apartment. The other parlors, each of which has had some refurbishing, are looking quite fresh and attractive, and on the whole the house will look much more inviting in every way for its distinguished occupants.

GOV. BROWN FOR THE SENATE.

Denies the Rumor That He Would Not Make the Race.

FRANKFORT, Ky., October 15.—Governor Brown, in answer to the rumor that he would decline to enter the race for the United States senatorship, said: "There is no truth in the information. I am anxious and will urge that the democratic state convention shall nominate the candidate for senator. The people's choice for the position should be selected. The governor was asked if he would make any speeches before the November election. He answered: 'It will be impossible for me to make any speeches. The very critical illness of one of my daughters will prevent. I have declined many invitations for this reason.'

REFUSES TO JOIN AN ALLIANCE.

United States Will Not Interfere in the Oriental War.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—Although not officially admitted at the state department there are good reasons for the belief that the United States government has formally declined to enter the proposed alliance of Great Britain, France, Russia and Germany for the suppression of hostilities between China and Japan. The proposed intervention of the European powers is of a friendly character and is said to be intended for the good of the world. According to the story the declaration of the United States is based on its time-honored policy against entangling alliances with other countries.

THE MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Made by a Convict Upon a Foreman in the Frankfort Pen.

FRANKFORT, Ky., October 15.—A serious and probably fatal cutting affray occurred in the penitentiary about 11:30 o'clock this morning. Frank Chambers, a negro convict from Marion county, serving a life term, and a white convict, a double murder was committed. Geo. Truitt struck Chas. Hensley with a barrel stave during a fight and washed his death, and as Hensley was falling he disemboweled Truitt who cannot recover.

Father and Son on the Field of Honor.

MORGAN'S SERIOUS CHARGES.

Says Catholics Defeated Harrison and That the Archbishops are Conspirators.

MORGANVILLE, October 15.—General G. T. Morgan, Indian commissioner under General Harrison, made an address before the Baptist convention on "Rome in Politics" last night and made a bitter attack on the Catholic church, which he declared was a political organization. The Pope, he said, would soon try to have the Ablegate reorganized at Washington as an ambassador for political sovereignty. He charged the Catholics with securing the defeat of Harrison on account of his administration of Indian affairs. He asserted that 90 out of every 100 Catholics were democrats and only enough supported the republican ticket to keep up appearances. He referred to Archbishop Corrigan as a man who carried the United States senate in his pocket for the convenience use, and added that the archbishops were at this moment behind closed doors plotting against free schools and the free institutions of America.

EVERYBODY IN JERSEY.

Everybody and Everything in the Fight for the United States Senatorship.

TRIENON, N. J., October 15.—Everybody in New Jersey and everybody in the United States is in the fight for the United States senatorship. Now that senator McPherson has declared that he has had enough of politics it is anybody's race. Although the republicans claim that the democrats are demoralized by McPherson's withdrawal, yet as a matter of fact the democratic cause is helped thereby. With McPherson out, there is democratic enthusiasm. If a democratic legislature is elected any prominent democrat in the state can aspire to the senatorship. There is no one man in the party just now who has enough influence or who towers sufficiently above the others to make his selection a certainty. Allan McDermott and ex-governor Leon Abbott, it is true, are still in favor, but not enough but what anybody could enter the race with a good chance of winning.

STILL FIGHTING OVER BRINC.

Raised a Row With a Populist and Got Hit With a Weight.

FRANKFORT, Ky., October 15.—W. B. Bridgeford, the well known populist leader, and Judge W. J. Jett, a democratic politician, had a row Saturday night. Jett was drunk and made a verbal assault on Bridgeford for the part the latter took in the late campaign against Colonel Breckinridge. Jett got so insulting that Bridgeford ordered him out of his place of business. Jett became so angered at this that he advanced upon his adversary, and was in the act of striking him with a knife when the latter seized a large iron weight and struck him in the back of the head. Bridgeford's head was prevented further difficulty. The difficulty was provoked entirely by Judge Jett, who was one of Colonel Breckinridge's supporters, and is still sore over his defeat.

INJURED ARE HER FEELINGS.

An American Heiress Wants Big Damages From a London Banking House.

OMAHA, October 15.—An interesting sequel to the marriage of American heiress to a titled foreigner has developed in Omaha, where Florence E. Linton filed her petition in the district court, asking for a judgment of $200,000 from John Whitman Cooper, who she alleges is a member of the London banking firm of Brown, Janssen, & Co. She alleges these defendants conspired with others and have injured her feelings. Linton is a very young girl, who has had some refurbishing, are looking quite fresh and attractive, and on the whole the house will look much more inviting in every way for its distinguished occupants.

GOES INTO NEW MANAGEMENT.

The Reorganization of the Lexington and Eastern Railway.

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 15.—On November 1 the Kentucky Union railroad, recently purchased by J. Kennedy Tod at $1,000,000, will pass into the hands of the new management. It is probable that Maj. H. C. McDowell, of this city, will be made president, James Duane Livingston, vice-president and general manager, George Copeland, treasurer, and Arthur Cary, secretary. The company will be known as the Lexington and Eastern railway company. Livingston, who is financial manager for J. Kennedy Tod, has just returned from the east, and Saturday filed in court at Frankfort new articles of association, the J. Kennedy Tod company conveying its purchase of the road to the new reorganization.

CODY'S MYSTERIOUS ABSENCE.

The Author's Brother is Searching for Him in Utah and Lower California.

NEW YORK, October 15.—Alpheus S. Cody, the author and lecturer of No. 104 East Eighth-street, has been missing from home since yesterday. His brother, who is a student in the college of the city of New York, has searched for him in vain, and Saturday assurance has not been reported to the police.

Don't Murder an Arkansas Barbecue.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

STATE NEWS.

—Goldsboro Headlight. While attempting to unload his pistol in front of his store, Wednesday night, Mr. Herbert Maxwell met with a painful but luckily not serious accident. The weapon exploded, shooting a ball clean through his left hand.

—Fayetteville Observer. Last Friday afternoon the waste-house of the Cumberland Mills manufacturing Company was totally destroyed by fire, the origin of which is supposed to have been a spark from the engine. But for the splendid fire arrangements and the clear head of the manager Mr. W. K. Parker, the whole factory would probably have been burned.

—Charlotte News. Little Ted Irwin, of Charlotte, received a terrible laceration of the hands Tuesday; by the explosion of a dynamite cap. He was picking at the cap with a nail when the cap exploded. A finger of the right hand was torn out at the knuckle joint, and the first finger badly shattered. The palm of the hand lacerated. The tips of the thumb and first finger on his right hand were blown off.

—Asheville Citizen. The agricultural editor has received from Maj. Robt. Bingham school, a bet that beats all bets so far brought into our museum. He sent it in by Sam Smith, the colored man who, it will be remembered prepared for the firing of the Presidential salute in honor of Vice President Stevenson. But to return to the bet. It is 2 feet 7 inches in length, 2 feet 2 inches in circumference and weighs 26 1/2 pounds. It grew on the Bingham school property where an acre and a half is covered with beets, and it is believed there are some larger than the one sent in.

—Henderson Gold Leaf. A telegram was received by relatives here Saturday night announcing the death in Memphis, Tenn., of Mr. Harry Loughlin, brother of our townsman Mr. D. C. Loughlin. He was an acrobat and actor with Sells Bros.' circus and while performing in the flying perch at that place Friday fell and sustained injuries from which he died next day. Harry Loughlin, (whose professional name was Castello) was well known in Henderson, where he has spent much of his time during the past few years. He was a handsome, manly young man, moral and sober, and by his quiet and modest worth and gentlemanly demeanor made friends of all he met.
