ADVANCE PUBLISHING CO.

It is exactly two months to Christmas.

The Raleigh fair is going on this week.

The circus had several very fine horses.

Mr. E. F. Young, of Dunn, was in town Monday.

Mr. Sam Earl, of Springhope, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Robt. Boykin left for Raleigh on Monday last.

Mr. Joe Batts, of Norfolk, is in the city for a few days.

Mr. Jas. E. Rountree, of Morganton, is in the city this week.

Santa Claus is now getting things in order for his annual rounds.

Miss Schie Boykin, of Tarboro, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. F. Corbett at Talbot.

Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic, a guaranteed cure. For sale by B. W. Hargrave.

Notice our offer to club the semi-weekly World with the ADVANCE for one year for $1.50.

There is no room for a lazy man in this world. He had better emigrate to a more congenial climate.

The ADVANCE is a reliable medium for advertising. Put in your ad. and thus increase your business.

If you want to get full value for your money, take the ADVANCE and the Semi-Weekly World, both papers for $1.50.

Prof. Dred Peacock has been elected President of the Greensboro Christian Advocate Pub. Co., in place of Dr. Reid, deceased.

The phonograph has been in town several days, and the children and grown folks have had an excellent chance to hear some good music.

Superintendent Geo. W. Connor went to Chapel Hill last Saturday.

He also attended the educational meeting at the State fair last Tuesday.

At the Planter's Warehouse yesterday ten thousand pounds of tobacco were sold at an average price of sixteen cents a pound. How is that for high.

Several of our merchants had their business advertised in the circus the other day. The clown was especially complimentary in his remarks about certain of our merchants.

Searcie one of the Quantic robbers has made confession and surrendered to the authorities a pouch containing the greater part of U. S. Bonds and bank drafts. Only two men were engaged in the robbery.

Maj. Robbins made a clear and convincing speech in the Opera House here last Wednesday night. The Major gave the Populist-Republican combine some hard blows which were greatly appreciated by his audience.

Mr. W. A. Montgomery, of Raleigh, has been nominated by Marion Butler for the place on the Populist judicial ticket made vacant by the death of Judge Connor. Mr. Montgomery has always been a Democrat. He accepts the nomination.

Wait for the arrival of E. R. Gay's new line of silks, velvets &c. which will be opened up ready for Monday morning's trade. His first purchases this season have been so nearly closed out that he was compelled to lay in another big stock in all lines to meet the demands of his steadily growing trade. See his ad.

Large Crowd in Town.

Monday there was a very large crowd here, made up of country people, and the natural followers of the circus train. Plenty of drunkenness was on hand. The streets were crowded from early morning till late at night. We have heard of no fighting.

Help Young Bro's fight the Bagging Trust by buying your Bagging from them.

Rocky Mount Fair.

The Rocky Mount Fair Association will hold their annual fair at Rocky Mount on Nov. 7th, 8th, and 9th.

The Wilson Cornet Band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion.

County Canvass.

The Hon. W. R. Henry is assisting the county officers this week. Tuesday he visited Elm City, yesterday Gardner and Wilson, to-day Saratoga, and to-morrow he will speak at Stantonburg, in the morning and Black Creek at night.

Mr. Henry is a fine speaker and is doing effective work for the cause of Democracy.

Teachers' Institute.

We have received a copy of the Teachers' Institute published by E. L. Kellogg & Co., of New York. It has a North Carolina supplement edited by Mr. Chas. J. Parker, of Raleigh. We think the Institute is a very fine paper, and with the North Carolina supplement added it becomes doubly interesting to North Carolina teachers.

At Sea.

The Republican party of Wilson county is thoroughly at sea. They have had several meetings lately, but have done nothing definitely about fusion. They are being courted quite extensively by a certain political organization, but the old maiden has been rather shy thus far. There is no telling, however, what another week may bring forth.

Man Shot Monday Night.

Excitement seems to have been the order of the day, on Monday last. The circus stirred up the people all round, and as a parting salute one negro man shot another in the back and fled. While painful it is not thought to be serious. The party doing the shooting is not known. Some people think that it was he that the train ran over and killed.

Tolant Association.

Last week the Primitive Baptist Association met with the church at Moore's. Quite a large crowd attended. Sunday a tremendous crowd was in attendance. This is a small association, but is composed of a number of godly and enthusiastic churches. We learn that the meeting was very successful. Quite a large crowd from Wilson went out on Sunday.

The Circus.

Hunting's circus gave two exhibitions here on last Monday. The acting was very good and the riding above the ordinary. The clown's jokes were, however, low and vulgar. A large crowd attended. All the seats were occupied at the afternoon performance. The street parade was fairly good.

Joint Discussion.

Last Friday night there was a joint discussion between Jeremiah Scarborough, Populist, and A. W. Jones, Republican, both colored. Those two acrobats seem not to have been able to fuse like the rest of the Populists and Republicans, and so met each other on the sands last Friday night aforesaid. As we were pursuing the even tenor of our way at home that night we cannot give the outcome of the conflict. Persons who were present, however, say that it was rich, rare, and racy. Some say that Scarborough wiped the floor with Jones, and others say Jones, wiped it.

Republican Convention.

Last Saturday the negroes held a convention in the court house to decide what action should be taken in regard to fusion with the Populists. Resolutions pledging allegiance to the national Republican party were passed. A resolution endorsing Cheatham was passed also over the head of a Populist negro who seemed to have crept into the convention unawares. It produced a storm, and chairman Jones leaped to the floor, and with his mellow voice poured oil upon the waters. Jones then proceeded to make a speech which was ingeniously conceived and delivered, in which he scored the Populists and defended both the Republican and Democratic parties.

The Sifting Process.

At the Republican mass meeting last Saturday A. W. Jones, the negro orator of Wilson, got off a good joke on Mr. Grice, a Populist of this county. He said that he attended a great panorama, in which he saw acted the history of the parties for the last two years. He saw Mr. Cleveland come upon the stage and announce his intention of purifying the Democratic party of bribers and ballot box stuffers. He had a large sifter in which he poured the broken elements of the party and he and Mr. Carlisle commenced the sifting. The whole party stood the test except Mr. Grice. He dropped out. Mr. Grice is the man who, in a Populist convention some time ago, stated that he had bought negro votes. Jones' speech was highly sensational and was heartily enjoyed by the Democrats who were present.

The People's Party Canvass.

The canvass of the Populists opened at Black Creek on Tuesday last. The several candidates were present and made short talks. No abuse or "fire-eating" language was used. Simply a statement of the object of the assembly and an expression of the desire that the people would come out and support them. There were about eighty men present.

Arrest For Embezzlement.

Last week W. G. Harrell, post master at Old Sparta, was arrested for embezzling letters containing money orders. Some irregularities had been noticed and the detective soon fastened the fault upon Old Sparta's postmaster. He was accordingly arrested, and placed under a bond of $1000 for his appearance at court.

A Dastardly Deed.

Last Friday night the prize house belonging to Mrs. J. T. Barnes, of Elm City, was consumed by fire. In it had been stored this year's crop of tobacco and some wheat, all of which was a complete loss. It is quite generally believed that it was set on fire by some demon in human form. Mrs. Barnes thus loses much upon which she was depending for support. Her husband, the late J. T. Barnes, of Elm City, died about two months ago, and left her with a family to raise. She now experiences this second loss, which she can ill afford to lose. It is a good cause for our benevolent societies to enlist in. There was no insurance.

German Monday Night.

The young men gave the first public German of the season on Monday evening last. The music was furnished by the Italian string band. Quite a large company was gathered together and a very pleasant evening passed. Among the ladies present were: Misses Anderson, Branch, Brodie, Gertrude Blount, Sue Blount, Gardner, Green, Harriess, Hadley, Johnson, (Clinton) Pace, Pennick, Sanders.

The young gentlemen of the town were reinforced by Mr. L. B. Gregory, of Rocky Mount.

The chaperons were Mrs. Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Copeland, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hargrave.

That the evening should be perfectly enjoyed, Mr. R. B. Whitehead, who led the German, introduced a novel feature, in the shape of a phonograph.

A Negro Killed.

Train No. 32, North bound ran over and instantly killed a negro man last Monday night on the track of the A. C. L. between the freight and passenger depots.

It seems that the man was watching the circus people prepare their train for moving when the sudden appearance of No. 32, so startled him that he became confused and stepped on to the track of the incoming mail. Before he could correct his mistake, or the engineer stop his train, the engine had passed over the body of the unfortunate man and reduced it almost to a pulp. The head and body were so much disfigured that it was impossible to discover who the man was, there being nothing upon his person by which he could be identified. The man was evidently a stranger in Wilson.

Can the negro afford to vote with the tail end of the Democratic party—the fusion ticket, when the fact is they stand on record as opposed to all methods to raise and elevate the Negro of America? Be it understood, now and forevermore, that every Negro who votes the Populist fusion ticket is voting himself, wife, and children back into slavery, and more than that is voting to disfranchise every member of our race that can't read and write, which number is largely in the majority. Ten times to one it is better for every Negro to vote the straight Democratic ticket, whose leaders and organ say "every man either with or without education has a right to cast his ballot," rather than vote for a party of ex-ku-kluxers and Negro haters, who say, "The Australian ballot system, or White supremacy must rule." Fusionism must and shall go.—Herald (Col. Rep.)

Halloween Tea.

Don't forget the Halloween party at Mrs. W. J. Boykins, next Wednesday evening. It will be one of the most novel and enjoyable affairs of the season. If you have ever attended one you will need no urging, if you have not go and you will never regret having been there.

We, the colored people of Wilson Co., in convention assembled, hereby declare our firm allegiance to the National Republican party; and with grateful hearts acknowledge what it has accomplished for the negro race. We renew our adherence to its principles, as declared in its last National platform, and standing squarely upon that platform we view with regret the departure which has been made by that portion of our organization in the State now claiming to be fusionists. We denounce the effort made by the minority of our party to sell us out to the few designing men whose ambitions are alone for office: who are emboldened to arm us traitors because we are not willing to sacrifice our principles to further their ambition. We know that the attempt at fusion, as illustrated by the demands and efforts of so-called People's Party in this county, has no show of fairness or justice about it; that the negro is altogether ignored, and that if he does not swallow at their dictation, a ticket which he has nothing to do with making, he is declared a renegade and a traitor. They have not even put a Republican of either color on their ticket and they do not pretend to advocate a single principle enunciated in the Republican platform, therefore be it

Resolved, that we are the Republican party and those who denounce us are the traitors.

The Campaign in the State.

We feel that it is pertinent just at this time to call attention to the necessity of interest being concentrated both by the people and by the press upon the importance of a strong fight being made for our state ticket. In reading our state exchanges we note that there is a tendency to give prominence to the national issues and to neglect to some extent the State issues and the State ticket. In the rapidly closing weeks of the campaign special prominence should be given to the State canvass and the issues involved in it, the high character and claim for recognition of our candidates for the judicial offices and for State treasurer, and the very great importance of electing them as well as the Democratic legislature. Our people have doubtless felt so certain of electing the gentlemen that but little accent has been placed upon their candidacies. The time is getting short and it is imperative that the greatest prominence be given to the State canvass. As we recently stated we have a double enemy to fight, and this double enemy is combining against us. It is not necessary to neglect the national politics, but the importance of State politics should be pressed home to our people. Urge the club and local organizations and committees to perfect our organization and complete our registration and to give a big majority. All that is necessary is untiring and zealous work. Let us not fail to carry through our State and county tickets.—Durham Globe.
