MOVING OF THE INDIANS. Mobilization of Their Forces in the Indian

HARTSHORN, I. T., November 12 .- No hostile demonstration has yet been made by the Indians, but the mobilization of their forces continues. A band REPUBLICAN STRENGTH IN THE HOUSE of sixteen passed through here Friday night and another of fifty some three hours later, all heavily armed. It is not known to which side these belong. The 200 who passed Friday morning, though, were intent upon avenging the execution of Simon Lewis. It is said upon reliable authority that two large bands of Choctaws are in the neighborhood of the Jack Fort mountains, and that they are being constantly reinforced. The Choctaw district court will be convened at Wilburton Tuesday. when the twenty-six prisoners, indicted for the same offense for which Lewis was executed, will be placed on trial. SAN BERNARDO, Cal., November 10 .-Mrs. Samuel Harnes, who was arrested with Thomas Salter, charged with administering arsenic to her husband, has made a full confession of the crime. Barnes may live, but will never fully recover his health. The drug penetrated every fibre of his body, paralyzing the nervous system and seriously affecting the brain. It had been fed to him for months. Mrs. Barnes says that Salter urged her to elope with him. "But I could not," she continues, "bear the thought of this, and told him I would not until my husband was dead. Salter then proposed to shoot him. But I could not bring myself to murdering him in cold blood; so poisoning was proposed by Salter. He bought the arsenic and brought it to me. We mixed it in everything my husband drank or ate. CONGRESSIONAL CONTESTS.

Many Republicans Defeated Will Try The Chances Before Republicans. WASHINGTON, November 12.-The republicans are preparing for numerous contests in the south, and these will be quickly settled after the fifty-fourth congress meets. In Virginia, Maryland, the two Carolinas, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana. Texas, Arkansas and Missouri, contests will undoubtedly be made. Chairman Babcock, of the republican committee, has instructed the representatives in the south to obtain counsel and prepare for contests where certificates are likely to be refused to those honestly elected.

Openly Invited to Leave the State and Quit the Populists - Defeated Candidates Place Their Grievances as the Door of the Governor.

DENVER, Col., November 12.-Governor Waite received a dressing down in his own executive chamber Saturday night by the conservative men of his party. Nearly all the candidates on the populist state ticket were present and each one in turn sailed into the old man rough-shod. Each man declared himself a true believer in the party principles, but that henceforth he wanted to hear no more from the man for whom they were sacrificed. Lafe Pence, congressman from the first district, was the principal speaker. He denounced the governor and his following in unmeasured terms, telling him to get himself off into the wilderness as soon as possible after January 1st, and there bury himself from the sight of men. "We want no more longhaired, wild-eyed anarchists and socialists in the party," he exclaimed with warmth," and the quicker you and your office-grabbing friends take yourselves away, the better you will be liked." The conservatives were so forcible that for the first time since coming to Denver, Waite was speechless. Following this conference it was decided to abandon all Sunday political meeting's which caused so much scandal and incurred the enmity of the churchmen and organize on the basis of good gov-

BROTHERS FIGHT TO THE DEATH They Get in Separate Corners and Shoot Till Both Fall Dead.

Sr. Louis, November 12.-Willis and Claiborne Woodruff, brothers, and colored, fought a desperate duel with pistols at close range. The encouter grew out of a dispute about the debt of one to the other. Without disussing the the sign, and getting his revolver he walked to a corner of the room across from where Willis was standing and leveled it at his brother. "Count three," he said shortly. Willis cobnted, as the last word was uttered, and two shots rang out. The men then advanced on each other and continued to fire until every cartridge in their revolvers had been discharged. When the inmates of the house, attracted by the shots, ran to the room, they found both men lying on the floor bleeding profusely and sorely wounded. Both men died in a few hours.

TARIFF'S STIMULUS TO TRADE The New Act Revives Where the McKin ley Bill Depressed.

Washington, November 12.—The statistical bureau of the department of state has published a set of advance sheets of consular reports embodying reports from United States consuls upon the operations of the new tariff act, so far as they have been manifested. There are reports from Pradford, the great English wool centre; from Sheffield, the cutlery depot; from northern Mexico, whence hides and live stock come; from Marseilles, the great exporting city of French finery; from Glascow and from Colombia, the latter particularly interesting as showing the failure of our retaliatory policy. All of these reports depicit the great depression existing at these foreign ports under the McKinley law and the stimulation of trade consequent upon the passage of the new tarriff act.

POPULIST SCHEME IN KANSAS. Will Turn Over the State to the Officers Elect Without a Single Employe.

TOPEKA, Kan., November 12.-Chairman Briedenthal, of the populist state central committee, who is also state bank commissioner, and Superintendent of Insurance Snyder, have started a movement to secure the resignations of all appointive officers and employes of the state institutions who are populists, to take effect January 1st at noon, the time that Governor-elect Morrill will be inaugurated. They are representing to all officers and employes that they will be removed as speedily after the inauguration as is found practicable and none of them will be kept a day longer than is absolutely necessary. IT WILL CURE YOU. OFFICE OF C. E. MOORE, Physician and Surgeon, Tarboro Street,

WILSON, N. C., October 2, 1894.

MR. OSCAR SWINEFORD: Dear Sir.—Yours received, and in reply will say that I have used your Arsenic-Lithia Water for the past month in two cases of urine acid diathesis with very satisfactory results, and have found it very efficacious in certain forms of dyspepsia due to inactive secretions.

As a pure table water it is all that could be desired. Very respectfully yours, &c., C. E. MOORE.
