NORTH STATE NEWS

THE STATE LEGISLATURE CONVENES.

The Fusionists Control on Joint Ballot With a Division of Honors Between the Republicans and Populists. Other Carolina News.

RALPH, N. C., January 7.—The North Carolina legislature convenes on Wednesday with a populist-republican fusion majority on joint ballot. Zeb Vance Walser, of Lexington, one of the younger of the republican leaders in the northwestern section of the state, will be speaker of the lower branch.

Marion Butler.

This session of the legislature is especially noteworthy in the fact that both the members of the United States senate are to be elected; the short term to succeed Senator Jarvis, appointed upon the death of Senator Yates, and the long term to succeed Senator Ransom, whose term of office expires on the fourth of March. Democrats having lost control of the assembly, the long term of office will be the result of an arrangement made prior to the state election, will go to Marion Butler, the leader of the North Carolina populists, and the strongest champion of the fusion movement. The fight for the short term is between Zeb Vance, a young republican, of the western part of the state, and a number of other prominent men in the councils of that party.

GENERAL TRADE IS QUIET.

Bradstreet's Review of Business for the First Week of the New Year.

New York, January 6.—Bradstreet's says: There has been no material improvement in general trade. At large eastern cities only a moderate volume of business is reported. Buffalo and Boston including to regard the near outlook the more hopefully. Philadelphia and Pittsburgh are naturally affected somewhat by late quotations for iron and steel and Baltimore prefers awaiting orders from commercial travelers before expressing opinions on the outlook.

General trade is reported quiet at Charleston, Nashville and Memphis, with mercantile collections fair only. At Chattanooga and Atlanta very little is doing in wholesale lines, the former reporting markets quiet as usual. At Savannah trade is quiet but improving, and collections are only fair. Cotton manufacturers are making some new contracts but merchants will act with more conservatism. Augusta, Savannah, and Memphis report good demand and improved collections though general trade shows no gain.

The bonds are to be issued in $100,000 units. The fixed charges, or requirements of the new company for the current fiscal year are only $1,000,000, which is about one half of the aggregate requirements of the roads now in the Southern system for the first of last November. The net revenue was $480,000 larger than last year.

AGAINST TARIFF AGITATION.

The Republican Steering Committee to Meet to-day.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—A call was issued by Mr. Allison yesterday afternoon for a meeting of the republican steering committee of the senate to be held to-day at 10 o'clock. The whole situation so far as the senate is concerned, will be destroyed and a program on the part of the minority will be considered. The great majority of the republican members of the senate are opposed to any further agitation of the tariff and the transaction of any business other than the passage of the appropriation bills, and it may be assumed as a certainty in advance that the steering committee will so decide at its meeting.

WORK IN CONGRESS

Forecast for the Coming Few Days in Both Branches.

THE SENATE'S HAWAIIAN DISCUSSION

The program in the House dependent upon the outcome of the caucus upon the currency question. First and second days.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—The present week in the senate will probably be remarkable more for that which it will fail to accomplish than for anything that may be done. The most significant feature will be the precipitancy of the debate that will grow out of the proposition in the urgency deficiency bill for collection of the income tax. This will not even be a foreword, until well towards the latter part of the week.

There will be a continuation of the Hawaiian discussion, growing out of the resolution of Senator Lodge requesting the president to inform the senate why this government has withdrawn our warships from Hawaiian waters, providing Senator Lodge should be able to carry out his program.

Senator's Unfinished Business.

The Nicaraguan canal bill, which seemed to be doomed to interminable debate, still remains on the calendar as the unfinished business, and Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, has the floor to defend the senate on that subject today.

But little business will be transacted Tuesday, for immediately after the morning hour the senate will listen to speeches in honor of the late Senator Colquitt, of Georgia.

For these reasons the urgency deficiency bill will not be taken to the senate earlier than Wednesday, or at all events, it cannot be called up for consideration before that time. Once up, a debate will commence that will continue to the greater part of the next week, at the most conservative estimate.

Program in the House.

The determination of the program of business in the house this week will depend upon the outcome of the democratic caucus to be held this afternoon. In case the caucus should do what is unexpected and decide against the passage of the tariff bill, the tariff bill cannot be engaged with the consideration of the appropriation bill. One of these, the postoffice bill, is already on the calendar, ready to be called up; the other, the naval appropriation bill, will probably be held over until after the next meeting of the committee on naval affairs.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 7.—Upon the opening of the thirtieth congress there were 100 members of the lower house present, while only forty senators occupied their seats.

For the year 1894 it provides a duty of one cent and nine tenths of a cent per pound, respectively.

RICHMOND, Va., January 7.—Yesterday morning Police Sergeant Tomlinson and Detectives Schiefel and Johnson went out to the camp of "The Indian," who assisted in working the gold brick swindle on Mr. Wilber's of Gloucester. They found the boxes in which the bricks were shipped, a hatchet and a pipe of peace, and disinterred two more boxes which were wrapped in oil cloth and buried under a lot of leaves. The boxes were addressed to J. Alton, Richmonder, and were shipped from the Adams express branch office, New York, No. 11 West Twenty-Third street. THE FATES AGAINST THEM.

Store Burned Where the Striking Miners Could Get Credit.

DU BOIS, Pa., January 7.—The Bell and Lewis stores was burned yesterday, involving a loss of from forty to fifty thousand dollars. This store was known as the Bell, Lewis and Yates coal mining company store where the large part of their trading and where the amount of their bills was deducted from their monthly pay. On Friday the miners here and at Reynoldsdale went on a strike, because of the discharge of a large number of miners at both places, and it is the opinion of many persons that the fire was of incendiary origin.

It is feared that the strike will continue through the winter and that the Santa Fe Railway, operating several mines at both places, will be handicapped, as the miners are not prepared for a long struggle in mid-winter.

It Grew Out of an Attempt of a Constable to Make an Arrest.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., January 3.—News has just reached here of a terrible tragedy on New River, in Morgan county. Frank Goodman, constable of Anderson county, was ordered to arrest "The Indian," who assisted in working the gold brick swindle on Mr. Wilber's of Gloucester. They found the boxes in which the bricks were shipped, a hatchet and a pipe of peace, and disinterred two more boxes which were wrapped in oil cloth and buried under a lot of leaves. WILL TAX BANK CHECKS.

One of the Schemes to Supply Revenue Department the Income Tax.

MORE POOR POSTAGE STAMPS.

Complaints Continue to be Made at the Department of the Interior.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—It is said at the post office department that complaints as to the quality of postage stamps turned out by the bureau of engraving and printing are not yet at an end.
