A TRIBUTE TO SENATOR VANCE.

An Artistic Memorial Window Placed in the Salem Female College.

Other Interesting News Throughout the State.

Winston, N. C., May 30.—Yesterday marked an event that will be memorable in the history of Winston-Salem.

In connection with the ninety-third commencement exercises of Salem Female College, the oldest school for girls in the south, the first permanent tribute to the memory of the late Senator Vance, was formally presented to the trustees of that institution with appropriate and imposing ceremonies.

It was a large and artistic memorial window which was purchased and placed in the college chapel by the 1894 graduating class. The window was presented by Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Winston, who made a strong and touching address. His portrayal of the dead senator's life was grand and beautiful. He said that Senator Vance, when asked to give the secret for his great hold upon the people of his native state, replied "I have never deceived them." Bishop Roadknight, of the Moravian church, accepted the window for the trustees in a splendid and appropriate address.

Mrs. Vance, together with a large number of friends and admirers of the deceased senator, witnessed the interesting and impressive ceremonies.

MINISTER RANSOM'S HEALTH.

Much Anxiety Felt as the Venerable Diplomat Returns to His Carolina Home.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Much concern is expressed by the friends of Minister Ransom, who is on his way home from Mexico on sick leave. The minister was taken ill while en route to his new post of duty, and has not been able to arrive at his destination. He is now in the hands of the physician at the residence of the department here, but has evidently received no substantial benefit from the treatment of the waters there. Upon the statement of his physician that with five or six weeks stay in his native country would probably result in his complete restoration to health, the department has granted him sixty days leave of absence.

Minister Ransom will go direct to Asheville, in the western part of North Carolina, where it is hoped the bracing mountain air and generally salubrious climate will make the realization of the physician's expectation. Mr. Ransom was ill and quite feeble last winter and it was hoped that his trip to Mexico would result in a speedy improvement of his condition.

The Southern Agent in a North Carolina Town a Defaulter.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., June 1.—C. M. Leavitt, who has been agent of the Southern railroad company in this city for the past four years, has come to grief. He is a defaulter for $2,000. His shortage, which dates back several months, he managed to cover by a number of fraudulent checks when the auditors would come around to check up. Leavitt has been quite a society man here. He is a leader in the St. Paul's M. E. church choir and the Y. M. C. A. He came to Goldsboro from Winston.

CAROLINA COTTON MILL FAILS.

To Be Sold Under a Deed of Trust July 31st—Surprise and Regret.

MONROE, N. C., June 1.—There was a great deal of surprise and talk today when it became known that the Monroe cotton mill will be sold at public auction on July 31st next, to satisfy a indebtedness to the amount of $24,000. As there was a number of small stockholders it is very much to be regretted that this step was found necessary, for it will be a death blow to inducing people to invest in the mill. It is a kind of similar enterprise in the near future.

TROUBLES NOW ADJUSTED.

The Seaboard Restores Association Rates and the Boycott is Ruled.

MAON, Ga., June 1.—The troubles between the Seaboard Airline railroad and the Southern Railway and Steamship association have been adjusted. The Seaboard had petitioned the Federal court for an injunction against the association, whose lines had practically boycotted the Seaboard. An expert injunction was granted and yesterday set for hearing the case before Judge Spear. A big fight was anticipated. Some of the most prominent lawyers in the country were present but an agreement was reached. Terms of which are yet a secret. It is admitted, however, that the basis of the agreement is a contract between the Seaboard and the association to the effect that the Seaboard will maintain the state courts open while the association will refrain from the use of force and will not prejudice the rights of the complainants to again bring the matter into court should the necessity arise.

SOME GAINS AT THE SOUTH.

The Condition of Trade as Reviewed by Bradstreet's.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Bradstreet's survey of the condition of trade in the south this week, but there has been a further shrinkage in the amount of business transacted, due to the fact that the cotton crop is damaged to the grain crops. The bank clearings total for the week only $88,000,000, or 10 per cent. less than the corresponding week (also one day short) in 1894. As contrasted with last week, the shrinkage is 25 per cent. and the week ending May 29, 1894, the falling off was 7 per cent. The tendency of prices this week is again upward, notably so for steel and iron, which are 10 per cent. higher. There are cereals and cotton, and leather and shoes, which with some other staples, in all sixteen, close light to the week.

There are some gains at the south, with improved agricultural prospects in Tennessee and Mississippi. In Alabama, Georgia and Florida, only a moderate active demand in a few lines is announced from Atlanta. Savannah and New Orleans, where the market is the largest for years. There is an improved demand for New Orleans, and buyers are showing more of tendency to speculate.

Honor to the Northern Press.

Of the six thousand Confederates buried here, not one was an officer; all were privates. In fact, they were all privates, and they brought an ill fame upon our country. In yet these humble privates soldiers, they were the backbone of the army, by taking the oath of allegiance to the Federal government, preferred death to the sacrifice of their country. They were the backbone of the army, and they were the backbone of the nation. They were the backbone of the nation, and they were the backbone of the world.
