ECZEMA

From early childhood until grown my family was afflicted with this disease. I tried every remedy, but nothing helped. I was cured by the use of Swineford's Arsenic-Lithia Water. I have never had any return of the disease. I have since recommended it to all my friends.

Swineford's Arsenic-Lithia Water is the only medicine that cures Eczema. It is a pure, natural, and powerful medicine. It is sold by all druggists.

Condensed News of Interest Throughout the State.

THE SOUTHERN BIBLICAL ASSOCIATION

Holds Its Annual Session in the City of Asheville. The Editors Adjourn. Other Interesting News Through the State.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 20.—The Southern Biblical Association held under the auspices of the American Society of Religious Education began its work yesterday afternoon in the open platform meeting held at the First Baptist church. Mayor Davidson on behalf of the city, extended a welcome to the assembly workers, and Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the churches. Responses were made by Gen. John Eaton, of Washington, president of the society, and by Dr. John M. Gregory, of Washington, vice-president. The assembly is held for a study of the Bible, and will continue for four weeks with meetings morning, afternoon and evening. The work will be divided into sections, meeting in various churches. There will be a lecture course, Sunday teachers' conference, ministers' conference, general conference, school of English Bible, juvenile Bible school, college faculty conference, young people's assemblies and children's culture clubs. The lecture course dates will be filled by some of the most prominent divines and Bible students in the south. The assembly has started off with a good attendance and it is thought will awaken increased interest as it progresses.

RAILROAD MAGNATES ADJOURN

The Asheville Meeting Concludes—The Last Work in Session.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 20.—The Southern Railway and Steamship Association concluded the consideration of an act in New York city August 15th for organization and the appointment of a commissioner. The boycott of the Alabama Great Southern and Louisville and Nashville Railroads, was by a resolution unanimously passed, declared null and void. The executive board decided that, under certain conditions, exhibits to the Atlanta exposition would be handled free.

Southern Railway Steamship Meeting.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 19.—The members of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association got down to business yesterday, devoting several hours to the preparation of various changes in the proposed agreement. The fight is anticipated when the amendments suggested by vice-president St. John, of the Seaboard Air Line, are reached, but in his absence, the members who are here refrain from taking them up.

Arrested For Bigamy.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 20.—W. W. Long, formerly of Hughes, O., was arrested at Skyland, this county yesterday on a warrant charging him with bigamy. It is alleged that Long has a wife in Ohio and it is certain that he was married a few years ago in Skyland. He gave bond in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance for a preliminary examination Saturday next.

The Cigarette Machine Case Concluded.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 20.—Yesterday in the Bondsack cigarette machine case, W. B. Baldwin, of Washington, concluded the argument for the defendant. General Duncan, of New York, for the plaintiffs, closed the argument on that side. Judge Simonton left for his summer home at Flat Rock.

CAROLINA IN THE LEAD.

Many New Enterprises for the Old North State.

Among the enterprises projected for the past week are:

Charlotte—Water Works.—The Charlotte Water company will put in a filtering plant.

Charlotte—Flour Mill.—The Mecklenburg Mills has awarded contract for a 75-barrel roller flour mill.

Hillsboro—Cotton Mill.—It is reported that a $500,000 cotton mill will be erected.

Hinton—Gold Mining.—McMasters, Gray, Thomas & Co. have commenced surface work on gold deposits.

King's Mountain—Cotton Mill.—The Drilling Cotton Mill, it is reported, will double its capacity, which is now $50,000 spindles and 150 looms.

North Carolina—Gold Mine.—Chas. H. Davis, of Petersburg, Va., has secured option on a North Carolina gold mine and will organize a company to operate it.

Madison—Cotton Mill, etc.—J. H. Pries, of Winston-Salem; J. H. Ruffin and others have organized the Mayo Falls cotton mill with $300,000 stock to develop the water power at Mayo Falls and erect a cotton mill.

Raleigh—Water Power.—John C. Drewry and W. V. Clephan have purchased a water property near Raleigh and will thoroughly develop same at once. Upon completion of improvements a factory will be erected.

Advance as Result of the Combine.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 20.—As a result of the recent combine formed by the coal operators of the Birmingham district, domestic coal has gone up 25 cents a ton, making the price for each at the mines $1.75 and $1.05 respectively.

Leading decreases of available wheat not covered in the visible supply report include 375,000 bushels at northwestern interior elevators, 54,000 bushels at Liverpool and 34,000 bushels at Pittsburgh.

Corresponding increases were 192,000 bushels in Milwaukee private elevators, 20,000 bushels at Fulton and 57,000 bushels at Louisville.

INDICATIONS ALL FAVORABLE.

Southern Business Continues to Improve, Notwithstanding Summer Dullness.

New York, July 20.—Bradstreet's today says: "All the previously reported favorable industrial and commercial features contained this week, the endurance of the revival in demand for iron and steel, the further advance in prices of the same, and additional increase of wages of industrial employees, being the most significant. Notwithstanding the season of mid-summer quiet in some lines of general trade, the volume of general business throughout the country is largely in excess of that of a year ago."

Moments at all larger cities are preparing to send out travelers and until they begin to exhibit serious signs of a decline in demand for iron and steel, the further advance in prices of the same, and additional increase of wages of industrial employees, being the most significant. Notwithstanding the season of mid-summer quiet in some lines of general trade, the volume of general business throughout the country is largely in excess of that of a year ago.

"LITTLE MARION CLEVELAND."

The Third and Youngest Daughter of the President Has a Name.

HUZZARD, Pa., July 20.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland have named the little girl, now twelve days old, Marion Cleveland. As in the case of both Ruth and Esther, no middle name is given.

It is not present known of course, what induced the parents to select this name, but it will be readily recalled that it was at the charming town of Marion, on Huzzard, Pa., where Mr. New England and where she made many warm personal friends besides, becoming very much attached to the place.

"WE WERE SQUARELY BEATEN."

Says Charles Courtney, the Coach of the Cornell Crew.

New York, July 22.—Among the passengers arriving on the steamer New York from Southampton was Charles E. Courtney, trainer of the Cornell-Henley crew. Mr. Courtney said to a reporter:

"I cannot offer any excuse for our defeat. We were squarely beaten. Fennell ought not to have caught a crab, and knocked the wind out of him and of course threw us out of the race. Our crew was not in the first place, but there did not seem anything else to do under the circumstances."

SEVERE STORMS IN THE WEST.

Several Men Killed by Lightning and Considerable Property Damaged.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 20.—Severe storms are reported from various parts of Illinois and Indiana. At Comb, Ill., lightning struck a cow shed in which eight men and sixteen horses had sought shelter. John Barclay, Jr., was killed and Roland McAllister and William C. Anderson were severely injured. At Logansport, Ind., Edward Carson, a farmer, was killed by lightning. Several barns were burned and live stock killed.

The Names of Prominent Republicans the Talk of the Politicians in the Party—The Strength of the Tennessee in the North.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The names of Mr. Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, Senator Davis, of Minnesota, and Mr. H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, are subjects of considerable gossip among republican politicians at this time. Mr. Elkins and Mr. Evans are general credited with entertaining vice-presidential aspirations. Senator Davis, it is thought, has another axe to grind, but will adopt the same methods that the other two use in accomplishing his purpose.

Within the past few weeks a distinct Elkins boom has made its appearance, but while adopting the same methods that the other two use in accomplishing his purpose. It is thought, has another axe to grind, but will adopt the same methods that the other two use in accomplishing his purpose.

Is the Patient Crazy, or Has He Committed One or Two Murders?

OCALA, Fla., July 18.—Some time ago a man by the name of Pat Bazley came here to be treated for cancer by Dr. Brown, the specialist. Bazley said he was from Georgia. The cancer grew worse, eating into the left eye. Last night he reached the brain and he shrieked that he had committed murder in Georgia and that officers were after him to hang him. He also said his real name was "Dr. Wilkinson" and that the cancer was "Robert Jones." The frenzied man then ran out into the darkness and disappeared. He was heard from today 10 miles away but when he saw men approaching him he fled into the woods. Dr. Brown says the cancer has reached the brain and the man will soon die. He thinks the cancer, working on the brain, has stirred the memory of an old crime. Bazley is a resident about his Georgia home, giving no post office address.

THEY WILL LACK IN STRENGTH.

Republicans Will Not be Able to Reorganize the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—The attitude assumed by the western Senators renders the reorganization of the Senate by the republicans improbable. If Dupont is admitted as the Senator from Delaware the republicans will still have less than a majority in the Senate.

DEATH COMES TO THE GAY.

Party of Pleasure Drivers Killed by a Passing Train.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 22.—A pleasure party of five men, while driving across the railroad track between Williams town, Mass., and Bowdoin, Mass., yesterday afternoon, was struck by a train on the Fitchburg road. Three of the men were instantly killed; one died shortly afterward, and the remaining two, escaped injury by jumping. The names of the men who were killed have not been ascertained, but they are reported to have been Frenchmen residing in North Adams, Mass.

MANASSAS' BATTLE RECALLED.

The 34th Anniversary Celebrated by the Oglethorpe Light Infantry.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 22.—The Oglethorpe Light Infantry turned out sixty-two strong yesterday in command of Captain W. M. Rockwell to hear the sermon by Rev. S. A. Goodwin, D. D., of the First Baptist church, in commemoration of the 34th anniversary of the battle of Manassas, in which this company was in the forefront in command of Captain Francis S. Bartow, J. J. West, the gold reserve, and would be in command of the company, and A. F. Butler, all veteran members of the company, and with their old company. The command will have its annual parade this afternoon.

TREASURY'S HEAVY LOSSES.

The Export of $1,000,000 in Gold Puts the Financiers to Thinking.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Secretary Carlisle, in accordance with his almost invariable rule, declined yesterday to express an opinion as to the effect of $1,000,000 of that coin would have. Shipment would reduce the treasury gold reserve to about $105,000,000. Since July 1st, with the withdrawal of gold for redemption purposes, the treasury has parted with $1,500,000. In that line, however, gold gains from mintage have partly offset this loss so that the net loss to the gold reserve is only about $57,000.

CRISIS IN THE SUGAR AFFAIRS.

Planters and Others Interested to Meet in New Orleans to Take Action.

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 22.—A mass meeting of the sugar planters and all others interested in sugar has been called to meet in New Orleans at the Chamber of Commerce to-morrow to express indignation a Comptroller Brewer to thwart the expressed will of Congress in regard to the payment of the sugar bounty for last year, and to take such other measures as may be deemed

WATERY GRAVES FOR MANY.

Terrible Accident Near the Mouth of the Gulf of Spezia.

LA SPEZIA, Italy, July 22.—A terrible accident resulting in the loss of 148 lives occurred near the mouth of the Gulf of Spezia, yesterday. At half past 1 o'clock yesterday morning the steamers Ortigia and Maria P. ran into each other and the latter vessel was so badly damaged that she sank in a very short time. SOUL AND BODY PART.

Porter Stocks, Convict, Sends a Bullet Through His Head.

MINNEOLA, Ga., July 20.—Porter Stocks, Atlanta, shot himself last night. Stocks was convicted in the penitentiary and was leased to a lumber company which has saw mills at Minneola, a few miles from Valdosta.

Stocks was chatting with Dr. Howell, the camp physician, and one of his own men. He died early this morning. Stocks was sent to the penitentiary from Atlanta for manslaughter. He was a prominent "gang man" in that city. Four years ago he killed Alf Cassin, his close friend. His defense was that Cassin threatened his life. A petition was presented to the Governor in a few days for Stocks pardon. His father who lives in Atlanta, had a large sum of money, and he left at the earliest convenience. The suicide was a surprise to the convicts and camp bosses, as well as to his friends, who have wired in his behalf. He was cheerful and hopeful of a pardon.

Swineford's Arsenic-Lithia Water Co., Richmond, Va., Dec. 13, 1894.

Gentlemen—Allow me the pleasure of adding my testimonial to the many you must have received for your valuable medicine. I have received the benefit from your medicine, and was cured by specialists without relief, and finally found relief in your medicine. Swineford's Arsenic-Lithia Water. On the day I received the medicine I felt better. The water sent me to bed, and I drank of it until I felt better. I am now happy to say I am perfectly cured and can now take my usual food and enjoy my life.
