WILSON LOCALS.

S. T. DANIEL, LOCAL EDITOR.
A WEEK'S NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD FOR BUSY READERS.

Home Matters Picked up on Our Streets by our Reporter—What he Sees and Hears.

—No cotton to amount to anything came in the past week.

—Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens—best pens sold. Wilson Book Store.

—The County Commissioners met on Monday. The regular routine of business was attended to.

—Notice A. J. Simms & Co's. new advertisement. They are offering bargains in real estate. See them.

—A lodge of K. of P. was organized in Greenville Tuesday. Quite a number of Wilson people were on hand.

—Tuesday was quite a gala day for our neighboring town, Tarboro. They had bicycle races, baseball &c. Wilson was well represented.

—The town election passed off very quietly Monday. There being only one candidate in each ward they were, of course, easily elected.

—"All is not gold that glitters"—neither is all liquid vinegar. A certain young lady in Wilson used tea in its place—but she found out the difference.

—Hall's Hair Renewer is pronounced the best preparation made for thickening the growth of the hair and restoring that which is gray to its original color.

—Have you any old clothes that need cleaning? It so don't forget the Pressing and Cleaning Establishment. Orders left at the Wilson Book Store will receive prompt attention.

—Mr. Thompson has the electric light plant "humming" now. No more trouble has been found with hot boxes, and probably he will make another record of a long run without any shut downs.

—The Wilson Book Store is now ready to supply daily papers and magazines of all kinds. A large number of novels have also been received. If you need anything to read go to see them.

—Dr. D. Fred Watson, of Clinton, has decided to locate in Wilson and has opened dental parlors over Townsend's store. He is recommended as a good workman and the ADVANCE bespeaks for him a liberal patronage.

—Quantities of strawberries continue to pass through Wilson on their way to Northern markets. Several crates are added to the number by Wilson shippers. They are selling on this market at 8 1/2 to 10 cents per quart.

—The meeting of the promoters of the Chamber of Commerce which was to have been held last Monday night has been postponed until next Thursday night, May 13th. Let all who have the welfare of the town at heart be present.

—Prof. Reynolds left Friday for Fayetteville. He claims the number of pupils taught his painting process, were over two hundred.

—Go to the Wilson Book Store for any of the daily and Sunday papers.

—Large crowds of country people were on our streets Saturday—it being the first Saturday of the month.

—Prof. Raymond informs us that he has added another snake to his collection. He captured it last Sunday.

—The rain last week was a welcome visitor to our farmers. The ground had become so dry that it was impossible to do work of any consequence. Setting out tobacco is the order of the day now.

—Much excitement was caused on Monday below the railroad by the police carrying a man to the lock-up who had taken aboard so much of the "ardent" that walking was an impossibility. The officers called in help and proceeded to carry him by main force.

—The Chinaman who is to have charge of the laundry here has been in the city some time. Workmen are now fixing up his place of business which will be in the store formerly occupied by Lachman. When they finish he will begin work in earnest.

—The Gigomatograph exhibited at the Opera House two or three nights this week. Like the Vitascope, it was an excellent entertainment. While there were only a few present they showed their appreciation by much applause. Some of the pictures were especially attractive.

—The old stables on Goldsboro street have been removed and workmen are now mixing mortar preparatory to erecting the large brick building. This new stable will front on Goldsboro street and extend 120 feet towards the Primitive Baptist church. Mr. J. E. Wilkins is the contractor.

Only One.

Only one case was up before Mayor Deans on Monday morning. Lucien Studaway, colored, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $2.50 and costs.

Until Sunday.

Rev. Wm. Black, the Synodical Evangelist of the North Carolina Synod, has been holding a series of services in the Presbyterian church for the past week and will continue until Sunday. All who can do so should go out to hear this gentleman. He is an eloquent speaker and one who listens to him cannot fail to be impressed by his sermons.

A Good Price.

We saw last Friday a letter from one of the largest commission houses in Chicago, to Mr. D. L. Hardy, in which they said that a "refrigerator" car of strawberries had been shipped from North Carolina, which sold at 25 cents a quart. Among the names of the shippers were prominent truck farmers of Mt. Olive and Goldsboro. The berries were shipped by freight and brought a big price considering the distance transported.

Most of the North Carolina berries have been shipped to eastern points: New York, Philadelphia, Richmond and other cities. This was an experiment which will, no doubt lead to larger shipments to Chicago next year.

Why take Johnson's Chill & Fever Tonic? Because it cures the most stubborn case of Fever in ONE DAY.

Tea Tuesday Night.

A tea had been advertised to take place at Mrs. Geo. H. Wainwright on last Friday night. Everything had been prepared to give those who attended an enjoyable evening, but just at the last moment the rain came and broke up the party. On Tuesday evening the guests gathered and passed a most enjoyable evening.

It was understood beforehand that a prize was to be offered to the one making the largest list of words from the word "Methodism." Consequently all had brought their thinking caps with them. After the conditions of the contest had been announced every one began the task. When they had finished the judges decided that Prof. Mangum was entitled to the prize, he having made the largest number. Others would have given him a close race but some of the words were thrown out on account of errors.

After the evening had been spent in a social chat and amusements characteristic of such an entertainment refreshments were served. The tea was quite a success, and a neat little sum realized.
