INSURGENTS ACTIVE.

The Reported Engagement in Havana Suburbs Confirmed.

Spaniards Raid a Boarding School, Drive Out the Teachers and Grossly Insult the Lady Boarders-Insurgents Retaliate.

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 2.-The story telegraphed from Havana lest week about an attack by insurgents on the suburbs of that city is confirmed by passengers who left Havana on the Plant line steamer Mascotte, arriving here last night. Among the number was Senor Calbajer, a wealthy Spaniard, and his wife and daughter, who are now to be reckoned among the refugees who have fled from Havana. The attack referred to was made on the village of Marnanao, about 10 miles southwest of the city, and the terminus of the an uated and dilapidated Marnanao Ilroad. Senor Calbajer was an eye witness of the raid on Marnanao. He says that the attack was led by Baldomero Acosta, Juan Delgado and Hernandez.

The insurgent chiefs left 500 of their troops outside of the town and carried in 300 to the attack. They were well armed with dynamite rapid fire guns, and met with but slight resistance. The engagement was short and desperate. Forty-nine Spaniards were killed and 120 wounded; two Cubans were killed and 40 wounded. The inhabitants of the town fied for their lives, leaving the insurgents in com-. plete possession. They sacked the place, and secured $40,000 in gold, besides a large quantity of supplies that they could not carry away. Other passengers tell about the same story of the affair. Senor Calbajar says that the wildest terror reigns in Havana, and that the well-to-do inhabitants are soldiers made a raid on a girls' school ers were driven cut and the papils were girls attending the school were arrest. ed at their mines and taken out by the soldiers without being given time to dress. They were grossly insulted en the streets. The soldiers were so openly gross that the officers had to threaten them with arrest if they did not desist. A large crowd followed them threateningly, and were only dispersed when additional troops were called out and ordered to fire on the mob if it did not withdraw. The Spanish officials allege that the women and girls were acting as spies for the insurgent cause and that the school was merely a "blind."

All Havana is ringing with a trick played upon the major of Havana volunteers at Marianao, which has just become known. Marianao is a great summer resort, and has a garrison of 500 troops. Major Salas and four or five brother officers made up a party of friends, taking the ladies along. There were 24 in the party. After reaching the place they were warned to be on the lookout, as insurgents were in the neighborhood. Suddenly a band of Cubans surrounded them and quickly disarmed the officers, so that not a shot was fired or any alarm given. Then they compelled the men to arrange the tables for a feast, under pain of death. The officers were gagged and partly bound. When this was done they compelled the musicians to strike with them and partake of food. Afterward they danced to the music brought by the Spanish officers. After an hour's "sport" of this kind, the insurgents rode off, first taking the arms of the Spaniards and partially stripping them of their uniforms.

T., Aug. 2 .- At midnight Saturday night a row occurred at a negro dance, and the police attempted to make several arrests, when a general fight ensued and the police used force to protect themselves. NON-UNIONIST KILLED.

Bloodshed at Scottda'e-New Men In-Terror.

Scottdale, Aug. 2 .- A. M. Cummings, the leader of the non-union men who came here from Apello to break the ttuke at the Sectidale iron and steel works, was shot and killed in a riot that occurred in front of the Commercial hotel. John Evans and James Dolff, two other non-union men, who were with him, were seriously wounded. Several strikers are supposed to have been shot, but their names are; unknown.

Commings, Evans and Dolff entered the bar room of the Commercial house, where strikers were drinking. Cummings became involved in an argument with them, and the bartender compelled them to go outside. On the perch one of the strikers called Cummings a vile name. Cummings drew a revolver. This was a signal for the other men to draw eapons. A nummen fell. Cummings was picked up and carried into the hotel, where he died in five minutes. The wounds of Dolff and Evans were about the legs. Both will probably recover. One of the strikers had to be helped away from the scene by his companions. The mill INHABITANTS LEAVING TOWN, stands not far from where the shooting occurred, and the men who were afraid to come out became panic stricken when they heard the shooting. They rushed for the side gate, where they were met by the deputies who are guarding the plant and driven back with clubs and revolvers.

A Prince to Fight a Duel. London, Aug. 2.-Prince Henry, of Orleans, has at last found an antagonist whom he considers worthy of his notice, and he will fight a duel in Switzerland some time next month. He has telegraphed to General Sismondi and Colonel Mazzate.li, the seconds of General Albertone, notifying them that he accepts the challenge issued by General Albertone. The weapons will probably be pistols. The trouble between the prince and the general arose over accusations made by the prince against Italian efficers who took part in the late Abyssinian campaign. Lieutenant Pini first challenged the prince, but was ignered because of his lack of rank.

Potters Want An Advance.

Trenton, Aug. 2.- The working potters of this city held a mass meeting Saturday night at their clubhouse and decided to ask the manufacturers for the restoration within 60 days of the 121/2 per cent reduction in their wages made in 1894. The men claim that the increased tariff rate on pottery made in the Dingley bill justifies them in their request. A committee of the men will seek a conference this week with the manufacturers on the subject.

Provisions Scarce-Six Thousand Dollars Washed Out in Six Days - A Claim That Sold For Sixty Thousand Dollars. _

,San Francisco, July 31 .- A story of the hardships encountered on the trail from Dyea to Dawson City is told in two letters received by Mrs. Julia Cook, of this city, from her husband, Charles Cook, new in Dawson City, and who was more than two months on the road. One letter was written in Sheep Camp, at the foot of Chilcot Pass, and about 17 miles from Dyea. The party had been 12 days in covering this 17 miles, and were almost worn out when the letter was written. Cook says in his letter, which is dated

"We have been packing our goods over since the first of the month, when we left Dyea. We carried them from mountain to mountain, traveling incessantly back and forth, till we now have the 1,200 or more pounds all here. The mountains get steeper as we progress, and 50 pounds at a time are now too much for me to carry. Both my feet have given out, and in each leg I have a wound the size of a dollar and a quarter of an inch thick, due to the friction of one leg against the other as I scattered under my load. I have been lying in the tent here for two days, unable to get any further. Others are faring no better, however, as there is a fearful blizzard raging above us in the pass. Tomorrow we shall try to start arresh. May God help us over! Most of the travelers have their baggage carried by Indians, but you know that such a privilege was not for us.

"On every side the snow is from six to eight feet deep, and the sled tumbles from side to side, going over a reck only to slide down upon our tired, bruised bodies, giving us an extra blow as it passes on. Still we are mounting higher and higher, and not a word of complaint is heard. It seems to me that one watches the other, wondering how he stands the fearful journey. Right opposite the tent there is a mountain about 15,000 feet high and 400 feet wide. Perhaps it hides other and more terrible travels from us."

In the other letter, written in Dawson City on June 12, Cook tells of the graves that, mark the trail from Dyea to the Klondike, the resting places of those who succumbed to the hardships. He says: "At last! At last! We Youngstown, C. Aug. 2.-It was day- reached here today. What_we have

A letter from the Klondike in possession of a Portland mining man now in this city tells of some wonderful

"There was a claim next to mine that sold for $60,000 arew days ago. I will not send out any gold this time. I washed, out in six days about $6,000, and I want to stay here another year or two. Provisions are going to be very scarce. If you will pack up and leave Portland at once, and bring up grub enough to last three of us one year, we will give you a half interest in the biggest thing you ever struck. As you know, I am an old miner and know what I say. My new partner and I have each got $10,000 piled away in a sack. I am sure that in one year we three-you, my partner and I-can take out $500,000 and not try at all."

Out into the Carkness.

What mother would turn her young daughter out alone unpro-tected into the stormy night? Yet many leving mothers allow their daughters, who are just coming into the time of womanhood, to proceed without proper care and advice all unprotected and alone into the perils of this critical period.

Young women at this time often suffer from irregularity and weakness which may afterwards develop into dangerous disease and fill their whole lives with wretchedness. It is a mother's duty not to pass over such matters in silence, but to promote her daughter's womanly health and regularity by every reasonable means.

These delicate ailments are easily overcome in their early stages by judicious selftreatment without any need of the obnoxious examinations which doctors uniformly insist upon. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive specific for all diseases of the feminine organism.

It restores perfect health and regularity to the special functions, and vital vigor to the nerve-centres. It is the only medicine of its kind devised for this one purpose by an educated, experienced physician. During nearly 30 years as chief consult ing physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce has acquired an enviable reputation. His medicines are everywhere recognized as standard remedies. His "Golden Medical Discovery" alternated with the "Favorite Prescription "constitutes a thorough and scientific course of treatment for weak and impoverished conditions of the blood. A headache is a symptom of constipation. Dr. Pierce's l'ieasant Pellets cure constipacion, promptly and permanently. They do 101 gripe. Druggists sell them.
