THE RECEPTION TO DOLE

Cordial Greeting at Chicago by City and Government Officials.

A VISIT TO FORT SHERIDAN.

A Parade of the Garrison Given in Honor of the Distinguished Visitors From the Pacific Island Republic. To Start For Washington Tomorrow.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—President and Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, of Hawaii, arrived in Chicago yesterday morning. A distinguished party greeted the president of the little island republic on his arrival. The federal government was represented by Judge Crosscup, General J. C. Black, United States attorney, Mr. T. E. MacMillan, clerk of the United States district court, and Hon. Thomas W. Cramer, of the state department at Washington. Chicago was represented by Mayor Harrison, and the army and navy by Major Heistand and Lieutenants and Commanders, respectively, who were present in full dress uniform. In addition to these gentlemen the president was welcomed by General Brooke and his staff, Minister Hatch, of Hawaii, and others, including many ladies.

The first to shake hands with President Dole was Judge Crosscup, who said: "President Dole, I am instructed by the president of the United States to welcome you here. I am pleased to introduce to you Secretary Cramer, representing the president, and Mayor Harrison, of Chicago."

After the exchange of courtesies and a welcome to Chicago on behalf of the city by Mayor Harrison, President Dole cordially responded to the greeting and his remarks were met with a hearty reception from the president and Mrs. Dole, who were every one present by their unaffected and pleasant manner, thanked the ladies of the committee for coming out so early in the day to welcome them. The president and Mrs. Dole were highly pleased to appreciate very highly the reception she received in Chicago.

The party at once proceeded in carriages to the Auditorium annex, where a suite had been reserved for the guests. The party then proceeded to the apartments occupied by President McKinley two years ago when he visited Chicago to address the Marquette club. The suite, which was decorated with La France roses and draped with a Hawaiian flag, consisted of a drawing room and three bedrooms.

On arriving at the hotel General Brooke extended an invitation to President and Mrs. Dole to visit Fort Sheridan this morning. The invitation was accepted, and the party left Chicago for that place at 9 o'clock by special train. At the fort a parade of the garrison was given in their honor.

At 1 o'clock today luncheon was tendered the distinguished guests at Kingsley's, an afterward a formal reception was held at the Union League club.

In an interview with a press representative President Dole discussed freely the conditions in Hawaii, but refused to say anything about the Hawaiian revolution question now before congress. "I cannot go into a discussion of a matter which is before congress now," he said. "It would be, I think, discourteous. But there is one thing I do wish to say, and that is, that the Hawaiian revolution for these shores of Hawaii being menaced by Japan. There is absolutely nothing in it. We are not menaced by Japan, and we do not have a cabinet meeting and discuss a matter of the kind referred to, and there is no election in our relations with Japan. There is nothing in the relations between our country and Japan that hurried me to America."

Butterworth's Possible Successor.
Washington, Jan. 23.—Successor to the late commission of patents Benjamin Butterworth, it is said, will be named in a few days. It is believed that the place will be given to a New England man. There are two active candidates for the position, Messrs. A. P. Greeley, Jr., assistant commissioner, who has been acting as such during the illness of Mr. Butterworth, and Nathaniel T. Frothingham, of Massachusetts, who was the assistant commissioner under Mr. S. I. Mendenhall. Mr. Greeley is from New Hampshire, and has been in the office for many years.

Justice McKenna Confirmed.
Washington, Jan. 22.—Senator Allen occupied almost the entire executive session of the senate yesterday with his speech in opposition to confirmation of Joseph McKenna as associate justice of the supreme court, though they were brief remarks by Senators Tamm and Wilson, of Washington, and others favorable to Mr. McKenna. Mr. Allen spoke for about three hours. He said he was convinced of Mr. McKenna's unfitness for the office. He did not insist upon a "trial call" when the vote was taken and the vote was overwhelmingly in favor of confirmation.

The Ohio Geyromander.
Columbus, O., Jan. 21.—Senator Finck's bill to geyromander the congressional districts of the state was introduced in the legislature yesterday. The main purpose of the bill, and Mr. Finck frankly acknowledges it, is to legislate Congressman Grosvenor out of office and put a Democrat in his place. Congressman Grosvenor, however, claims he could carry the district as reorganized. The bill is one of the direct results of the anti-Hanna combine.

THE TURBULENT FRENCH

Anarchists Excluded From the Prohibited Anti-Dreyfus Meeting.

TWO KILLED IN ALGIER RIOTS.

The Jewish Quarter Attacked and Stores Pillaged—Many Persons Injured in the Fights Between the Mob and the Hebrews.

Paris, Jan. 19.—In anticipation of the prohibited anti-Dreyfus demonstration yesterday, under the direction of the organizing committee of the anti-Dreyfus meeting at the Tivoli Vauxhall last Monday night, stringent measures were taken by the authorities to preserve order. The Place de la Concorde and the Garden of the Tuilleries were held by detachments of cavalry and infantry and large forces of police. Nothing happened until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the time announced for the meeting to protest against the pro-Dreyfus agitation, in the Salle des Millet Colomes, in the Montparnasse quarter. The approaches to the hall were occupied by police and mounted Republican guards, while the precaution was taken of removing all chairs from the interior. The police refused admission to known anarchists, but many who were less prominent evaded the police vigilance, gained admission and created disturbance.

M. Thiebaud was elected to the chair, and the noisiest disturbers of the order were the small group in the hall. M. Thiebaud proposed that a wreath should be laid on the Strasbourg statue, and the proposal was greeted with cries of "Vive l'armee" and "Vive la France."

As the disturbance continued M. Thiebaud got a motion adopted to close the meeting.

The wreath was then placed in a carriage, but the police refused to allow the crowd to follow in a body, and divided it into small groups. In the meantime the anarchists tried in vain to organize a fresh meeting.

The wreath was placed upon the statue at 4:30 in the afternoon amid perfect order. Later in the evening the police dispersed the small groups of anti-Dreyfus demonstrators in the Rue de la Fayette and at the offices of the Aurore. But nothing serious occurred, and there were few arrests during the day.

It is agreed on all sides that Saturday was the most peaceful day of the recent disturbances in the Austrian republic. Curiously enough, Count Baden, former Austrian premier, witnessed it. He must have felt quite at home.

After the chamber was cleared 125 torn off neckties were picked up, together with many coats that had been torn by deputies from each other's shoulders. M. Clovis Hugues, one of the deputies for the department of the Seine, and the chairman of the anti-Dreyfus committee, which were so mutilated that he is now in the hands of a surgeon.

The scene of the fighting around the tribune was unargued. Comte de Bernis is a retired cavalry officer, and has the fourth manner of the bull fighting town of Nimes, where he will be a candidate at the next elections. M. Jaures is thick set, florid and hairy. M. Gerault Richard is mild looking. The latter was huffed and knocked about like a football in his group to deal Comte de Bernis a blow. Some 80 deputies were in the fight. Coats were torn to tatters and cravats were seized in the attempts to choke an opponent. During a lull in the fight M. Gerault Richard was huffed and his cravat torn off and his vest front torn open while his sympathizers were petting him on the back.

Suddenly Comte de Bernis bounded up the stairs of the tribune on all fours like an animal, dealt M. Jaures a heavy blow on the back of the head, and kicked him on the legs. M. Jaures was knocked over, and stumbled down the steps. Picking himself up, he saw Comte de Bernis making off with a crowd of deputies, while the remainder of the house hooted him, crying "Goward" and "Goward" and "Goward" and a knotted handkerchief after him. Comte de Bernis seemed paralyzed, and the house cheered M. Jaures, while a body of socialists made another rush at Comte de Bernis, and the melee was renewed as furious as before.

M. Brisson, president of the chamber, finding it hopeless to restore order, departed, and the military entered at the request, it is said, of a questioner who feared less of life if the scenes were continued.

DEADLY ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS.
The Jewish Quarter Attacked and Two Christians Killed.
Algiers, Jan. 24.—Anti-Jewish riots were renewed here yesterday. The mob invaded the Jewish quarter and pillaged the shops in the Rue Babouze, driving the Jewish merchants into the streets. A squadron of Chasseurs was ordered to the scene, and charged the mob with drawn swords, but the mob re-formed further on, cheering for the army.

Revolvers and daggers were freely used. One man who was stabbed in the back and shot in the head died from the shot, and many were seriously stabbed, one, named Cayol, dying from his injuries at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The crowd, hearing of this, became dangerously excited, shouting "They are murdering us!" "Death to the Jews," and resumed pillaging. The fronts of six shops were destroyed, and the loot was burned. The police repeatedly charged.

THE TEXTILE WORKERS.

Committees Solliciting Aid For the New Bedford Strikers.

A LONG STRUGGLE PREDICTED.

Executive Officers of the National Spinners' Union Meet in Boston—Secretary Ross Thinks the Strike Will Probably Last All Summer.

New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 24.—There is no change in the strike situation. No attempt was made to start the striking cloth mills today, and no excitement is expected at any of the mills. Secretary Ross is in receipt of offers to aid the strikers from Lowell and other places. At Lowell a subscription paper has been started by the Lowell Sun, and the amount subscribed is already considerable. From a shop in this city, not connected with the textile industry, Mr. Ross has been informed that the workmen employed there will contribute $50 to the strike fund weekly as long as it lasts.

The committee of the general strike committee, composed of representatives of the various associations, began today to solicit funds for the strike. Credentialed by the committee, All funds received by them will be devoted to the benefit of the strikers, union and non-union alike, each receiving a per capita share.

The center of the interesting scenes in the textile troubles temporarily shifted from New Bedford to Boston yesterday to the meeting of the executive council of the National Spinners' union. This meeting was called to consider the strike situation in New Bedford, and also the matter of the Fall River mills and other mills in New England where strikes or lockouts are imminent or have already taken place. The meeting was one of discussion rather than of action, although it was resolved to concentrate all the efforts of the organization on the New Bedford situation, leaving the Fall River trouble and the difficulties in other cities for local unions to handle and adjust if possible.

The principal feature of the discussion was the denunciation of the Arkwright club, and the charge that that organization of mill treasurers and agents conspired with Agent Chase, of the King Philip mill, of Fall River, to substitute ring for mule spinners. There seemed to be some difference of opinion as to whether Agent Chase was a willing party to what was called the conspiracy or had been forced into it by the Arkwright club. It was, however, generally accepted as a fact by the meeting that the attempt to put in ring frames was merely an entering wedge to put them in every mill in Fall River.

The spinners' union that the machines do inferior work, and that their introduction in competition with the river has not been profitable to the mill owners. In mills where the ring frames have been placed no dividends have been paid. An instance was cited of one mill that had been shut down for ten years simply because there was no demand for its product after machinery took the place of men.

The New Bedford strike situation was fully discussed, and the general opinion seemed to be that the settlement of the trouble could be a long time in coming. In fact, Secretary Ross said he did not look for its solution until far into the summer, if indeed, it came then.

Aver's Hair Vigor is certainly a remarkable preparation and nothing like it has ever been produced. No matter how dry and unmanageable the hair may be, under the influence of this incomparable dressing, it becomes soft, pliable, and pliable to the comb and brush.

PHILADELPHIA'S BROKEN BANK.
Depositors Becoming Restless Over the Delay of the Assignments.
Philadelphia, Jan. 24.—The managers of the broken Chestnut Street National bank have not yet decided their plan of voluntary liquidation operative, though they claim that they are waiting only for the assent of the state of Pennsylvania, amounting to $250,000. Individual non-assenting depositors are becoming restless. In one month since the doors of this bank were closed. Though the institution has been technically in the charge of a bank examiner, its affairs appear to be in the hands of Messrs. Earle and Cooke, who are the assignees for the Chestnut Street Trust and Savings Fund company and who have charge of Mr. Singery's other liabilities. In as much as former Comptroller of the Currency Eekles has stated that the bank was in a bad condition for more than a year before the doors were closed, the depositors think that a full month is as much time as the government should extend for the perfection of a plan for voluntary liquidation. In financial circles it is believed that the plan of liquidation will be adopted within a few days or a receiver appointed, and the greatest failure that Philadelphia has known will pass into history before the close of another week.

The Germans as Benefactors.
London, Jan. 24.—The Times says editorially this morning: "We are glad to learn from various trustworthy and mutually independent sources that the purpose of the German's intention to open Kia-Chau to the world's commerce is well founded. If this decision is maintained Kia-Chau will probably become a great busy and flourishing entrepot of the world's trade, a northern Hong Kong. The wisdom of the decision cannot be doubted. It will tend to improve the unnecessarily strained relations between England and Germany. It is to be hoped that other nations will follow Germany's example, and that the far eastern question may thereby be greatly simplified."

Too Much Knife!

The use of the surgeon's knife is becoming so general, resulting fatally in such a large number of cases, as to occasion general alarm.

Mr. William Waispole of Washington, South Dakota, writes: "About three years ago, there came under my left eye a little blotch about the size of a small pea. It grew rapidly, and shooting pain ran in every direction. I became alarmed and consulted a good doctor, who pronounced it cancer and said that it must be cut out. This I would not consent to, having little faith in the use of the knife. Reading of the many cures made by S. S. S., I determined to give that medicine a trial, and after I had taken it a few days, the cancer became irritated and began to discharge. This after awhile ceased, leaving a small scab, which finally dropped off, and only a healthy little scar remained to mark the place where the destroyer had held full sway."
