A RECRUITING station for the U. S. Army has been established at Charlotte, N. C.

AND still the war progresses. If this care does nothing more it will serve as a lesson to foreign nations.

THE cotton crop of '97-'98 is still "growing." The late estimates place it at from 11,000,000 bales up.

A WELL KNOWN cotton statistician of New Orleans places the cotton crop of 1897 at 11,000,000 bales.

"DAN" EMMETT, the minstrel and author of "Dixie," is now living at Mount Vernon, Ohio, and is eighty-three years old.

AN English syndicate recently closed a deal in Kentucky whereby 200,000 acres of coal and timber lands passed into its hands.

THE report of the Court of Enquiry will probably be in some time before the first of April. It seems that they are waiting for Uncle Sam to get good and ready before they say anything.

THE Concord Times came out last week with one of the most attractive "write ups" that we have yet seen. And what is more to the point, it seems to have been gotten out by the editor and not by a traveling "side show."

Capt. Buck Kitchen, of Halifax county, is out in another letter on the political situation. He truly says: "If a Republican or his principles are any better now than they were in the days of reconstruction I have not discovered it."

KINSTON is a hustling little town in many ways. Their latest act of progressiveness is the establishment of a daily paper. Messrs. D. W. and C. Z. Whitaker are in charge and are doing their best to meet the requirements of the position. All success to them.

It was stated some time ago, notes the Savannah News that Fitzhugh Lee would ask Virginia to honor him with a seat in the Senate after his return from Cuba. Should he do so, Virginia would subject herself to severe criticism if she hesitated for a moment to give him the place.

THE fact that an ex-Federal soldier in the White House, and an ex-Confederate soldier as Consul-General to Cuba, are the leading actors in the grave situation confronting the country is an object lesson of a united country that speaks volumes, observes the News and Observer.

THE Emperor of Germany is credited with having said that "so long as he was ruler of Germany that Cuba would not belong to the United States." The probabilities are that he never said anything of the kind but if he should so express himself it would make but little difference. The different States of Europe are so busy with their own troubles that they have small chance to meddle with us.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

THE Fayetteville (N. C.) Baptist says: "We verily believe that North Carolina has more politics and worse politics than any State in the Union."

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, one of the greatest colored men of America, has written to the Louisiana Constitutional Convention commending the restriction of the ballot box to those with educational qualifications. He argues that to close the ballot box against ignorance will mean the opening of the schoolhouses.

THE Charlotte Observer, ever progressive, has decided on a Monday morning issue. This was done, at this particular time, to meet the demand for "war" news. The first of these Monday issues is full of good reading matter. The leading editorial, which we copy in another column, is one that should be read and carefully pondered by every Democrat in the State.

THE Thomasville News, which is Populist all over and through, leans to the opinion that the endorsement by the Democratic State Committee of National Chairman Jones' address means the complete fusion of all silver forces in the State in the Congressional elections this year. If the News supposes that the Democratic fly intends to walk into the Populist spider's parlor, it is slightly mistaken.

"We urge the subscribers that are at Ease in Arrangement."

A Missouri editor, evidently a prohibitionist, went to church the other day and was called upon to lead in prayer, when he responded as follows:

"Almighty and kind Father, who doth from Thy throne look down on the government of men and delinquent subscribers, most humbly we beseech Thee to draw nigh unto them and whisper a few things into their ear that the statute forbids us to print. Thou knowest our wants, but the subscriber knowest them not and seldom steps in to inquire. Let it be known that there are patches on the homestead of our pants and there is an aching void in the front part of our back, and that we hunger and thirst and that he asks us not to come in and sup with him. Thou knowest, Lord, that our ink and print paper costs money, but the subscriber bringeth it not as he promised and we are shivering and shaking while he roasteth his shins before the red hot fire of his mother. Tell him all these things, Lord, and if he fail-eth and bringeth no succor, banish him to the lower regions to dwell among the Republicans, Democrats, Populists and calamity howlers, and Thine shall be the praise and the glory through our newspaper career. Amen."

THE STATE PRESS.

CURRENT TOPICS DISCUSSED BY THE EDITORS.

All those schemes for taxing bachelors with a view of driving them into matrimony are wrong. More men get married now than wives can comfortably support.—Greenville Enterprise.

What is love? Love is that lubricating compound of soul and mind which mingles itself with the same property of others and makes "two hearts beat as one." Love is the fulfilling of the law.—Washington Progress.

The passage, by an entirely unanimous vote, of the Cannon bill through the House yesterday appropriating $50,000,000 for the national defence will doubtless have a salutary effect both in America and Spain.—Charlotte Observer.

Says Oliver Wendell Holmes: "If a man cannot find a logical way out of a dilemma, it is his duty to go crazy and he is a fool if he don't." The above is respectfully commended to Dan Russell for serious consideration.—Trucker's Journal.

It is sad that in the event of trouble with this country Spain may get the moral support of Germany." When it comes to the game of playing powder and ball and big guns moral support isn't the kind of support that amounts to much.—Star.

The refusal of the United States Government to recall General Lee at Spain's suggestion, shows the confidence of the administration in the ability of the Consul General to manage affairs of this government in Cuba in the present crisis.—Smithfield Herald.

If ever one was justified in rejoicing at turmoil and strife it is now in order to rejoice at the ups and downs and cursing and counter cursing of the present State administration. Russell curses and they curse back at him and so it goes.—Washington Progress.

Russell Sage wants war. He ought to have his fill of it, and if war comes he ought to be forced to go to the front. Anyhow, the government at Washington would be considerably safer and better off with Russell Sage in the van of an attacking army than Russell Sage in Wall street.—Trucker's Journal.

The Philadelphia Ledger, referring to an inter-collegiate debate in that State, well observes: "We should have more of these contests of reason and eloquence. Whether or not we have too many inter-state collegiate athletic contests, it is certain that we have too few intellectual ones.—Raleigh Post.

In noticing the recommendation of the Senate for a modification of the civil service rules, so that a few more Republicans could be given jobs, an exchange makes the mistake of calling it "mortification." It will prove a "mortification" to all who believed the Republicans honest in their advocacy of civil service.

Speaking of a matter of which he knew somewhat Napoleon said that the first requisite for war was money, the second was money, and the third was money. From the nonchalance with which Uncle Sam puts up $50,000,000 at a time he seems to think himself fairly well provided with the requisite.—Greensboro Telegram.

Queen Victoria's message to President McKinley is one over which all America will feel proud. The suggested alliance with Great Britain is somewhat too vague to be taken into consideration, but for all that, Queen Victoria's expression shows a feeling toward the United States that is a source of gratification.—Charlotte Observer.

Fusion with an old foe does not only mean defeat, but it means a surrender of principles. A straight fight may mean defeat, but if we go down in defeat in a fight single handed and alone we have the comforting assurance that we will rise again with clean hands and unsoiled garments. We don't want any mixing in ours and we don't intend that a handful of political directors shall tell us what we shall or shall not do in the approaching contest.—Enterprise.

So far as the Times is concerned its editor considers that he has never ridden on a "pass," but the advertising we have done for the railroads will overbalance, by far, the amount of the "passes," and we are one of those kind that believe that if the editor and the railroads with whom he has contracts are satisfied that each party is filling said contracts there is no law that can prevent a continuance of the same.—Franklin Times.

NEWS ABOUT NORTH CAROLINA.

The Republican State organ declares that there will be a fusion of Republicans and Populists on Congressmen.

Editor Britt of the Oxford Ledger, has accepted the position of private secretary to Congressman Kitchen, of the fifth district.

Platt Cowan died recently in Wilmington. He was the son of the late Robert H. Cowan and grand-son of Governor Stone.

A Cleveland county man owns a mule that is 35 years old but it can pull a plow all day and be as frisky at night as a 3 year-old.

While at the supper table Thursday night Major J. S. Pemberton was stricken with paralysis at Albemarle. He is a leading democrat and lawyer.

The Seaboard Air Line railroad is making the experiment of using electric headlights for its locomotives and the trials thus far made are said to be successful.

The industrial agents of the Seaboard Air Line, who number about 200, held a convention at Wilmington this week. The Seaboard is doing much to develop the South.

Mr. R. H. Bradley, who was in the squad at Bethel with Wyatt, the first man shot on the Southern side during the war, has been chosen as chief marshal for Memorial day at Raleigh.

Raleigh Cor. Messenger: It is now arranged that the Pamlico and Carteret county oyster claims shall be submitted to a referee. The State treasurer will not pay them as they now stand.

A young man named Thorpe, who said he was a son of William Thorp, of Granville county, was found Monday dying in a public road in Person county. He said John Forsyth shot him. His horse was near by.

A new building is to be built for the deaf and dumb school at Morganton. It will be 162x83 feet, centre three stories and wings two, and will contain 22 school rooms, an office, reception room and large assembly room. The cost is not to exceed $17,000.

At Winston Judge Coble granted a temporary injunction restraining the sheriff of Rockingham county from collecting the interest on the $5,000 of bonds issued January 1st, 1889; to the Roanoke and Southern railroad until further order of court. This is another bond repudiation.

The negroes of Granville county are greatly alarmed. They have been told that President McKinley will call into service against Spain first of all those who voted for McKinley.

The Marion Democrat says a hawk flew down into the yard of Mr. Benj. Halliburton and caught a chicken. A rooster immediately made for the hawk. A tough fight ensued, during which Siegle Halliburton, 10 years old, grabbed the hawk, carried him to the wood pile and dispatched him with an ax.

Movements of Warships.

Washington, March 15.—The big armored cruiser Brooklyn arrived at Fort Monroe this morning direct from LaGuayra, Venezuela. She has made a fine run up, and it is expected, will await at Hampton Roads the arrival of the Minneapolis and Columbia, which are just fitting out at Philadelphia. This force will form an excellent nucleus for the projected "flying squadron" in case the department decides to form one.

A citizen of Greensboro, in walking along the streets of that town, was struck on the head by a dead limb which broke and fell from a tree under which he was passing. He sued the town for damages, claiming that he was permanently disabled, and the jury gave him $1,000. The city appealed.

An interesting service was participated in by Rev. J. L. Meyerberg in this city Sunday afternoon. It was the reception of Miss Lillian May Richerson, of Tarboro, into the Jewish faith, after which she was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Miller, a Hebrew, and they returned on the evening train to their home in Tarboro, which town, by the way, seems to furnish nearly all the Hebrew (female) converts in the State.—Goldsboro Headlight, 3d.

Let every good Democrat in every township constitute himself a missionary, and use his influence on every good white citizen to attend the Democratic primaries when called, and take part in sending delegates to the various nominating conventions. The only qualification required is that said citizen, who thus goes into the primary, pledges himself to abide the result, and vote with the Democrats to redeem the State from Russell Butlerism. The Post asks its contemporaries to urge this course on all good Democrats. Let us all to work.—Raleigh Post.

Key West, Fla., March 15.—The United States dispatch boat Fern arrived here this afternoon from Mantanzas. The Fern's trip was uneventful. She reached Mantanzas on Sunday and it took her a discharging provisions into the harbor. The shore of Mantanzas for Mantanzas was a fine sight. A business like way of the Fern's sale, for Signor Le Ganto, who is the state program, was going through on Sunday, the operation of handling the stores, carrying a boat to the

There is going to be a big fight over the location of a Federal Prison in the South. Raleigh has it, but Atlanta and Charleston also want it. Not only do they want it but they are going to make a desperate effort to get it. Of course Raleigh, having the prison already, has the nine points of possession on her rivals.

MANY THINK!

when the Creator said to woman, "In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children," that a curse was pronounced against the human race, but the joy felt by every Mother when she first presses to her heart her babe, proves the contrary. Danger and suffering lurk in the pathway of the Expectant Mother, and should be avoided, that she may reach the hour when the hope of her heart is to be realized, in full vigor and strength.
