"SOUTHERN LADIES TOO FASY TO INSULT.

What Do the White Republicans of North Carolina Think of This?-If Such Speeches Had Been Made in the South the "Orators" Would Be Done Away With in Short Order.

New York, Nov. 17 .- Despite the best efforts of its organizers, the meeting of negroes at Cooper Union the white people at Wilmington, N. C., evinced a spirit of revenge.

Some of the speeches were moderate in remarks, but the others (which aroused the most enthusiasm) spoke of "the day to come, sooner or later, when the blacks should revenge themselves for all the persecutions they have undergone," and one speech was along the very lines which resulted in the Wilmington riots.

An amendment to the resolutions which advocate retaliatory measures was smothered.

The meeting was called to order by T. Thomas Fortune, the negro ties. editor, who introduced ex-Minister to Hayti Barrett, as chairman. Letters persons.

Then Fortune made a speech, in which he appealed against the "mobocracy of the South," to the better feeling of this great country.

When he asked how negroes should demand their rights, the answer came from all parts of the hall: "Fight for them! fight!!! fight!!!"

Fortune attempted to calm the crowd, but a man yelled: "No, no kill 'em! Kill 'em! Give them what they give us!"

Fortune finally got order and continued, as follows:

"I can't blame any man for teeling some resentment, but he's a fool who butt's his head against a stone wall. Let the white men of the South proclaim themselves a lawless element. But let us have patience."

Lawson N. Fuller was the next speaker, and he expressed the opinion that "the Southern ladies are too gress General W. R. Cox, of North easily insulted, anyway."

Joseph D. Peaker, president of the State Summer League of Connecti cut, demanded a union of the colored

Then George W. Brown, one of the negroes who escaped from North Carolina only to meet violence in Virginia, was introduced. But he had nothing to say.

Dr. Scott, a preacher from North Carolina, made a speech which white Southerner present said: "He would not have lived to finish it if he had made it in the South."

He pointed out the high tavor in which the blacks were held before the war, and said the same would be true now if not for the increasing prosperity of the blacks, and other expressions.

W. H. Brooks, another negro "preacher," said in the course of his speech: "Let us keep cool. Keep a grip on yourself, and your teeth tight closed. Win peacefully it you can, but if not-well, it there's nothing else to do, if you've got to die, don't die by yourself." (Cheers and yells.)

The Wilmington negro, Manly, did not show up.

The Steel Rail Deal Off.

New York, Nov. 18 .- The negoti ations between the leading steel-rail manufacturers of the country looking to a partition of territory and control of prices have been abandoned.

It is understood that the chief objection to the proposed arrangement was the Carnegie Steel Company, Nevertheless there is a disposition among the steel rail manufacturers to live up to the prices. The indications are that there will be no serious war between the manufacturers, though negotions are off.

FOR BASEBALL IN CUBA.

red Sullivan Plans to Take National League Teams to Havana.

Ted Sullivan appeared in Chicago the other day after several weeks of retirement up in Wisconsin. Whenever Ted is in seclusion for any period, his baseball acquaintances know he will reappear with some original scheme relating to the national game, and this time there is no exception to the rule.

The old National league and American association manager is now at work on a plan to invade Cuba with a team of National league baseball players the approaching winter. "If Cuba is to be Americanized," says Ted, "one of the first things it needs is baseball." Sullivan says he has a personal acquaintance with General Fitzbugh Lee, whom he met when he was manager of the Richmend team, and he thinks Lee will be New York, Nov. 18-While a gang governor of the island and a friend of his plan to introduce baseball in Havana. He also relies on the presence of 50,000 American troops, needing them, over the Hackensack, near Jersey not to protect the umpires, but to patronize the games.

He does not anticipate any ill feeling toward the American players, but thinks they will be well received. He has not yet made any effort to pick his teams, but will take about 20 players, several from the Baltimore team. Sullivan has a friend in Tampa, Fla., through whom, he announces, he already has secured grounds in Havana. He expects to play at points between Chicago and Florida leaving Chicago if he can by the middle of November. - Chicago Tribune.

IDEAS OF MR. CHAMBERLAIN America's Destiny Abroad and England's Friendly Sentiments. The Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, who is now with his wife's relatives in Danvers, Mass., in a recent interview with a Boston Post reporter, has put some of his ideas into new phrases. He is quoted as saying: "Your country is growing. You can't resist its development. It is not supposable that Washington would have maintained the same attitude if conditions had essentially altered, as they must have altered in 100 years. Your constitution does not forbid growth or expansion. Your position in the Philippines is almost parallel with the one we faced in Egypt. Lord Herschell said, 'Why not get out?' But I said, 'How can we get out?" " Cuba, Mr. Chamberlain said, was entirely different. The people there had some idea of government. He said he did not believe in a protectorate. "De the job thoroughly," he said. When asked if he thought the regard which he held for America extended to all classes in England, he said: "Yes, from the man with the dinner pail to the lord in the banquet hall. But," he added, "the recent change is all on your part. It is not a new growth with us. You have only recognized it now, but it has been there long."

What the instructions to the Paris peace commissioners may be it would probably be premature to disclose. The fact that our best two battleships are to be sent to Dewey, however, can have but one interpretation.-Philadelphia

PORTO RICO'S CHIEF NEED. There Must Be Currency Reform Before Great Progress Is Possible. Before any important progress can be made in Porto Rico there is one question which must be settled by the American government. This is the question of the currency. The Porto Rican standard of values is now the silver peso, containing 100 centavos, worth $1 were silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. It contains approximately the same amount of silver as our dollar, but it is not redeemable in gold. Hence gold is at a premium, and this premium is, of course, unstable. The bullion value of the peso is scarcely more than one-third of a dollar, and the Porto Rican government, which has stamped

When the Americans landed at Ponce, they needed the Porto Rican currency. and for a few days the banks and the merchants gave 2 pesos for each dollar in gold. Then the premium suddenly Always a has a magnificent oak bookcase built in fell from 100 to 75 per cent. There was an apparent agreement among those possessed of pesos to hold on to them if order and somber. This will be relieved | a higher premium were demanded. General Miles endeavored to keep up the in crimson. Willie K. Vanderbilt re- rate by having the custom house make the exchange at two for one, but the customs receipts were not sufficient to supply even the government's needs. Private citizens were obliged to take 75 per cent. At Guayama General Brooke arbitrarily established the rate of exchange at 100 per cent, but the merchants only observed it when purchases were made. You could not get money changed at better than 75. Here in San Juan 75 is the best that can be obtained, and many of the Porto Ricans maintain that the rate will go still lower, some predicting that it will reach 50, and they declare that if the government attempts to redeem the pesos at only its bullion value they will make a fight. Thus the whole business community is unsettled and must be until the question is settled. Fix once for all the currency of the island, and the prosperity which will follow will soon heal the sores of the war. - New York Sun.

The artist who is in search of attitudes descriptive of torture, and poses depicting suffering, need not go to the Christian martyrs of old. If he could only see through the walls into tens of thousands of homes all over this land, he would see women undergoing tortures in silence without complaining, brief ordeals of the martyrs pale into nothingness.

No one but a woman can tell despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangement of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. One of the worst effects of troubles of this kind is upon the nervous system. The tortures so bravely endured completely and effectually shatter the nerves. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing cure for all weakness and disease of the feminine organ-ism. It makes it strong and healthy. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It checks exhausting drains and tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Good medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing "just as good."

"Since my last child was born, thirteen years ago, I have suffered from uterine trouble," writes Mrs. Paul Devraine, of Jellico, Campbell Co., Tenn. "I consulted several doctors and took much medicine, but found no relief. I had very bad health for twelve years. Every month I was in bed a week before the monthly period and a week after. I was obliged to keep in bed for four months last summer. I was just like a corpse. I lost twenty-six pounds in four months. I was coughing so much I was considered in consumption. I suffered severely from pains in my back, bearing down pains in the womb, chills and cold sweats. After taking four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery my coughing stopped, and after six covery my coughing stopped, and after six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription my periods became regular and were passed with-out pain. Now I am fleshy, more so than ever before. My neighbors are surprised to see me in such good health after having seen me
