

W. W. HALL, J. W. SLEDGE, Proprietors.

THURSDAY : : NOVEMBER 3, 1891.

BROTHER WARD has removed to Edenton and all mail should be addressed to him at that place.

We have received a copy of the Beaufort Telephone a weekly paper published by Messrs Potter and Chadwick.

Mr. R. T. FURNER began at Greensboro on November the first publication of the Evening Tribune.

The trial of Guleau has been postponed until November 14th. It is understood that the defence will not plead to the jurisdiction of the court.

GENERAL GRANT sticks close to President Arthur, and seems to have influence in the management of affairs.

The Railroad war seems to have come to an end without any immediate results being accomplished.

EX-GOVERNOR MORGAN has declined to accept the Secretaryship of the Treasury, and Judge Folger has been appointed to the place.

The State Republican Executive Committee has issued an address to the people in which they allude to the prohibition question and seek to induce Democrats who were opposed to the prohibition bill to vote with them.

Of Mr. Cookling's "Spartan band" of thirty three, who voted for him to the last in the New York Legislature, nineteen have been denied a re-nomination by their constituents.

The election in Virginia takes place on Tuesday next. It is hard to tell which side will be successful.

It has long been known that frauds are continually being perpetrated on the government in all of the departments.

It is high time something was done to check this evil. The offenders should be prosecuted and punished.

Denise the visit of the Massachusetts troops to Virginia to take part in the Yorktown celebration they behaved in a very unbecoming manner.

The 'Richmond correspondent of Herald says their conduct in Richmond was outrageous and the fact that they were Northern soldiers passing through Richmond debased the authorities from taking forcible measures to punish them for their excesses and orgies.

The Herald also says that their conduct at Yorktown was equally reprehensible and their behavior was such that both Northern and Southern soldiers did not care to associate with them.

Advertisements section containing various notices and small ads.

Advertisement for SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, THE GREAT REMEDY FOR LIVER COMPLAINT.

Advertisements for GROCERIES AND SHOES, E. CLARK, OR THE MILL, and G. J. MOSELEY.

Advertisements for SOUTHERN HOTEL, N. B. DICKENS, Proprietor, HALIFAX, N. C., and R. H. DANIEL & CO.

Advertisements for HOME SEWING MACHINE, Hackney Bros' Buggy Works, and J. H. DEAL, Jr.

Advertisements for NEW ADVERTISEMENTS, LARGEST STOCK, and R. O. EDWARDS.

Advertisement for LARGEST STOCK, FIRST-CLASS GOODS EVER BROUGHT TO EASTERN CAROLINA.

Advertisement for R. O. EDWARDS, MILLINERY, FANCY NOTIONS.

Advertisement for J. W. BEASLEY'S SEWING MACHINE & REPAIR OFFICE.

Advertisement for HART & HARRISON, FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

Advertisement for HART & HARRISON, WELDON, N. C.

Advertisement for B. TAYLOR, COMMISSION MERCHANT, HICCINS' WHARF, NORFOLK VA.

Advertisement for B. T. SIMMONS, DRUGGIST AND PHARMACIST, WELDON, N. C.

Advertisement for WHITE & STAINBACK, LEADERS OF LOW PRICES.

Advertisement for V. J. NAW, BAKER & CONFECTIONER, WELDON, N. C.