

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1892.

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

Dr. Talmage favors and Mr. Beecher opposes prohibition.

The farmers of Northampton and Accomac, Va., are importing white laborers.

Richmond and Danville stock is down low and it is reported that the road has changed hands.

The taxable property in Lenoir county, N. C., has increased $300,000 in value the past year.

Charlotte received last week 3,677 bales of cotton, 2,746 more than the corresponding week last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Scoville are both suing for divorce. Their bills and cross-bills are said to contain most scandalous charges.

The fair season has begun and will last about a month longer when people will begin to think about and prepare for Christmas.

There is still much suffering and distress at Peninsula from the yellow fever scourge. Appeals are made to relieve the destitution.

Affidavits have been filed showing that the government detectives attempted to bribe the Star route jury. Fine way for a government to do.

To improve the new building of the Oxford Orphan Asylum will be dedicated by Grand master Grainger. Senator Ransom and others will make speeches.

The trial of Aram, Boy has begun. He demanded to have English counsel which has not yet been granted. He will defend himself if his request is refused.

It is estimated that the South has this season paid to the North $25,000,000 for wheat, $50,000,000 for corn, $5,000,000 for meat, and about $25,000,000 for hay, butter, cheese, oats, apples, potatoes, etc.

POINTS IN POLITICS.

West Virginia Republicans gained three Congressmen last week.

The defeat of the Republicans in Ohio was mainly owing to their advocacy of prohibition.

Mr. Blaine is in favor of making straight-out Republican nominations in all the Virginia Districts.

Assessments for campaign purposes still continue notwithstanding the opposition of all honest men.

Senator Beck, of Kentucky, counts on a Democratic majority of thirty to forty in the next House.

The New York Globe, organ of the colored people, advocates the election of Cleveland the Democratic candidate for Governor.

The election in Ohio resulted in a Democratic gain of nine Congressmen. The Democratic State ticket was also elected by a handsome majority.

The News and Observer computes the "liberal wing of the Republican party" in this State at 500 strong, of whom about 150 are candidates for office.

D. A. Jenkins has written a second letter in which he says that while he is a Republican he will vote the Democratic ticket rather than support the coalition and the Revenue riot.

The Georgia Democrats insist upon presenting the name of Ben Hill, Jr., to the Legislature as a candidate for the Senate to fill the unexpired term of his father.

The Democratic Convention of the Eighth Congressional District of Georgia will meet in August on the 20th inst. to nominate a successor to Alexander U. Stephens. A special election will be held on November 7th.

At a dinner of the Farmers' Club, in Philadelphia, on Friday night, Simon Cameron stated his regrets that Mr. Tilden was counted out of the Presidency in 1876. The chickens are coming home in a hurry to roost.

Excepting the Greeley campaign of 1872, there is no parallel in political history for the "liberal" cause, so far as this district is concerned. Having gone up like a rocket, Democrats and Republicans alike are laughing at it—Stateville Times.

Do not touch any Radical with a hundred feet pole who wishes to place the white tax payers again under negro control. He is not worthy to be trusted. He would bring the great cause of governmental oppression upon you.—W.H. Star.

The Democratic State Executive Committee is in receipt daily of cheering political news from the State canvass, and Chairman Coke says the present outlook foreshadows the annihilation of "liberalism" in November.

The street-corner caucus is in full swing. The anti-machine Republican don't harmonize so easily.—George Everett left for Winston this morning with his under lip hanging down about a foot. He says New York and Pennsylvania will raise a bigger h-1 than Ohio.

There are about fifty Republicans in Clay township, and there will not be five votes cast for Stafford. Gilmer will receive nearly the total vote.—Greensboro Herald.

Word passes along the line that the Liberal party is weakening. That the line of battle is breaking before the solid shot of a united and harmonious Democracy. Let us say just one word. This weakening, if it means anything, means just this: The fall of the State ticket will receive only a partial support from the Republican party, while the head of the ticket, Col. Dockery, will receive a heavy, cheerful and unanimous support of the Republicans, aided by whatever strength the Liberal party can muster. Folk and Darby and Edwards and Churchill may be thankful for whatever support they can get, but Dockery, Guthrie, Pool and Moore will receive the solid vote of the Republican party.—Charlotte Observer.

"There never was such bull-dozing as is being resorted to by the Liberal managers in North Carolina. They show their lack of judgment. The injudicious use of the President's name has done the movement a great deal of damage. Instead of terrifying Republicans, it has made them defiant, and has lost friends for the President. Persons who do not live in the State, and who know nothing of the details of its politics, seem to have undertaken to drive the Republicans into a coalition with the thousands of imaginary Democrats who want to help us beat the Bourbons. The truth is that there are not 1,000 Democrats in the Liberal movement. There is nothing of it except the revenue and other Federal officers. These Democrats may be hidden away in Washington to be sprung on the State election day, but, so far, we have not seen them there, nor have we heard their names. A few old, played-out Democrats have been bought and paid for, but they control nothing outside of their own vote."—N. Y. Evening Post.

He is a nice fellow who now lays in eggs cold.

CHICKS are turning purple with their own age.
Do not wait any longer but register without delay.

EVERY thing is getting its proper shape for the fair.
The very worst thing about riches is not having any.

Like a drug store the mouth of gossip is open at all hours.
The continued warm weather is very detrimental to the cotton.

J. W. Beasley, Norfolk, Va., advertises Sewing Machines for sale.

Goods generally reduced in price can be found at L. A. Farinholt's.

This is a new registration, consequently every voter has to be registered.

Quite a number of our county people are attending the State Fair this week.

No matter what your ailment is, Brown's Iron Bitters will surely benefit you.

Fines is a good deal for coming this year. The first year was on October 6th.

See that your name is on the registration books at once. You cannot register on election day.

ALREADY a number of horses are on the fair grounds and things begin to put on a holiday appearance.

See the Registrar for your township and have your name put on the book. There is danger in delay.

There will be six thousand people on the grounds each day of the fair. There will be a grand time.

Turn out and hear the Democratic candidate at their several appointments if you want to know the truth.

EVERYBODY is coming to the fair, and will have a general reunion of friends and relatives and acquaintances.

It has been rumored here that there would be Democratic candidates for Congress in this District, but we do not believe it.

Our merchants and citizens are looking forward to and preparing for the fair. They expect a large crowd to attend each day.

For one dime get a package of Diamond Dyes at the drugstore. They color anything the simple and most desirable colors.

For fair privileges rented last Saturday. The prices paid will compare favorably with those obtained at any other fair.

THERE must be a new registration of every man who intends to vote next month. The registration two years ago will not do.

THOUSANDS of families have had occasion to try the never failing quality of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and they all unite in the praise of this wonderful prescription.

Train from Scotland Neck, does not leave Halifax until the arrival of the fast mail going South, though this train does not stop at Halifax. It thence off the mail.

THREE were four passengers taken here at one time on Tuesday, caused by a delay of the train from Wilmington. A freight car run off and obstructed the track at Rocky Mount.

THE fair provides that no man can vote unless he is properly registered, and it also provides that no one can register on election day, except on account of sickness prior to that day or other equally good reason.

WE learn that there will be an entertainment at the Southern Hotel Halifax, to-morrow, (Friday) night. They are always enjoyable and mine host Dickens will see that every thing passes off pleasantly.

If you want bargains in dress goods, pants goods, shoes, hats, clothing and white goods call at L. A. Farinholt's store. He is selling off to make room for fall and winter stock.

"BUCHUPATHA."

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases. R. Pringle.

REMOVAL.—The Roanoke News office has been removed to the second story of the brick building in the bottom. We hope our friends will make a note of this so they will know where to come when they wish to see us.

NEW GOODS.—Mrs. Patten A. Moore has received and is receiving a new lot of millinery and fancy goods which are offered to the public cheap. She invites an examination of her stock and feels satisfied that she can give satisfaction to those who are hardest to please.

L. A. FARINHOLT, has given the front of his store a good coating of white paint which gives an improved appearance.

FOUNT.—Two colored boys, names unknown, got in a fight near town a few days ago and one of them struck the other on the head with a large rock inflicting a severe wound. Dr. Zollinger attended to the boy and he was improving when last heard from.

WILL NOT CANVASS.—We learn that Mr. J. J. Goodwyn, will not take part in the canvass at present. His health has been bad for several weeks and his physician, Dr. Geo. thinks it would be imprudent for him to work. He hopes to be able to join the other candidates before the election.

DIED.—On yesterday at 3 o'clock A. M., at her residence near here, of consumption, Mrs. G. O. Lynch. Mrs. Lynch had been ill for some time and this summer went to Shelby for her health, but returned home without any improvement. Funeral services will take place to-day (Thursday) at the residence of Judge Lynch, at 3 o'clock P. M.

WILLIAMSBY HYPER.—Williamby Reads gave another of his entertainments here on Tuesday night to good and highly appreciative audiences. "Karl the Blacksmith" was excellent, while his humorous recitations kept his audience in a laugh the whole time. All enjoyed the entertainment. We shall always be glad to welcome him to our town.

DEATH.—I deeply regret to learn of the death of Mr. C. Bradley, which event occurred at his home in the town of Halifax, on or about the 15th of this month. Mrs. B. was a true Christian lady and not only the bereaved family but the community in which she lived has sustained an irreparable loss.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Wind frequently causes a lamp chimney to break, or a draft of cold air will break it, or turning the wick too high strikes the shade to the great annoyance of house-keepers. Fortunately an appliance has been discovered by which all this can be avoided. It is M. E. Zollinger's Lamp Globe Protector, for sale at Zollinger's drug store. Price 15 cents.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—On Saturday last the Republican Convention met in Halifax for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature in the coming year. The death of Mr. Bradley, which occurred on the 15th of this month, was a great loss to the party. An effort was made to nominate a Liberal but the Republicans of the county are not sufficiently convinced of the utility of this kind of thing to the effect to them and nominated a straight-out colored Republican, J. H. Hall of Ringwood. There were several candidates.

"ROUGH ON RATS."

Clears rats, mice, earwigs, flies, ants, bed bugs, shrews, chipmunks, possums, etc. Ringwood.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—The Democratic candidates of Halifax county will address the people upon the political issues of the day at the following times and places:

Halifax, Thursday	7:30
Amherst Springs, Sat.	10:30
Cornwall, Tuesday	7:30
Scotland Neck, Thurs.	7:30
Weldon, Saturday	7:30
Halifax, Thursday Nov.	7:30
Weldon, Saturday	7:30

OUR NEXT FAIR.—May L. M. Long, Secretary of the Roanoke and Tidewater Agricultural Fair, informs us the coming exposition of the Society will be the best ever held at Weldon. The officers of the Association have fully set out themselves this year and have left nothing undone that would further the interests of the fair. The program of the day is the most complete ever given. The fair will be a grand success, and the attendance of visitors from all over the country is expected to be larger than ever before. The fair commences Nov. 15th and continues five days.—Weldon News.

P. N. STAINBACK'S STORE.—We publish in this issue Mr. P. N. Stainback's advertisement. A reference to it will convince any one that it is profitable to examine his stock. He deals in dry goods, notions, clothing, hardware, groceries and such things and sells at bottom prices. His inventory stock is now and is constantly replenished. Mr. Stainback is a reliable man and his stock is well known. He is always on hand for men, ladies and children. He is also agent for the new Domestic Sewing Machines which are among the best. Call and examine his stock and you will be pleased.

JEWELLERY.—Jewelry.—Mr. L. G. Grady, of Halifax, returned home from New York on Tuesday. He was in that city for a week purchasing all the latest novelties in the way of jewelry, handsome presents for the holidays, plateware for the table and many articles for ornament. Mr. Grady always keeps a full stock of such goods on hand, but his recent purchases were all that has ever been brought to this country. His stock of watches and clocks is also complete being composed of every variety and price.

Repairing done to the newest manner and with dispatch. Articles to be repaired can be sent to him and he will repair again in a few days as good as new.

AMATEUR MARSHALS FOR THE NEXT FAIR.—A. Halley, Bailey's Ward, Chatham Co.; Dr. James Faison, Mt. Olive, Duplin Co.; Dr. Julian Baker, Tarboro, N. C.; B. C. Sharpe, Tarboro, N. C.; E. J. Hill, Kenansville, W. S. O. R. Robinson, Goldsboro; S. C. Smith, Goldsboro; Dr. H. W. Lewis, Jackson; J. C. McRae, Jackson; Wm. A. Jenkins, Warrenton; A. C. Zollinger, Henderson; James A. Beasley, Raleigh; E. C. Smith, Raleigh; E. B. Engelhard, Raleigh; F. D. Winston, Windsor; F. A. Williams, Halifax; J. E. Nichols, Aroost; James Blackwell, Durham.

A. D. Jones, Chief Marshal.

CLARK, N. C.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING AT RINGWOOD.—The Democratic candidates for the Legislature, Messrs. Clark, Dunn and Daniel, spoke at Ringwood on the 17th, according to announcement. Unfortunately no notice had been distributed in that township, but through the exertions of Col. Parker and the rest of the gentlemen who compose the Township Ex. Committee, there was gathered a crowd of about 200, to hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

Mr. Daniel led off in a speech of three quarters of an hour. Mr. Dunn followed and continued about the same length of time, and Col. Clark, our candidate for the Senate, closed the discussion. We hear that the people of Ringwood are fully aroused and we believe that they will do their whole duty on election day. If the white people of Halifax county will arouse themselves, it will go a long way to the general result and Emmett and our Judicial ticket will be triumphantly elected. We trust that, wherever these gentlemen speak, the people will go out in large numbers to hear the truth.

BADDER IN HEALTH.—nervousness, vertigo, freckles, etc., by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

FOR SALE.—A good store house on First street, suitable for any kind of business, in good repair. Remember there is no better stand in town for trade. Apply at News Office.

PERSONAL.—We gladly welcome to our town Mr. A. H. Davis, Jr., of Littleton. Mr. D. is living with Mr. P. N. Stainback, and will be glad to see his many friends.

Miss Mollie Alston, returned home from Virginia on Monday.

Dr. J. C. Jacobs, a well-to-do farmer and physician of Northampton county, will make Henderson his home after the first of next January. The Doctor has bought Capt. B. White's place near here and will operate it as a farm while he will have his residence in town. We learn that Capt. White expects to come to town to live also.—Gold Leaf.

Our young friend Mr. George Darby, who has been living with Mr. L. A. Farinholt, a short while, returned to Littleton, last Tuesday, to engage in the mercantile business with Mr. J. W. Libby, of that place.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—ARREST FOR MALPRACTICE.—James Scott, colored, died Sunday morning at his home on Wilcox street, of gangrene, which resulted, it is charged, from malpractice on the part of the person who attended him. The deceased had been sick for some days, during which time he was attended by "Dr. Shadrach Jones, colored, who it is alleged, treated him for one disease while he was suffering with another.

Dr. H. G. Leigh, Coroner, assisted by a Jury, held an inquest upon the body, yesterday, when the above facts were elicited. It was shown by the evidence of Dr. Harris and others, that Scott's death was the result of malpractice on the part of Dr. Shadrach Jones, and that his life would have been saved if he had been properly treated. It was also stated in the evidence that Dr. Jones is not a graduate of any medical college, and is not a licensed practitioner, and never studied medicine in any regular physician's office.—Index Appeal.

Jones was arrested. He lived here a while and practiced medicine among the ignorant negroes who had faith in him. Such men ought always to be taken up before they have done harm by their ignorant use of medicines.

LITTLETON ITEMS.—The Association passed off with much success, and was really a big time for Littleton. It was conjectured that there were 2,000 people in town on Sunday. There were several excellent sermons preached.

We paid the college a call the other day during our leisure moments. It is truly a handsome building. Mr. Rhodes is very much crowded now, but expects to be in the college soon.

The visitors to the Association were much pleased with Littleton and its near attractions. Some few bales of cotton are being sent from this section.

There is a great deal of sickness in the country around here, among both white and colored people.

We were much pained to learn of the death of one David Clarke at his home near the village. He will be greatly missed.

A Mr. Simmons (unknown to the writer) died at Sunny Side last week.

There are still a few health-seekers in the community. JACK.

THE FAIR.

GLASS BALL SHOOTING.—BICYCLE RACE AGAINST TROTTERING HORSES.—APPOINTMENT COMMANDERY KNIGHTS' TEMPLAR.—ENTRIES FOR THE RACES.

The Fair will be a grand success. Every thing indicates that a large crowd will be present and the various new attractions will be worth seeing. On Tuesday there will be a glass ball shooting match. Prizes will be W. and C. Scott breech-loading, hammerless gun.

Wednesday a Bicycle race, M. H. Amundson, the champion bicyclist of the world and W. J. Morgan, the long distance champion of America will give an exhibition of their skill on this new motion on the race track, and wonderful feats will be performed by these riders.

On Thursday there will be a grand masquerade display. The Appointment Commandery Knights Templar will give an exhibition parade in the full uniform of the order, which is alone worth a day's attendance to witness.

Their drill is remarkable, many different maneuvers and figures being made with the precision of machinery to the music of a magnificent brass band.

There will be trotting and steeple chasing every day during the Fair, programmes of which can be obtained on the grounds.

In addition to all these attractions, the fair will have a hall and a band of music for dancing, so that those who are fond of the dance and to engage in the poetry of motion will have every opportunity to gratify their taste without extra charge.

There will also be a loop each night in the large dining hall of the Davis House. These loops are not the least attractive part of Fair week and Col. Davis will exert himself to please all who attend. But all know his powers in this direction.

We give below the entries for some of the races which are already closed:

Five dash for two year olds Wednesday: D. H. Barlow enters Stormbird by Jennifer, Dan Winton.

Dr. L. L. Statten enters Berna, C. by Alarm, Dan Berocca.

E. L. Summerville enters Meta Capehart by Cal, Dan Belle.

H. J. Pope enters Bettie Mason, by Hatteras. Dr. J. A. Baker enters C. C. by Outcast.

Running races. One mile and repeat for 2 year olds, to be run on Friday.

C. H. Dunder enters C. C. by Bantam, by Narra-gansett, Dan Emily.

Dr. L. L. Statten enters C. C. by May Flower by Red Bird, Dan May Day.

D. H. Barlow enters Applejack by Jennifer, Dan Hope.

COMMUNICATED.

POOR HOUSE, HALIFAX COUNTY, N. C. October 18th 1892.

MESSENGER HALL AND SKEGOT. In giving a report of the proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners, at October term, relative to the report of the grand jury, to Judge McCoy you say the Board stated it had never given any instructions to the Superintendent to remain at the Poor House, when the Physician visited that institution. That is true, as a Board they never did. But the Chairman Mr. H. J. Hervey did request the Superintendent to be there whenever the Physician attended the Poor House, and so was stated to the Board, when this matter was being investigated. I think in justice to myself you should make the amendment.

Yours Very Respectfully,
W. W. CARTER,
Superintendent Poor House.

[The News did not intend to do Mr. Carter an injustice and very willingly publish the above by way of correction. Mr. Hervey did say that he probably might have told Mr. Carter it would be well for him to be present during the Physician's visits if convenient. ENDS.]
