

EDITORIAL BRIEVITIES.

Senator Edmunds' private law practice is worth $75,000 a year.

It is said that delirium tremens is now a fashionable madness among army officers idling around Washington.

Wiggins claims to have predicted the London earthquake, and he says there will be another about May 29.

The total number of votes in the Republican Convention at Chicago will be 820. Necessary to a nomination, 411.

Gen Sherman was offered a Brigadier Generalship in the Missouri militia recently, but he promptly declined.

A Western editor declares that he supports his reputation by publishing a newspaper and his family by sewing wood.

Gossips are making as much as possible of the alleged fact that Senator and Mrs Logan have leased their Chicago house for four years.

Speaker Carlisle and Congressman Randall are the two members of the House whose pictures are most sought after by photograph collectors.

The nomination of Mr. Blaine, if actually captured, says the Boston Herald (Ind.) will mark the beginning of the end of the Republican party.

William Pitts Kellogg's trial for being a star courier came up last week and Friday he was discharged because the statute of limitations barred the indictment.

Mr. Tilden will go to Greystone the latter part of the week for the Spring and Summer. He had intended to build a yacht this Summer, but will rent one instead.

Gen. Robert Tombs not only insists that the people of Georgia shall purchase Alex. Stephens' Liberty Hall, but he offers to endow it with money enough to convert it into a college.

North Carolina girls might do well to spend the Summer in Illinois. According to the report of the superintendent of schools there appears to be a superfluity of about 10,000 boys under 21 years of age.

The spring exodus of pleasure seekers has begun. New York papers say the outgoing steamers exhibit long passenger lists, which, at this early season, indicate that Europe is to have a larger portion of American patronage than ever before.

It is believed that Senator Anthony has gone home from Washington to Providence to die. He has been on his last legs for a long while past, though he rallied from his recent severe illness and has occasionally shown himself in the Senate.

The Boston Post (Dem.) displays at the head of its first page: "For President, Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware; For Vice-President, Joseph E. McDonald, of Indiana. Subject to the action of the Democratic National Convention."

A number of codfish were caught last week in Norfolk harbor. They were mostly young. This is a significant indication that the United States fish commission know what they were about when they first tried to acclimate this fish to the temperature of this latitude.

Frederic Douglas, who went from Washington to Pittsburg, in evident expectation of being chosen president of the inter State conference of colored men assembled there Wednesday, was defeated for temporary chairman, and a motion to allow him even to be heard evoked considerable opposition.

The latest in interviews is quite an advance. The New York World last week published an interview with Mrs Frank Leslie relative to her approaching marriage, and she talked about it as she would a new story or any other business connected with her establishment.

The Republican national convention will consist of 820 delegates. Of these the Southern States will have 300; the Northern States 502; the Territories and District of Columbia 18. The geographical divisions of the North will be represented as follows: New England, 76 delegates; Middle States, 156; Western States 270.

Mr. Holman thinks that the Morrison bill will pass the House; so do Messrs Carlisle, Morrison and Hurd, who mysteriously say that they have received satisfactory assurances to that effect. They have advised the representatives of newspapers friendly to the bill to assure their readers that it will pass the House before their adjournment.

When next the members of the grand old party gather within razor range of each other they should follow the example of that discreet colored republican of North Carolina, who, on being arrested the other day while preparing to fight a duel, was found surrounded by two overcoats, beneath which, and covering his breast, was an enormous plate of sheet iron.—Louisville Courier Journal.

- W. A. Dunn, $25.00

- W. A. Johnston, $25.00

Anyone desiring to subscribe can inform us and we will acknowledge receipt of their letters through this column.

The execution of Enosh Brown shows that the people of the county intend to see that the law is maintained.

It is the opinion in this section, and the ROANOKE NEWS joins in the belief, that the State ticket nominated at Raleigh by the Republicans and Liberals is about the weakest that could have been selected.

The Morrison tariff bill was defeated on Tuesday by a majority of 4. That great principle of Democracy and the Democratic party is done for the present. The Republicans will be wiser than the Democrats and adopt it as their own.

DR YORK, the Republican candidate for Governor is opposed to the Internal Revenue system and is reported to have refused to accept the nomination unless the platform contained a plank demanding its repeal. This is all right. But Dr. York is not so particular about the county government system. As a member of the Legislature, the record shows that he favored the present system and voted against a bill to elect Magistrates by the people, yet he does not say he is opposed to the system. The Republicans oppose it but they will vote for a man who, so far as his record shows, favors it.

MR. SECRETARY LINCOLN so far has no one opposing him for the second place on the Republican ticket and it is possible that he may be the winning dark horse for the first place. Fearing this a number of men in Washington have, it is said, issued a circular which is being secretly circulated among delegates. The circular disclaims any dislike of the man but points out the dangers of his nomination. It says it would be like a kind of aristocracy to nominate Mr. Lincoln because of his father's ability and popularity and winds up with a bit of sarcasm suggesting that if Lincoln is to head the ticket "Back Grant, General Grant's son, should be given the tail."

THE HOUSE POSTOFFICE committee has reported a postal telegraph bill favorably. It is very similar to a bill on the subject reported at this session in the Senate. The passage of the bill would afford cheap telegraph service, avoid the extension of Executive patronage and make the system self-sustaining. It makes all postoffices, in places where there is telegraphic service, postal telegraph offices, it fixes the maximum rates and provides a method of delivering messages; it provides for the sale of telegraph stamps and stamped paper, provides for a telegraphic money order system and authorizes the government to furnish instruments and room for operators at the postoffices.

The plan is to make a contract with existing telegraph companies to carry out the provisions of the law subject to the supervision of the Postmaster General and makes such company liable to individuals for neglect. It will probably become a law.

LOW TARIFF REPUBLICANS. The Republicans of Minnesota favor a free discussion of the tariff bill in Congress and demand a reduction of custom duties.

The Virginia straightouts favor protection and the improvement or abolition of the Internal Revenue, condemn Arthur and endorse Blaine and Lincoln.

Maryland Republicans resolved that any revision in the tariff that may be needed should be entrusted to the friends and not the enemies of protection.

The Republican Convention of Vermont approved protection but demanded a revision of duties on wools and wooleens and a reduction of taxation. It instructed delegates to vote for Edmunds.

The Republicans of New Hampshire held their State Convention on the 30th ult. The resolutions favor the reduction of duties on necessities of life and increase of those upon luxuries.

The Republican Convention of Maine passed resolutions approving the present Administration, endorsing Blaine's candidly, favoring a protective tariff and reaffirming their approval of prohibition.

The Republicans of Massachusetts in Convention assembled last week passed resolutions demanding the immediate reduction of the revenues by the lowering or abolition of tariff taxes on articles of universal use and necessity and on the staple raw materials employed in the manufactures. The Convention also pledged the party to do all in its power to secure the passage of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

THE MANUFACTURERS' REAL INTEREST. "The tax on raw material," says Mr. John Dobson, manufacturer of carpets and woolen stuffs, "cuts up our profit."

"We can make wooden goods in this country as they make them anywhere else," says Judge Hilton, who has shut down his wooleen mills employing ten or twelve thousand persons, "but there is no profit in it. The tariff on wool is too high."

MONCREL CONVENTIONS.

The Liberal Fall Dues the Wagging and Twists to a Ticket to be Beaten in November.

The Republican Convention met at Raleigh on the 1st instant and was called to order by Chairman J. J. Mott. He was loudly cheered.

The call for a Convention was read by Secretary J. L. Harris and a Committee on credentials was appointed. While the Committee was absent speeches were made by P. H. Winston Jr., Col. I. J. Young, W. A. Gilmer, J. E. O'Hara, W. A. Moore, R. M. Norment, G. W. Stanton and E. G. Haywood, Jr.

The Committee reported two contested delegations—from New Hanover and Mecklenburg. The delegates from New Hanover favorable to W. P. Cannaday were seated.

Col. W. H. Humphrey, of Wayne was made permanent Chairman and J. C. Dancy, colored, of Edgecombe, Chief Secretary.

A motion was made to appoint a Committee to confer with the Liberal Fall Meeting. It was opposed by J. J. Goodwyn, of Halifax, and others. General Manning, of New Hanover, desired to instruct the Committee to report a Republican for Governor but the Convention would not so instruct the Committee being appointed without any instructions as to candidates.

Thursday night four delegates at large were elected to the Republican National Convention they being J. J. Mott, J. E. O'Hara, J. H. Harris and W. S. Dockery. Alternates J. F. Hillon, W. W. Arrington, J. H. Young and J. O. Wilcox. They were not until Friday morning that the Conference committee reported. They reported without instructions the following ticket for the State offices:

For Governor—Tyrone Wilkes. For Lieutenant-Governor—W. T. Faircloth, of Wayne. For Attorney General—Chas. A. Cook, of Warren. For Treasurer—W. Duke, of Durham. For Auditor—E. M. Lawson, of Madison. For Associate Justice—D. L. Russell, of Brunswick. For Superintendent of Public Instruction—F. D. Winston, of Halifax. For Commissioner of Agriculture—W. R. Tull, of Madison. W. A. Moore, of Chowan.

It is said that the report was never either formally adopted or rejected, but Tyrone Wilkes was nominated by J. J. Young, and seconded by O. J. Spotts, J. E. O'Hara, and W. P. Cannaday, and he was nominated by acclamation. There were several objections. The Liberal Mass meeting has been variously estimated to number from twenty-five to fifty people. Col. Wm. Johnston, president. It put forth the following platform of principles which was adopted by the Republicans with some few minor changes, the Republicans endorsing President Arthur:

That the most precious boon granted by the Creator to a man is civilized government, and

Whence, such government cannot long be maintained unless based directly upon the will of society, freely expressed through the ballot, therefore ignoring party party affiliations, we most cordially invite all good citizens of North Carolina to cooperate with us in the present campaign on the following principles:

- 1. To abolish the present system of county government and restore to the people the right to elect their county commissioners, magistrates and other officers.
- 2. The immediate repeal of the internal revenue laws.
- 3. Such tariff laws as will not foster monopolies, but give all needed protection to American industries and labor.
- 4. That the bill, which has been passed by the United States Senate, for the distribution of $75,000,000 of the surplus funds of the National government among the States for the education of the masses, meets our hearty approval.
- 5. To eliminate from American politics, once and forever, all sectional strife and party hatred.
- 6. Equal political rights to all citizens.
- 7. That we cherish our great Republic as the hope of man, and under Providence the palladium of christian civilization.

The following is the Liberal Executive Committee:

- President—J. T. Repp, 2nd District.
- C. A. Cook, 3rd District.
- E. P. Powers, 4th District.
- T. P. Devereux, 5th District.
- J. H. Winston, 6th District.
- E. H. Dyer, 7th District.
- G. Baly, 8th District.
- H. H. Hubbard, 9th District.
- J. P. Candler, 10th District.

At St. Albans, N. H., the following are the names of those who have endorsed Blaine and Lincoln.

Mr. T. P. Devereux was elected Chairman. The Republican Executive Committee remains unchanged except that J. H. Montgomery was elected to fill the vacancy from the 2nd District.

ENTERPRISES IN THE STATE.

THE STATE PRESS.

Zelanda Baird Vance at the head of the State ticket for Governor, would add thousands of votes to the present Democratic majority. Notwithstanding the great good he accomplished in the senate, we need his name at the head of the State ticket.—Rocky Mount Reporter.

The newspapers last summer repeatedly called on Judge Pease to publicly deny that he had abandoned the Democratic party, but the Judge paid no attention to their demands, probably because he was not conscious of having done anything to cause his fidelity to the party to be doubted, hence, any denial would have been a work of supererogation. He now shows that he is right when he has been since the war. He does not show this, however, in a card to the newspapers, but in a quiet, legitimate way, as we learn from the Acres-Observer, by attaching the word convention of his party in the city of Raleigh and aiding in all good citizens should, in nominating candidates to be voted for on the day of election.—Newbern Journal.

POINTS IN POLITICS.

Hon. A. H. Merritt, of Chatham, has a following for Supremist of Public Instruction.

A Correspondent nominates Vance for Governor and Hughes for the second place.

The name of Capt. Swift Galloway has been mentioned as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

John J. Gelling, of Gates County, writes a letter saying he cannot consent to be a candidate for auditor, but thinks General Roberts is entitled to a renomination.

It is thought that Hon. W. T. Ditch will be the next Congressman from the Third District. He will make a most excellent representative.—Snow Hill Telegraph.

The order to visit us of Stateville held a meeting a short time since and resolved that we shall here forth support no party but the Republican, Liberal or what we may call party pledge itself to protect us at the ballot box and give us a fair representation in the political offices.

A correspondent of the State Chronicle proposes the following ticket: For Governor, Hon. J. A. Gilmer; Lieutenant Governor, Donald Bain; Secretary of State, W. L. Saunders; Public Auditor, R. M. Farnham; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Rev. T. H. Pritchard; Supreme Court Bench, Hon. Thos. S. Kenan; Attorney General, Hon. G. M. Rose.

UNIVERSITY NORMAL SCHOOL.

The next session of the University Normal will be held at Chapel Hill from June 17th to July 17th, 1884. The Board have been fortunate in securing the services of several distinguished instructors, and feel assured that the success and reputation attained in previous years will be maintained, but greatly increased the coming session, which gives promise of being the best ever held, and one of unusual interest and practical benefit to those who may attend.
