

THE ROANOKE NEWS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1864.

W. W. HALL, J. W. SLEDGE, PROPRIETORS.

BLAINE is not dead, but sheepish.

The salary of the Victory of India is $125,000 a year.

EDWIN BOOTH is building an old-fashioned tower on his Newport grounds.

GENERAL GRANT forgot to register at his New York home, and so lost his vote.

THE eloquent voice of Dan Voorhees, the tall sycamore "Wabash," will still be heard in the U. S. Senate.

EVER fellow that voted for Ben Butler ought to go out into some back yard and kick himself soundly.

JAMES MULLIGAN and "My Dear Fisher" contributed no little to the Democratic victory. Let (ters) us acknowledge it.

THE white people of the South will celebrate with more heart than ever before our National Thanksgiving Day, and justly for cause.

LINKS dedicated to Blaine: "How sweet it is to feel and know that you're the attraction of a busted show."—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

It is said that in a game of whist the cards may be distributed among the players in 53,644,737,765,488,793,838, 237,440,000 ways. The experiment is open.

THE most pathetic incident of the campaign is the cry of William Pitt Kellogg from Louisiana, that he has been counted and ballot-box stuffed out of an election to Congress.

Rum-filled walking-sticks are a new wrinkle with swell Northerners.—Such cock heads will no longer appear such senseless operation as it used to, but it will be much more suspicious.

THERE is a new way of keeping the boys straight in politics. An Illinois father mutilated the family Bible to make his son appear less than 21 and prevent his voting for the other party.

MR. DANA's great No did a good service to the country at last. It killed off the Butler movement by advocating it more effectually than even its bitterest enemy would have supposed it would.

THE history of the Democratic party is perhaps the most remarkable on record. It has preserved its organization under twenty five years of defeat, in cluding four years of war, and at last comes out victorious. We have great reason to be proud.

THE New York Tribune says that if the Rev. Burchard had said "Rum, Monomania and Rebellion" instead of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion" he would have been about right. We think that Whitelaw Reid knew that he was telling a lie when he wrote that paragraph.

WE regret Mr. Bonita's loss by the fire in Goldsboro. The Messenger was an institution which North Carolina cannot well do without. Mr. Bonita has already ordered a new press and will issue his paper at as early a day as possible. We admire his pluck and wish him God-speed.

MR. BLAINE after finishing the second volume of his "Twenty Years in Congress," may continue his literary labors by writing a sequel in which he can tell how he did not get the Presidency. Such a work would give prominence to Rev. Burchard, Whitelaw Reid, W. W. Phelps, Ben Butler and the Belmontic dinner.

CLEVELAND is the second citizen of New York who was ever elected President. The first was Martin Van Buren in 1836. Millard Fillmore was a New Yorker and so is President Arthur, but neither was elected President by the people. Kilgour was elected Vice President by the Whigs and became President by the death of General Taylor, while Arthur obtained the position in the lottery of assassination.

THE resolution which follows was adopted at a recent meeting of the people of Savannah, Ga., held to express their gratifications upon the election of Cleveland and Hendricks.

Readers, That we will welcome the day when there shall be no "Solid South" and no "Solid North" but a "Solid Union," and when all American citizens, white and black, native and adopted, at home and abroad, shall stand equal before the law, and be covered and protected by our country's flag.

NOTWITHSTANDING Mr. Cleveland will be President for four years from the 4th of next March, the Senate will have a Republican majority and will be a check on legislation. The Democratic House and a Democratic President will not have things all their own way, and no law, objectionable to the Republican party, or at least to its representatives in the Senate, can be enacted. We call the attention of the negroes to this fact. Some of them have been made to believe that they will be re-enslaved by the Democratic party. That party desires to do nothing of the kind and if they did not have the power, the negroes will be protected in all their rights as well if not better than they have been heretofore.

If you want a pair of spectacles to preserve your eyesight call on L. G. Grady Halifax, N. C.

MANY of the papers are discussing the make up of President Cleveland's Cabinet. The names most prominently mentioned are Ex-Senator Thurman, Mr. Randall, Senator McDonald and Senator Bayard. The South claims a representative too.

There is plenty of excellent material for a Democratic cabinet and Mr. Cleveland will doubtless exercise his own judgment in selecting his advisers. The Herald thinks that at least one independent Republican should be appointed and possibly this may be done.

The cabinet will be selected with a view to efficiency regard being had to territorial divisions as far as may be.

THE comic in the several counties in New York has ended and resulted in a plurality of 1,212 for Cleveland and Hendricks. The Republicans have claimed that State for Mr. Blaine ever since the election but on the official counts were compelled to acknowledge defeat. The vote was close but 1,212 plurality is just as good as 50,000. It will give Mr. Cleveland the thirty six electoral votes of New York which make his vote 219, eighteen more than enough to elect him. It is said that Mr. Blaine lays the blame for his defeat to Elkins, who had charge of his campaign; but it is probably as well to lay the blame where it justly belongs—upon the American people, who did not desire to place in power the representative of a party which has misgoverned the country for so many years.

CLOSE VOTE IN THE PAST.

President-elect Cleveland carries New York by nearly 1,300 votes. This is close in a State of five millions of inhabitants. But there have been close votes in the past. Henry Clay carried Tennessee against Polk in 1844 by but 113 votes. Morton was elected Governor of Massachusetts by one vote, we think. Washington Hunt was elected Governor of New York by less than 400. Myron H. Clark defeated Seymour for Governor of New York by less than 50. Hayes stole Florida and claimed it by 926. Hayes carried Nevada by 1,075. Oregon by 547 and South Carolina by 964. Grant carried Delaware by 422 and Virginia by 1,772. Greeley carried Maryland by 604. Seward carried Oregon by 164. McClellan carried Delaware by 612. Lincoln carried California in 1860 by 667. Douglas carried Missouri by 429. Breckinridge carried Maryland by 425, and North Carolina by 648. John Bell carried Virginia by 358. Pierce in 1852 carried Delaware by 25, Iowa by 307, Maine by 1,036, Michigan by 746, North Carolina by 637, Rhode Island by 465. Scott carried Vermont by 508. Polk in 1844 carried Indiana by 208, Louisiana by 699. Clay carried Delaware by 242, New Jersey by 692. Harrison in 1840 carried Maine by 217, Pennsylvania by 2. Van Buren carried Arkansas by 886. In 1836 he carried Louisiana by 270, Mississippi by 291, and Rhode Island by 254. Harrison carried New Jersey by 515.

Southern injuries in the past have been frequent. The large State of Pennsylvania went for Harrison by 2 majority and there was no equal, no attempt at fraud, no "visiting statesmen" interfering.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 7th, 1884.

The season is high when it is the yearly want of this people to observe a day appointed for that purpose by the president, as the special occasion for thanksgiving unto God. Now, therefore, in recognition of this hallowed custom, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby designate as such day of general thanksgiving THURSDAY the 27th day of this present November, and I do recommend that throughout the land the people, ceasing from their accustomed occupations, do then keep holiday at their several houses and their several places of worship, and with heart and voice pay reverent acknowledgement to the Giver of all good for the countless blessings wherewith He has visited this Nation.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington, this seventeenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and ninth.

(Signed) CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

FREDERICK T. FRELINGHUYSEN.

Secretary of State.

METALIC CASES E. A. Cuthrell keeps in stock all sizes and styles of Metalic burial cases and caskets and wooden coffins at lowest prices. Orders by telegraph receive prompt attention. He also keeps on hand for sale a lot of open and top buggies made by the celebrated Columbus buggy company. This is not cheap work often seen here but is of high grade. At Hart's old stand next door to J. T. Goodell.
