

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

Indiana's Legislature will be Democratic on joint ballot.

We will know all about it shortly after the 4th of March.

Fall returns are hard to get from parts of North Carolina. They have not all come in yet.

Harrison's own county gave a large majority against him, but he got there just the same.

It is predicted that Mr. Cleveland will enter public life again as a member of Congress in several years.

The Republicans now in office are said to be very uneasy about the probable disposition of them by Harrison's administration.

Forecasts are being made by a great many papers as to the make up of Harrison's Cabinet, but Harrison himself has not spoken.

It is reported that Harrison will not be led by the nose by any member or element of his party, but will run things to suit himself.

The New York Evening Post says stocks in the various "Trusts" have advanced since the election. They seem to know their friends.

The New York Herald is inclined to think that the Republicans whom Mr. Cleveland kept in office did the work for him. They worked and voted against him.

The Republicans of Washington, D. C., celebrated the election of Harrison and Morton Wednesday night by a parade which included between five and six thousand men.

President-elect Harrison will go to New York during this and the holidays, and while there will hold a conference with a number of the distinguished men of his party.

It is now said that the steamer Umbria was moving at full speed when she struck the Iberia, and the consignee of the latter proposed to have the matter thoroughly sifted.

Mahone says he can prove that the electoral vote of Virginia belongs to Harrison, and there is some talk of taking the matter to the supreme court which has a Republican majority.

Ninety-five counties and cities in Virginia heard from officials, out of 112 in the State, give Cleveland a majority of 3,963. The others will probably reduce the majority 1,000 or 1,200.

There is still doubt of the political complexion of the next House of Representatives. Both sides claim it by majorities ranging from one to five. The official returns will decide it.

Speaker Carlisle's majority in the Covington (Ky.) district for reelection to Congress is 6,051. A recount of the ballots shows that 7,502 were perforated. If these are thrown out Hamilton will have 1,451.

Miss Mary Endicott, daughter of Secretary Endicott, was married last week to the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, of England. The bride is twenty-five years old; the groom is fifty-two and has a daughter as old as his bride.

Attorney-General Tabor, of New York, and General Pryor have begun proceedings for dissolution of one of the sugar trust branches, known as the North River Sugar Refining Company, before Judge Barrett on the grounds that by entering the trust they have forfeited their franchise under State laws.

A valuable kind of cotton has been propagated by Mr. W. A. Cook, near Newman, Miss. Four years ago he began selecting seed from the best growers of land most prolific stalks, and this year he is offered 25 cents per pound for all he raised of this sort. The staple is said to be two inches long, fine and strong.

The New York Herald of a recent date devotes an entire page to the expression of opinions of prominent men upon the question of extending the term of office of the President of the United States to seven or eight years. It is claimed that the shrinkage in the internal commerce and business of the country during the past four months, traceable to the apprehension, excitement and other conditions dependent upon the Presidential campaign, amounts to not less than $500,000,000; and the Herald argues that this and other reasons advanced justifies the extension of the term of the Presidential office.

Among those quoted as favoring an extension are Chauncey M. Depew and Sidney Dillon, both of whom think six years about the proper length of time for which a President should be elected.

We have frequently of late years heard expressions from thinking men favoring an extension of the Presidential term to a longer term than four years. It would allow the country of frequent tension which disturbs business, but we are not yet prepared to favor such a scheme.

Age comes whether it is our custom or not. It is not a matter of choice. It is a natural law. It is not a matter of choice. It is a natural law. It is not a matter of choice. It is a natural law.

It now appears probable that General Harrison will immediately upon induction into office, call the members of the fifty-first congress together. His motive for this will be to arrange some plan for the reduction of taxation. There is no reasonable ground for the belief that any concurrent action upon the matter will be had at the session beginning in December next. To wait until the regular assembling of the fifty-first Congress, which will be Republican in both branches, would be to postpone the subject until the subject was well under way. In other words, a year and a half from the present time would necessarily elapse before a tariff bill acceptable to the administration could be passed.

General Harrison's friends say he will be unwilling to wait eighteen months before moving in a matter so important, and that the outlook therefore for an extra session is one which may be classed among the strong probabilities of the near future.

There seems to be a disposition on the part of some to fall into the error that Mr. Cleveland entertained the idea that Mayor Hoar, Mr. Grant and Governor Hill, of New York, are responsible for his defeat, and it has been charged that the President was bitter in his denunciation of the gentlemen in an interview at which Judge Becker, of Denver, and Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, were present.

Senator Blackburn denies absolutely such to be the fact and in many words comes to the rescue in the following words:

"In the hour of Mr. Cleveland's power I was not his cabinet," continued Mr. Blackburn, "in the hour of disaster I will not allow myself to be made an accomplice in his abuse. He has given this country a complete, faithful and able administration which stands out in bold and pleasing relief to what had preceded it. He may have made mistakes as a politician or party leader, but he made none in his honest effort to make good the pledges that he and his party had given to the American people to lighten their burdens and advance their best interests."

This is well said and we commend it to those who are disposed to find fault with the President.

It is always in order and is legitimate, to discuss matters of policy and expediency, but to stoop to fault-finding and prostration because of defeat is beneath the method and virtue of all good men.

Judge Becker stood in the light of the facts in the case being his head to be tormented by the consciousness of an act committed wrong.

Mr. Cleveland is a good man, and no assault of this kind can shake the confidence of the American people in his honest effort to be his great Republic.

AMISE AND RED AMI ACTUAL LEADER.

Now that we are well away from the election with its excitement, its disputes and its trials, we are at a point in the past following the contest to the work done by Democracy by the leaders and champions of the Democratic party. This work was admirably performed, indeed, in and throughout the country.

In North Carolina we instinctively turn to the leader of the Democratic hostlers at home, Chairman Whitaker, and are proud to say at once, well done, good and faithful service of the people.

For months Mr. Whitaker devoted his rare intelligence, his accurate knowledge of men and affairs, familiarity with politics solely to the cause of Democracy. He applied himself with a earnestness, a vigor, a boldness, a skill that has rarely before been surpassed in the history of North Carolina political contests. But it is not only the amount of his political warfare, but the most of his success in every part of it, that has made him a generally admitted leader.

He has been successful in his efforts with striking ability and with the money out completely some time before the day came for the victory to be decided.

He deserves the hearty thanks of the whole Democratic party. He is honored most faithfully and unhesitatingly. He has won the honors due the successful general who has shown courage, ability, boldness and energy on the field of battle.

Two years ago the State, on the legislative ticket, had practically given Republicanism. Working from this discouraging basis he has accomplished a victory that is under all the circumstances great. His self-sacrificing patriotism should be held in due regard and just remembrance by the Democratic party by all the good people of the State.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Backlin's Arnica Salve for four years. Have never had a hand ready that sell as well or give such universal satisfaction. There have some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of protracted Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters.

Sold by druggists at Weldon, by Brown & Caraway, Halifax, and by J. A. McGowan, Norfolk.

The News & Observer, in an article which we print elsewhere, pays a well-deserved tribute to the zeal and sagacity of Spier Whitaker, Esq., the efficient chairman. We endorse every word of it for he certainly is a wise and bold and able leader.

The world may be searched from pole to pole and no remedy found equal to B. B. (Bosque) Blood Balm for the cure of Rheumatism. It is a remedy founded on scientific method, knowledge, and reputation as a creative establishment by such two and unmediated testimony as are found in our columns from time to time.

FROM WARREN COUNTY.

JAMES' SCHEDULE, Nov. 23, 88.

"Nothing but leaves."

The farmers in this section have many leisure moments as the crops are short, and not much time is required for gathering them in.

Mrs. D. Mercer has been spending some time at her father's, but has returned to her home near Tazewell. Her visits are always enjoyed by her many friends.

Misses Lucy B. Jones, Pattie P. Jones and Sallie T. Fritchard, who have been visiting relatives and friends in and around Warren and Rialto, returned home last week. We are always glad to see back the missing links.

The Rev. J. W. Jenkins preached his last sermon for the Conference year at Shreve church on Sunday last. He is greatly beloved by our people, and we are anxious to have him back again next year.

There is a new Baptist church being erected on the Warrington road near this place.

Messrs. S. S. Rooks and Peter D. Jones left on Friday last to spend several days in London. Hope they will find it as attractive as it has proved to be to many others who have visited there.

Though we will have a Republican President, we rejoice in the fact that our Government is now in the hands of the Old North State.

We notice that the NEWS is very popular, and wish it much success. We send them from our section as often as we can.

INFERIOR COURT CLERK.

I wish to bring the name of W. C. Thorne, of this city, to the attention of this Court as a candidate for Inferior Clerk, in the vacant office created by the death of G. L. Heyman. Mr. Thorne's qualifications cannot be better acknowledged than by giving him the office. To him more than any other man in this County is due the honor of the Democratic party in the election. He is fully qualified and will make a clerk that the county will be proud of. The justice cannot make a better selection and I hope will elect Mr. Thorne by acclamation. J. S. Coy.

Ringwood, Nov. 19, 1888.

A FINANCIAL CRASH.

FAILURE OF THE BANK OF DURHAM—LIABILITIES ESTIMATED AT $100,000.

The Bank of Durham made an assignment on the 14th inst. Several of the largest business establishments are involved. The list of the failures is as follows: Bank of Durham a State bank, owned by W. F. Blackburn, liabilities estimated at $100,000; J. J. Parnell, banking house and manufacturer of smoking tobacco, $100,000; J. W. Blackburn and J. W. F. Ellis, dry goods, $100,000; Young's Store, dry goods, $100,000; Burns & Suggs, dry goods, $50,000.

It is believed that in every instance the assets were more than equal to the liabilities. The amount in each case of assignment of the bank is the fact that the institution had a heavy one of deposits, and the North bank is said not to get up.

It is stated that Mr. Blackburn will be able to pay all creditors in full. The assets of the bank remained outside this morning and notice being passed thereon stating that all the creditors would be paid in full for $100,000. There has been no run on the other Durham banks, all of which assure the public that they are ready to meet all demands. J. S. Coy is believed to have been affected very slightly, if at all, by the assignment.

Raleigh is not affected in the least. No bank individual there will suffer. The assignment of the bank was the cause of other assignments. It is not supposed that the crash will prove particularly bad to Durham, as it is believed all the homes involved will be able to pay all their liabilities and have a surplus remaining, and will resume business at an early day.

APRIL MARCH 1.

Washington, Nov. 23, 1888.

The President's future plans are still undetermined. It is believed that he will spend one or two years traveling in Europe, which he has never visited.

It is stated in the very prime of life, he will leave the White House at the end of $75,000,000 when he has not $100,000,000.

Moreover, Mrs. Cleveland through the division of the Robinson estate in Ohio, is an heiress in her own right and is probably worth not less than half a million dollars. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland would prefer a few years of foreign travel as a pleasant foundation of their White House experience before settling down to the quiet of every day life, and for this reason the European trip is regarded as among the strong probabilities.

Colonel Lyman, as has already been stated, will locate in New York in the employment of a life insurance company, at a salary of at least $10,000 a year.

Secretaries Whitney and Fairchild will both return to New York and engage in the practice of law.

Attorney-General Garland is also considering a proposition to make his future home in New York.

Misses Radford, Dickinson, and Viles, all of whom are lawyers, will return to their respective homes and resume the practice of their profession.

Secretary Bayard has not decided whether he will remain in Washington or return to Wilmington and practice law, but it is believed that he will adopt the latter course.

Judge Hawkins, the Assistant Secretary of the Interior, will retire to his farm near Cape Girardeau, Mo., and spend the remainder of his days in the quiet and seclusion of pastoral life.

PERSONAL.

Mr. N. H. Frolichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Also tried Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee.

Trial bottles free at any drug store.

CAROLINA CULLINGS.

Two new Baptist churches in Durham are talked of.

Pensions warrants will be issued by the 15th of December.

Some farmers in Stokes are flooding their high tobacco as a preventive of cholera.

Colonel W. P. Caraway says Harrison's administration will be liberal, moderate, etc.

It is said that Joshua B. Hill will again become United States Marshal for the Eastern district.

Work on the Durham and Northern Railroad is being pushed rapidly. The track laying is nearly completed.

The latest proposition noted in railroad circles is to extend the Roanoke Southern railroad from Winston to Charlotte.

Granville county has now seventy-four miles of railroad. There was not an inch of track in the same territory less than two years.

The vote of the so-called third party in the State fell for the short of expectation. It is now thought that it will not go over three thousand.

The head and chief of the angles in and about Elizabeth City is Guy Sawyer, a deaf mute whose business and support is fishing with hook and line.

The convicts in the penitentiary, and on the various railroad turnpikes, etc., have reached about thirteen hundred. There are only seven women among them.

A full-blooded Cherokee Indian was last week put in the penitentiary. He is Tom Chisholm, and he had murdered and robbed another Indian. He is 20 years of age.

On February the 18th, 1889, the doors of the State University will be opened to teachers who desire to take special courses of instruction. For further particulars apply to Hon. Kemp P. Battle, President.

During the administration of Rev. Sam Jones in Durham, the citizens paid him $2,000 in cash, paid the leader of the singing $100 and gave $400 for "Sam Jones' Orphanage," besides paying $100 for the expenses of the meeting.

A large force of laborers is rapidly being organized in the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad between New Bern and Morehead City. In ninety days, at most, the work will be completed, and the road will be in better condition than ever before.

Charlotte Democrat. The question of forming a Western North Carolina Conference is being agitated. Dr. R. N. Price, of Hargett, has opposed the movement, but he says it is worthy. Our Conference is becoming too large to be entertained by our towns.

The presidential board appointed in September last by the Christian denomination of North Carolina to locate their office has chosen Graham, Alamance county, as the site, that place having offered the best inducements in the way of an eligible lot. The building will commence early next spring.

Wilmington Story. There is a colored woman living on Brunswick street, named Mattie Statley, who claims to be 115 years old. She says she joined Front Street M. E. Church, when Rev. James Anderson was pastor in 1816; that her husband, Ben Statley, died in 1870, aged 107 years.

Charlotte Chronicle. The opportunity that offers itself to North Carolinians at the present time to make known their charms as a winter resort, and to attract to its mountains and moor the stream of tourists and invalids who have been accustomed to go to Florida for the cold weather season, is appreciated by wide-awake people living further North.

It is thought that the Supreme court will soon take a recess, adjourning over all its most important business until the spring term, when the two additional judges, provided by the constitutional amendment, will take their seats. The court has perhaps been the hardest worked judicial body in the South for the past few years. The adoption of the amendment will afford a great relief, not only to the judges, but to many whose cases have been long lying up awaiting decisions.

Goldboro. There has been such a run on the large supply of ice that the Goldboro Ice Factory packed away in its warehouses for the season of its suspension that already the company are making arrangements to start the factory again. This speaks well for the trade of this enterprise, which extends now, we are told, over nearly the entire State. And by reason of Goldboro's unexcelled railroad facilities all sections of the State are contiguous to our factories.

RHEUMATISM.

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pain and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

FOR INFERIOR COURT CLERK.

Enfield, N. C. Nov. 19, 1888.

EDITORS ROANOKE NEWS.—With good reason, the sentiment of a very large majority of the people of this section is in favor of the election of W. C. Thorne to the clerkship of the Inferior court.

Yours &c. X X

NORTHAMPTON.

NEWS AND MATTERS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY, COLLECTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE ROANOKE NEWS.

J. A. RAMSAY, MANAGER.

Mr. James A. Ramsay, of Seaboard, is the Agent of the Roanoke News in Northampton County, and is authorized to make contracts and receive orders for advertisements and subscriptions. Communications addressed to him will receive prompt attention.

Thanksgiving today week. News is very scarce since the election is over.

Will our merchants give holiday on Thanksgiving?

Drummers have been scarce in Seaboard this week.

The Rev. T. O. Edwards has been returned in the Garysburg circuit.

Mr. Edwards did not fill his appointments either at Pleasant Grove or Seaboard last Sunday.

Several young men from this town and surrounding places are going to Franklin and Suffolk, Va., to obtain work.

Mr. Millard C. Manning and lady left Seaboard last Monday for Richmond where they will spend a few days.

Mr. J. A. Burgess and his associates in the feather renovating business left Seaboard last Sunday for Hillsboro, N. C. Our best wishes attend them.

The cholera is again playing havoc with what few swine there are in this community. Capt. J. T. Gay has already lost over half his hogs, that he intended for pork.

We once more earnestly appeal to all delinquent subscribers to the Roanoke News to pay their bills. It is our duty to forward and settle up their accounts as long as indulgence can be given.

Tom DeLoach, colored, one of Kay's reliable, who resides near Mangroveville, has gone crazy over the election and became so a terror to the good citizens of Mangroveville that they telegraphed for Sheriff Stancil who captured him and confined him in Jackson Jail.

Who will be tax collector for Northampton? is now a question that is agitating the public mind. It does seem to us that some reliable man could be found who would give the required bond and collect the taxes for the entire county instead of having a doctor for every township as was the case last year.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me by their own kind of Hood's, but before the clerk would let me buy it I asked him if it was the same as the one that I had bought before. He said that if it did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. Hood taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I was taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in much pain. Hood's Sarsaparilla did not so much as to make me feel any better, but it cured me in a few days. I feel like I know what Hood's Sarsaparilla is. Hood taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.
