LOVER OF GAMBLING AND

DE A MAN OF HIM.

One of the happiest families in Batte county to-day is a young miner, a devoted wife and a baby just budding into talkativeness, says the Inter-Mountain, of that place. The couple were married in Butte, and theirs was a wedding with a romantic story connected with it.

The young man, whose name is William-, became enamored of Miss Nellie-about three years ago, and the affection was mutual, so that in a short time they were engaged. The wedding day was conveniently fixed after "pay day," for the young man had nothing but a wealth of love and steady employment and the girl was living with relatives who kept a boarding-house and she was only meagerly paid for her work. William had a failing, that of gambling, and occasionally getting drunk. Pay day came and the anxiety of the girl increased, but the lover had the ceremony postponed until next pay day. Thus it went on for three months, and after paying his board bill the young man contributed what he had left to King Faro."

Another month went slowly by, the young man swearing beforehand that they should be married next time, and said he would come to her as soon as he was paid. She waited but he did not come. She put on her hat and cloak and started down town. She walked up and down the street in front of the gambling houses several times, and at last met a friend whom she asked to look through the different places and see if her intended was in there. PETERSBURG & WELDON R. R.

He was found and brought out by his DEPART. friend. He had already lost his month's earnings. "Well, you promised that we would be married to-day," she said, pleasantly. "But I am broke, Nellie; haven't MY PRESCRIPTION got a penny," despondently answered the young man. She took his arm and they walked on a few steps. "Well, I have, and we shall go right now, get the marriage license and be married right away." "What!" exclaimed the young man, do you mean to say you are going to get the license and pay the preacher?" "That's exactly what I mean."

The Surest Remedy

For indigestion, costiveness, and sick-headache is Ayer's Pills. The harsh, drastic purgatives, once deemed indispensable to a "thorough cleaning out" of the system, have given place to milder and more skilfully-prepared laxatives. Foremost among these are Ayer's Pills. Being composed of the essential principles of the most effective cathartics, without calomel or any other injurious drug, no ill effects ever follow their use. For this reason, these Pills are everywhere recommended as the best family medicine. Their sugar-coating makes them easy to take, and preserves their medicinal strength in any climate and for an indefinite length of time.

"I was a sufferer, for years, from chronic dyspepsia and liver troubles, and found no permanent relief until I commenced taking Ayer's Pills. They have effected a complete cure." - G. W.
