THE ROANOKE NEWS, Weldon, N. C.

THE ROANOKE NEWS.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1893.

AGENT AT ENFIELD.—Mr. S. Meyer is the authorized agent of the ROANOKE NEWS at Enfield and vicinity and any business with the paper can be transacted with him.

LOCAL.

Cool weather. PAY for your paper. THE old year is dying. WORRY makes widows. GET your turkey ready. A hard winter is predicted.

CORSETS are made for men. INDIAN summer is gone at last. IT will soon be hog killing time.

THE 30th is Thanksgiving day. TRAVEL South shows no increase. OYSTERS are excellent this season. WORK is a great antidote for woe.

COAL and overcoats are in demand. EVEN a whispered word may touch the heart. IT is time you were paying for your paper.

THE hunters are enjoying themselves finely. "HEADLIGHT" is a new name for whiskey. THE next thing to look forward to is Christmas.

COTTON was selling at 7 1/2 on our streets yesterday. THE farmers are going over the cotton the last time. THE yelp of the turkey gobbler is heard all around.

LOOK after your flowers, and give them needed protection. NOVEMBER came in like a lamb and will go out with a turkey.

FIFTEEN girls out of sixteen have but one aim in life—marriage. OUR friends will help us very much if they will pay up their subscriptions.

THE "Golden Wedding" is the name of one of the newest chrysanthemums. NOW is the time to advertise your business, and this paper is the right medium.

"WHAT sort of pose do you think a girl likes best?" "Why, propose, of course." IT is said that rich people live longer than poor ones. Of course, they can afford to.

THE cold wave season is fast approaching and skating on the canal will delight the hearts of many. IF you have not dropped in this week and settled for your paper, do so before the next week has gone.

IT is rare that any cases of importance comes before the Mayor now. The town is quiet and law abiding. GOVERNOR CARL has issued his proclamation appointing Thursday, November 30th, as Thanksgiving Day.

THE reign of the chrysanthemum this season surpasses anything ever before known in the history of that flower. THOU art bearing hence thy roses, Glad summer, fare thee well, Thou art singing thy last melodies, In every wood and dell.

GOOD HOTEL.—The Southern Hotel at Halifax is kept by Mr. D. D. Bryan, and the judges, lawyers and every body stops with him. He is polite and attentive to the wants of his guests and his table is always supplied with the very best the market affords. He is a hotel keeper right.

MEETING OF MEDICAL SOCIETY.—Dr. W. O. McDowell will read an interesting paper before the Halifax County Medical Society at its meeting to be held here the first Wednesday in December next. The paper will be of interest to every practitioner in this county and it is to be desired that as many as possible will attend the meeting.

SHUT THE DOOR.—You hear it constantly. People feel the draught's but they never think of the over drafts upon nature which impair the digestive organs, and makes the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator necessary to effectually move the liver to action, and aid the digestive and assimilative powers of the body. The Regulator is the medicine for all disorders of the stomach. Try it and be convinced.

MARRIED.—Mr. P. W. Squire and Mrs. A. F. Whitehead were united in the holy bonds of matrimony yesterday afternoon at Green Plains, Va. The happy pair arrived here on the Atlanta Special and were tendered an elegant reception at the residence of Mr. P. N. Stainback last night. The bride's sisters, Miss Minnie and Kate Drewry, accompanied them to Weldon. We extend our congratulations and wish them a long life of happiness.

FINE STOCK FOR SALE.—Mr. H. S. Harrison, of Medoc, offers to every lover of fine stock an opportunity to purchase some really fine blooded colts, fillies and brood mares. He is overstocked and offers to dispose of a portion of the valuable stock on his farm at Medoc to make room, and every one desiring to possess improved, registered stock should give him a call at once. The opportunity is offered right now and you should embrace it before the lot is disposed of.

NEW STORE.—A new broom sweeps clean, and a new store will always draw customers. In this connection we take pleasure in calling attention to the new clothing and furnishing store of M. Fredlander, at Mrs. Biggerstaff's old stand in the bottom. He has a good stock and correct prices. He offers some very great bargains in overcoats and suits and an inspection of his stock is invited. He carries shoes, hats, and other goods and will sell as close as the stringency of the times demand.

INTERESTING MEETINGS.—Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Warrenton is assisting the pastor in a series of most interesting meetings at the Baptist church this week. Mr. Taylor preached a powerful sermon Monday night. His subject was, "the open door." Tuesday night he chose for a subject, "the greatest question in the world," and delivered another very fine sermon. Much interest is being manifested and quite a number have signified by their actions that they desire to turn away from the paths of sin. Mr. Taylor will be here during the week and a cordial welcome is extended to all to take part in the services.

DAVEPORT & MORRIS.—Among all the large grocery establishments at Richmond none can eclipse the firm whose name stands at the head of this article. The name of Daveport & Morris is a tower of strength and reliability. Every one acquainted with them knows that as to quality and prices they are head-quarters. Ample capital and a thorough knowledge of their business places them in a position to give to the retailer goods absolutely pure and at the lowest minimum of cost. We advise our friends to give them a trial, feeling assured that they will be well treated.

A. SAKS & Co.—No other house ever did—ever can—or ever will offer such sterling values, is the motto of Richmond's great outfitters, and it's true. Their splendid establishment is crowded daily with busy shoppers, and every one receives the most polite attention. The manager of the Richmond house is Mr. Gans and in all the world a better selection could not possibly have been made. It is a real pleasure to meet gentlemen of his style, and visitors to the Old Dominion's beautiful capital should not fail to visit the beautiful store of Saks & Co. They have one price for all, and that the very lowest.

A CHILD ENJOYS.—The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is well known, and MAD DOG.—About three weeks ago a dog on the farm of Mr. S. N. Birdsong, who lives near town, began to act rather strangely and bit his hand, but did not break the skin. The dog also bit two other dogs, a calf and a hog. In a short time the calf and the hog went mad, and would fight and bite at every object within reach. Mr. Birdsong had the dog, the calf and the hog killed. The two dogs which were bitten have not yet showed any signs of hydrophobia but they have been confined and it is more than probable that they will also go mad. There are entirely too many worthless dogs in the county and a general dog killing would benefit the people generally.

SERVICES SUNDAY.—Sunday was a pleasant day and all the churches were well attended. The Baptist church held three services during the day, morning, afternoon and evening. A series of meetings are going on and much interest is felt in them. Services are being held every night during the week. Rev. J. A. Green occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church and preached morning and evening to good congregations. The evening service at the Episcopal church were conducted by Rev. Mr. Vanderbogart, of Rocky Mount, and a good congregation was present to take part in the services. A congregational meeting will be held in this church Sunday night, immediately after service, to which all are invited.

AN EAST INDIA LECTURE.—Rabbi John Sergius, a native of East India, lectured in the Methodist church here last Thursday night on the customs and habits of the people of that distant land.

His lecture was humorous and while the audience, which was very cultured and refined, could not understand the broken English of the speaker very well, yet they enjoyed it immensely. He gave a history of the "wild people who live in trees," the black Jews, the white elephant, and the flying snakes. He also gave a song in Hindoo and Samaritan language in conclusion, which we suppose was very good. His work is in the interest of orphan children of his native land, and a collection was taken up for their benefit. Mr. Sergius, or Rabbi John Sergius, has hundreds of testimonials from well known ministers all over the country, and is very highly spoken of.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining dead in the postoffice at this place: C. F. Mahuke (2), G. F. Merritt, Miss Hester Roberts, Mrs. Batis Thompson, Stanford Thompson, Simon Woodworth, Pollice Williams, Nathan Walton, E. D. Ward, Mason Williams, Jesse Williams, Miss Lizzie Young, Joe Stochman, G. F. Smith, Virginia Smith, G. D. Slidmore, Frank Smith, Barney Smith, Melissa Pryatt, Malise Pernie, Geo. Pigford, Luvencia Price, Fannie Price, Henry Pitts, Ave Nicholson (3), William Burgers, Mollie Little, Merritt Lee, Henry Long, Mary Johnson (2), Granville Jones, Willis Jackson, Hattie Jones, Mary Hand, Eunice Green, Emma Green, (2), C. Gary, Phillips Edwards, D. R. Dew, T. J. Dreyer, J. W. Charles (2), Peter Clandy, W. H. Bower, Martin Harris, Mary J. Brown, Jack Blackwell, Eiter Bordis, Carolina Burden, Wm. Bradley.

RINGWOOD NOTES.—Our Ringwood correspondent sends the following items: Mr. C. A. Williams is still ahead in tobacco. His manager, Mr. J. W. Cole sold 4500 pounds at an average of fifty cents per hundred. He is the best tobacco raiser in our midst, having made four crops in succession without a single failure. Mr. H. S. Harrison carried up six fine young horses to Captain Williamson's blooded stock farm this week. They will command good prices being of the first stock.

Isiah Jones, an old colored man and a former servant of the late W. H. Jones died here last Thursday. He was a polite and accommodating man and it is to be hoped he has entered the home of the blest. Rev. Gaston Battle preached an eloquent and impressive sermon at St. Clement's church in this place last Sunday. Miss Mamie Wyche, one of Rocky Mount's charming young ladies, has been visiting Mrs. H. S. Harrison.

The slave to Tobacco or Opium need no longer despise himself for his weakness Hill's Chloride of Gold Tablets will break his chains and make him a free man. All druggists sell them.

The Thanksgiving turkey now begins to roost high. Several pieces of carpeting at cost. The M. F. Hart Co. Big bargains in clothing. The M. F. Hart Co.

BUTLER AT ENFIELD.

HE SPEAKS TO A SMALL CROWD, AND INDULGES IN THE SAME OLD ABUSE OF THE TWO GREAT PARTIES.

Marion Butler, the leader of the Third party in this state, addressed a crowd of about one hundred and fifty at Enfield Thursday last. As leader of the fusionists, of course, there was more or less of abuse of the Democratic and Republican parties. Mr. Butler is a very good speaker, the only trouble is he is on the wrong side of the fence and it is very questionable if his party could give the desired relief were it in power. He argued in favor of the control of the railroads and the other corporations by the people. He advised his hearers to pull out from the old parties and to stand by the platform of the new party which he said was the party of the people, and the true Jeffersonian party. His speech was listened to with polite attention by all, but it is doubtful if he made a single convert. The fact is the farmers of this county are fast learning that if they would be prosperous they must stay at home and raise supplies for their families. The government will not put a grain of corn in their cribs or a pound of meat in their smoke houses. It is all well enough for politicians to speak, but it is infinitely better for the farmer to attend to the cultivation of his farm. Every one should have an opinion of his own, and we condemn no man because his political faith does not run in the same channel with ours, but the intelligent farmers of this county have heard speeches enough. They know how to vote and when the time comes they generally vote right.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN BY OUR REPORTERS. Judge Hoke was in town Monday. Senator Ransom spent last Sunday in Weldon. R. O. Barton, Esq., of Raleigh, was in town Monday. Capt. R. B. Peebles, of Jackson, was in town Monday. Mr. W. P. Batchelor, of Raleigh, was in town Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nowell spent last Sunday in Raleigh. Capt. Day went down to Norfolk Monday on professional business. Mr. H. G. Roe, of Richmond, was among the visitors here Sunday. Miss Kate Long has returned home from Chicago and the World's Fair. Mr. J. M. Maule, of Petersburg, is attending court in this county this week. Dr. L. E. Green left Tuesday, for Raleigh, to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors of the penitentiary. THE katy dids have ceased to sing. The leaves are brown and red, The wild geese now is on the wing, Old winter's almost here. PREVENTION IS BETTER.—Thou cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, as for every form of scurf, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system. Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.

HOW TO TELL IT.

In order to tell a genuine 25 cent piece the genuine 25c has thirteen stars, thirteen letters in the scroll held in the eagle's beak, thirteen marginal feathers in each wing, thirteen tail feathers, thirteen parallel lines in the shield behind the eagle's breast, thirteen arrow heads, and thirteen letters in the words "quarter dollar."

SUPERIOR COURT.

JUDGE BYNUM PRESIDING.—THE GRAND JURY AND OTHER MATTERS OF INTEREST.

The November term of the Superior Court for this county began at Halifax Monday, Judge Bynum, presiding. The Judge did not arrive at Halifax until three o'clock in the afternoon, consequently jurors, witnesses and suitors tramped around in the rain and mud for many hours awaiting the arrival of His Honor, Judge Bynum opened court immediately on his arrival, and proceeded at once to draw the grand jury, which is as follows: B. F. Tillery, foreman; W. T. King, J. H. Abbrook, B. V. Batts, W. H. Sykes, W. B. Boseman, T. C. Jenkins, George A. Stevenson, C. H. B. Howerton, E. C. Warren, J. H. Pair, L. E. Griffin, L. Vinson, Anthony Heckaday, J. H. Heppinstall, W. T. Herbert, G. W. Pettit and E. H. Davis. The Judge's charge to the grand jury, was plain, clear and forceful. He told the grand jury that he would not talk to them for the sake of hearing himself talk, that what he would say would be brief and to the point, and that when he said a thing he would not repeat it. He reminded them of their duty in regard to examining the county jail, said that nine out of ten grand juries would report a jail in good condition when really it was not. He wanted the grand jury before him to do their duty. If the jail was not in proper order present, the jailer, if he was responsible, if the sheriff was responsible, present him, and if the county commissioners are responsible, present them. He pointed out their duty in all presentments and in examining witnesses in all cases. The Judge consumed about an hour in his charge and immediately after the grand jury retired, court adjourned until Tuesday morning. Tuesday morning court met at nine and a half o'clock, and the following cases were disposed of: James Hedgepeth, assault and battery, guilty. J. W. Green and Catherine Hedgepeth v. a. not guilty. Capt. W. H. Day appeared for the defendants and Solicitor White represented the State. The most important case which was called Tuesday was that of the State vs. Isaac A. Sugg, Jr. for the killing of M. H. James at Hobgood last June. Young Sugg, who is still in knee pants, was arraigned and pled not guilty. The case attracted much attention, owing to the prominence of the families. The boy's father, Col. I. A. Sugg, is in court with his son. Capt. W. H. Day and Mr. W. A. Dunn will appear for the defendant and the State will be represented by the Solicitor. A special venire of fifty men have been summoned and the case will be called to day at 10 o'clock.

How sad to our hearts are some scenes of our childhood, As our recollections present them to view. The use of the switch that was brought from the whitewood, And various punishments most of us knew. But saddest of all is the thought of the pill box, That mother brought out when she thought we were ill. O! the gripping, the aching, the twisting and torment, Wrapped up in the horrible old-fashioned pill.

But that's all done away with. To regulate the stomach, liver and bowels, Dr. Pierce's Peppermint Cure. You'll experience no pain, no discomfort, no bad results. Children take them as readily as pepper-unt drops. Its thousands of cures are the best advertisement for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. 50 cents; by druggists.

WAY up the saline river Hear that mournful sound, Again the democrats are gathered, Tuning on the old camp ground.
