Tuts campaign in New York must be for David B. Hill the last throw of the dice for 1896. He declared in his address t) the convention that the state could be carried for the democracy. He aspires roads will not allow their employee to the presidency. Cleveland was asked wear ruser shaes while on duty if he had anything to say concerning the nomination of Hill for governor of New G. Latta director in the In-ane Asylan York and replied: "I am not in touch with the political situation in New York, but no doubt the convention has done the best thing possible."

WHEN the lamented and beloved Vance was a candidate for Governor, in 1876, made deathly sickly by drinking coffee in he and Judge Fowle were not even on which an ear-wig had been accidentally speaking terms, yet that great orator and boiled. lover of constitutional liberty stumped the State for Vance, and all the way down from the lofty peaks of the blue ridge to the saudy beach of old occan his splendid voice was heard in favor of Vance, Democracy and constitutional liberty. Let every Democrat in the State go and do likewise.

THERE is a great deal at stake in the coming election. Democrats must present a solid front. We cannot forget the days | Chief Justice. He can't swallow Fairof Republican rule in this county when her script was not worth ten cents on the dollar. Today, under Democratic rule, Halifax county's paper is worth dolhar for dollar and is just as good as the gold. Shall we continue to have good government? win in the approaching struggle by a united and determined effort.

It would be well, however, to caution them not to underestimate the strength and the purpose of the Rep. Pop. combination. It is best for us to look the is suce squarely in the face, recognize the fact that we are confronted by a dangerous conspiracy, put every Democrat upon his mettle and then victory will be ours. We can lose nothing by overestimating the strength of the "co-operative limited" lief that we have a walk over.
