THE NEW TIMES.

Old times will come no more,
However sweet and bright;
We've said goodby and shut the door:
So still, "Goodby—goodnight!"

But new times
And true times,
The distant sky adorning
Are bright times
And light times;
So bid new times good morning!

Old times will come no more,
With all their wrong or right;
There is a seal upon the door,
And we have said good night!

But new times—
God's true times,
His happiest skies adorning,
Are our times—
All flower times:
So bid new times good morning!
—Frank L. Stanton.

A Shrewd Mother.

THE PLAN SHE EMPLOYED TO MARRY OFF HER SIX DAUGHTERS

A fond mother tells how she married off her six daughters:

"I did it," she says, "with the frying pan, a cozy fire and cushioned chair. There, now, you have the whole story," confessed the lady. "I would have every one of those girls on my hands this minute if I hadn't found them husbands out of my cookery book. Despising an old maid as I do a smoky chimney, when my eldest girl was full grown I turned right and left for some means of marrying her. Mary was neither very handsome nor very lively, so I knew better than to trust to luck. So I just set to work and determined on a plan that has never miscarried with any of them.

"All my life I have made close observations of men's ways, and have heard great stories of the happy results of feeding the sex. So I looked carefully over the field and picked out a pleasant, thriving young fellow, whose habits were good and his heart whole. I began by asking him in a friendly manner to call. Then I led the conversation around to his mother, the way he had been nurtured and what he most cared to eat in general. I never missed a word, and after the first visit we got him to drop in to tea on Sunday evening. Then, you may be sure, I did my best, and when the second meal was over I knew the yearnings of that man's appetite better than he did himself.

"My calculations seemed to believe it best to start toward the close of the year. Spring is no good. A man loves all womankind at that season; his appetite is slight. In my experience, courtship started in November lead, as a rule, to a wedding in May. Of course, my chief reliance is in tempting food, but I would always advise supporting the liberal table with a big comfortable rocking chair, drawn facing a cheerful fire. Speak of it as 'this chair,' and you won't make any mistake.

"Another thing—don't be too pressing. A steady eye and a light hand count more than nagging. I was always careful not to gush, but if I had apple fritters on Tuesday, I apologized for their poorness and begged him to drop in on Thursday and let Mary redeem her mother's reputation with some particularly appetizing dish. In the evening I had her trained to sit in a low sewing chair under the big lamp, and either darn socks or hem dusters. When he spoke of her I said I trembled at the awful blow it would be for us if she should marry and go away. This kind of thing was kept up until February 1st, when my gentleman began to feel easy and snug, like one of the family.

"Then came the delicate moment, for just at this point I would introduce some silly dandy that neither I nor Mary would have looked at. But I coddled that youngster, had him to tea on the same night as regularly and waited to see what would happen. The ruse always succeeded. He and Mary would come blushing to ask if they might have each other, and while they made up in the parlor I looked my cookery book up to see my way to another son-in-law."

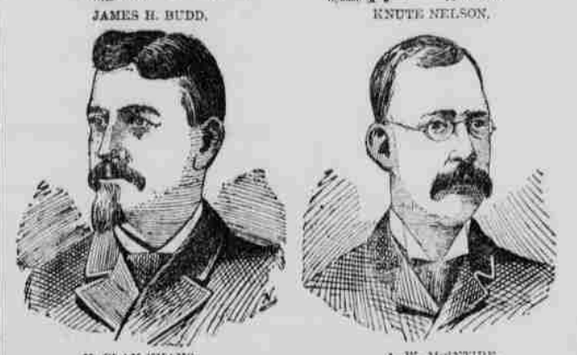
JAMES H. BUDD. KNUTE NELSON.



H. CLAY EVANS. A. W. McINTIRE.

A GROUP OF GOVERNORS.

Mr. Budd, the newly-elected democratic governor of California, is forty-three years old, is a native of Wisconsin, but was taken by his parents to California when he was six years old. He was graduated from the Berkeley university in 1873, and then studied law. He was a United States commissioner for many years. He was elected to congress in 1882.

Governor Knute Nelson, re-elected in Minnesota by the republicans, is a native of Norway, coming to this country with his parents in 1840, when six years old. They settled in Wisconsin, where Knute obtained an incomplete education during the winter months. He served in the Fourth Wisconsin regiment during the war, studied law at its close, served in the legislature in 1868-9, moved to Minnesota in 1870, where he served as prosecuting attorney of Douglas county. He has also served his district in the state legislature and in congress.

Mr. Evans, the recently-elected republican governor of Tennessee, is a native of Pennsylvania, but was reared and educated in Wisconsin. During the war he was a soldier in a Wisconsin regiment. When he was mustered out in 1864 he settled in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he has since lived. He has held local offices, and has been twice mayor of his city. He was elected to the Fifty-first congress, and was a candidate again in 1890.

Mr. McIntire, the successful republican candidate for governor in Colorado, is a native of Pennsylvania. He was graduated from Yale college in 1873, and from the Yale Law School in 1875. He has been in Colorado twelve or fifteen years, and has practiced his profession successfully, though he has also been at the same time a farmer and ranchman in the San Luis Valley, along the Conejos river. He has for several years been judge of a court of record in his home county.

"TWO'S COMPANY."

THE POWER OF GOLD.

He loved her.
She loved him.
They loved each other.

But her father objected because the young man was almost a total stranger.

The time had come when the youth must ask her father for his daughter, and he feared to go to him.

He held a long conference with his beloved.

He told her he did not want to ask her father.

"George, dear," she asked in a tremulous whisper, "how much are you worth?"

"A million dollars, darling," he responded proudly.

Her face shown in the twilight.

"Then you don't have to ask him," she said with a simple trust. "Let him know that and he will ask you."

And George gave the old man a tip—Detroit Free Press.

Carlton Cornwell foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold, and it effected a speedy cure. A NEW BABY, TOO.

The new fashion of birth announcements in France is to have the baby announce itself. Here are specimens: "For my entry into the world I have selected last Sunday. Alice F——." Or this: "I beg permission to inform you that I have been born." These appear in the journals in the regular column.

Money talks, but it does not always speak when spoken to.

Trumpet Calls.

RAM'S HORN SOUNDS A WARNING NOTE TO THE UNREDEEMED.

Love always weeps when it has to whip.

Birds with bright plumage are seldom fat.

Love never bestows a burden that is heavy.

We are fearing God when we fear to do wrong.

Faith in Christ changes the coffin into a chariot.

In the true fold of Christ there are no black sheep.

To believe the devil is to lose the peace of Christ.

It takes more courage to endure than it does to act.

Law wears iron shoes, and don't care where it steps.

One symptom of backsliding is a lack of thankfulness.

Religion pure and undefiled never works by the month.

There are no real strong people in this world but good people.

The truth we hate the most is the truth that hits us the hardest.

The road to Heaven seems to become steeper every time we look back.

When you can't find anything else to do for God try to make a child happy.

People who make crooked paths never get in earnest about following Christ.

The closer the competition, the more God is needed for a business partner.

To love an enemy is the most important service a Christian can render Christ.

The sins that pay their rent promptly are the last ones we want to give up.

When unselfish love is asking for a place in your heart, God is knocking at the door.

You can generally tell what a man thinks of God by the way he talks about his neighbors.

The only thing a Christian can do for any enemy that a worldling cannot do, is to love him.

One trouble with the church is that there are too many babes in it from five to six feet high.

A lie is often told without saying a word, by putting the rotten apples in the bottom of the basket.

If you let the devil go home to dinner with you, you will have to take him for a regular boarder.

The man who has on the whole armor of God never expresses any doubts as to the reality of the devil.

Sunday School Teacher—Now do you understand what the millennium is? Little Girl—Yes'm. It's the nice, quiet, peaceful time that is to come after there has been big wars everywhere, and all the folks wat likes to fight has been killed off.

Of two evils, some people do their best to choose both.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a cough, cold or any lung, throat or chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at Wm. Cohen's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

"I've got an idea that my boy will be president some day."

"What makes you think so?"

"Why, when he ain't fishin', he's shootin' ducks!"

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhœa of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy," says Edward Shumpik, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50 cent bottles of this remedy.

For sale by J. N. Brown, Halifax, Dr. A. S. Harrison, Enfield.

It is easier to cut fresh bread with a spoon than to profit by the advice of one who dispenses it gratis.

It is more difficult to go to sleep on a sleeping coach than it is to keep awake on a midnight way train.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles.

For sale by J. N. Brown, Halifax, Dr. A. S. Harrison, Enfield.

To Mould Character.

SAM JONES SAYS SOMETHING ABOUT EARLY HOME TRAINING.

Sam Jones recognizes the great truth that the early home training makes the character of the child. In the following forcible language he expresses himself:

"When I look at the lists of habits and the carelessness with which parents help their children to make right habits I wonder sometimes that there are not more wrecks along the shore than we see.

"The habit of economy should be instilled into every child raised in an American home. To live beyond one's income is manifestly to head towards the jail or poor house.

"Abnormal wants with meager means for satisfying them are the doorways to the penitentiary and gallows of our county.

"Crime can be diminished by fixing the habit of industry upon our children and teaching them the worth of an hour.

"Lifetime is made by the hour and a noble life must be full of work.

"Crime may be diminished by enforcing discipline upon our children at home.

"An undisciplined child will sooner or later regard no law because he seems to know no law.

"Crime may be diminished by teaching a child that its integrity is the very basis of its character.

"Teach him that to dishonor is to defraud, tell a lie is as bad as to steal, to make a promise and break it is as hurtful to character as any crime in the decalogue."

ADAMS FIRST WIFE.

Whether Lilith was one of the female creation of Chapter I, or a demon or something between the two, she was, considered matrimonially, a complete failure. She was expelled after living with Adam for 130 years, and subsequently became the wife of Satan, by whom she was the mother of the Jinns, so familiar in Persian fairy lore.

The emphatic remark of Adam when he first saw Eve, 'This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh," makes, it is suggested, a comparison between Eve and the beautiful but fiendlike Lilith, not complimentary to the latter, while the reference, on the birth of Seth, to him as Adam's son "in his own likeness, after his image," conveys a painful hint of the uncanny offspring born to Adam and Lilith.

Perhaps in revenge for this, Lilith—the name occurs translated "night monster" in Isiah xxxiv—became the sworn foe of little children, whom she was wont to strangle with one of her glorious golden hairs, unless the watchfulness of their mothers drove her away. It has, indeed, been gravely suggested by an etymologist greatly daring that our lullaby is a corruption of "Lilla abi," Lilith, avaunt! which mothers and nurses would croon over the cradles or write on the door post.
