ONLY ONE CURE FOR SCROFULA.

S. S. S. is the Only Remedy Equal to this Obstinate Disease.

There are dozens of remedies recommended for Scrofula, some of them no doubt being able to afford temporary relief, but S. S. S. is absolutely the only remedy which completely cures it. Scrofula is one of the most obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases, and is beyond the reach of the many so-called purifiers and tonics because nothing more than a more tonic is required. S. S. S. is equal to any blood trouble, and never fails to cure Scrofula, because it goes down to the seat of the disease, thus permanently eliminating every trace of the taint.

The serious consequences to which Scrofula surely leads should impress upon those afflicted with it the vital importance of wasting no time upon treatment which can not possibly effect a cure. In many cases where the wrong treatment has been relied upon, complicated glandular swellings have resulted, for which the doctors insist that a dangerous surgical operation is necessary.

Mr. H. E. Thompson, of Milledgeville, Ga., writes: "A bad case of Scrofula broke out on the glands of my neck, which had to be lanced and caused me much suffering. I was treated for a long while, but the physicians were unable to cure me, and my condition was as bad as when I began their treatment. Many blood remedies were used, but without effect. Some one recommended S. S. S., and I began to improve as soon as I had taken a few bottles. Continuing the remedy, I was soon cured permanently, and have never had a sign of the disease to return." Smith's Specific—S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD —is the only remedy which can promptly reach and cure obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases. By relying upon it, and not experimenting with the various so-called tonics, etc., all sufferers from blood troubles can be promptly cured, instead of enduring years of suffering which gradually but surely undermines the constitution. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and never fails to cure Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Boils, Tetter, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers, etc. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place. Books on blood and skin diseases will be mailed free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Worst Of Crimes. HIS HONOR ON WIFE-BEATING.

AN ARKANSAS POLICE JUSTICE'S REMARKS UPON SENTENCING AN OFFENDER.

Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

In finding a man $100 for whipping his wife Judge Freer, of Fort Smith, said as follows:

"I am opposed to wife-beating. I have no respect for any man who will beat a woman. I am not like the St. Louis Judge who saw extenuating circumstances in a wife-beating case. A man has no right to whip his wife. That is not what he married her for. No, sir, he married her to love and protect her. Doesn't she see that buttons are put on his clothes? Of course she does. Doesn't she see that his collar button doesn't roll under the dresser, and if it does, doesn't she get down on her knees and fish it out for him? Of course she does. Doesn't she cook meals for him, and have them ready for him when he comes home, and doesn't she sit up sewing for his children or stay all night watching them when they are sick? Of course she does. And what has she done to be beaten by him? Nothing at all. Very often she doesn't make enough to enable him to wear silk ties and patent-leather pumps and fit himself to the trim every night and roll home and tumble into bed and snore off his drunk like a hog.

"I tell you what it is, I can extend mercy to the man who gets drunk and makes a beast of himself. I can have some sympathy for the man who steals, because he is often compelled to do it. I have a feeling for the man who asks hand-me-outs or who has to sleep in box cars, but when it comes to a wife-beater, I am lost to all sense of mercy. Say, do you know that I never had a man before me charged with wife-beating that that man did not have an ugly mug on him? Well, that's a fact. It takes some considerable nerve to sandbag a man or to hold a man up, but what nerve does it take to beat a poor, weak woman? Bah! I get hot all over when I have one of these cases before me. I feel just like taking the man by the nose of the neck and kicking him clean out of town. I run up against a good many hard propositions while sitting on the bench, but the hardest is the wife-beater. I am not going to have any mercy on that class of people. I am going to drive the sword of justice into them deep and break it off. I am going to lambast them with all my might and main. I am going to salt all the freshness out of them, and if they do not get what they deserve it will be the fault of the law and not of me.

"I will fine that fellow $100. I am glad if I would have been just twice as glad if I had been able to fine him twice as much. The man who beats his wife wants to get out of the jurisdiction of the Fort Smith Police Court, at least while I am on the bench, if he doesn't want to get into the consummate away over his head. I stand squarely on that platform, gentlemen, and there is no backwater which will run me off."

ONLY JOKING.

An Ohio paper advertises for heirs to a small fortune left by a man who died recently in that State, and adds: "The money is now in the hands of a lawyer." The concluding clause shoots a stream of peculiar light into the rest of the advertisement.

Sooner or later every woman must duel with Death. Nature has provided her with a set of extremely sensitive organs upon the condition of which the health of her whole body depends. She must keep these organs fully protected by the armor of health. That is her best defense against death. Death comes closest to her the time when she becomes a mother.

Taken during the period of gestation it robs childhood of its pain and danger. Over 25,000 grateful women have written of the wonderful help of the "Favorite Prescription." Among others Mrs. Cordelia Benson, of Condon, Boyd Co., Ky., writes: "In October 1888 I gave birth to a baby and the treatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with prostrations. I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I then had three miscarriages and found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and when my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors. They said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and in a few weeks I became a well woman. Before began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicine I suffered all a woman could suffer at monthly periods, but now I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are gone and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my face is white, before my face was as yellow as saffron."

The Valley Railroad. NO STOP OVER CHECKS.

THE DEVIL'S RAILROAD—A REMARKABLE TEMPERANCE DOCUMENT PREPARED BY YOUNG MEN WHO IS SERVING A LIFE-TERM FOR MURDER DUE TO WHILE DRUNK.

A Vice-President of the National Temperance Society sends to the Advocate the following schedule which was prepared by a young man who is serving a life sentence in a Mississippi penitentiary for killing his companion while on a drunken gambling spree. The young man was from a good family in good circumstances, but as the parents were negligent as to their attendances upon religious observances the young man fell into evil company. Yielded to the wine cup. Since he entered prison he has been converted. It is hoped that the publication of this schedule will do good. It is prepared by one who has traveled over the road:

ANNUAL STATEMENT. Our very popular line carries annually 400,000 papers. Brings misery and woe to 2,000,000 persons. Dispatches into Eternity 60,000 unprepared souls. Carries 600,000 drunkards, convicts 100,000 to prison. More immigration passes annually over our line than any other. We positively refuse to be responsible for the poverty and wants of the widows and orphans of those who ride over our line. They may ride with us if they pay the fare. Our employees are paid promptly. See Romans, vi, 23.

N. B. The Great License Law, under which we operate, relieves us from all responsibilities for accidents and suffering along our line, or that is caused by our employees. We insist that all attempts by silly women and enthusiastic preachers and church members to stop our business by invalidating our charters are in direct opposition to the great doctrine of "Personal Liberty."

We hereby give notice, that any woman who dares to oppose our most lucrative business will be branded a "crank," and that any man who dares to oppose us will be denominated a "bolter" from some one of the great political parties and he takes the risk of losing his political influence.

NOW I LAY ME DOWN TO SLEEP.

The fire upon the hearth is low, And there is stillness everywhere; Like troubled spirits, here and there, The freight shadows flitting to and fro, And as the shadows round me creep, A childish treble breaks the gloom, And softly, from another room, Comes "Now I lay me down to sleep,"

And, somehow, with that little prayer, And that sweet trouble in my ears, My thoughts go back to distant years, And linger with a dear one there, And as I hear the child's "Amen," My mother's face comes back to me. Crouched at her side I seem to be, And mother holds my hand again.

Oh, for an hour in that dear place! Oh, for the peace of that dear time! Oh, for the childish trust sublime! Oh, for a glimpse of mother's face! Yet, as the shadows round me creep, I do not seem to be alone— Sweet magic of that treble tone, And "Now I lay me down to sleep," —Eugene Field.

In Search of A Wife. AND HOW HE FOUND HER.

SOME TIMES IGNORANCE IS MORE DESIRABLE IN A GIRL THAN TOO MUCH KNOWLEDGE.

"Do you believe in territorial expansion, Miss Willowby?"

"Well, to tell the truth," the beautiful girl replied, "I haven't given enough study to that question to know anything about it."

Mr. Primley twisted his moustache for a moment and then asked: "Are you in favor of an Anglo-Saxon alliance?"

"Oh, dear, I can't say. I haven't paid attention to that subject. I confess that I am as ignorant as a child where public matters are concerned."

"Then you haven't become interested in any of the reform movements?"

"No, I don't consider myself capable of taking up and discussing those things."

"Do you take much interest in science and art you in the habit of discussing the beauties of classical music, using technical terms, or are you an amateur literary critic, or do you ever talk to people about the great moral problems that are claiming the attention of so many of our learned women nowadays?"

"No, I am ashamed to have to confess it, but I have found it impossible to get any of those things through my head sufficiently to dare to talk about them."

"You don't know anything about politics or socialism in its new sense, or the influence of the Compendium as Applied to the Concomitants of Paleolithic Abnegation," do you?"

"I—I am afraid I don't," she timidly replied.

"Say," he suddenly exclaimed, "will you be my wife?"—Chicago News.

The intense itching and smarting incident to these diseases, is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. ### DUSTING A ROOM.

The girl who takes as much pride in learning to dust a room properly as she does in learning to draw, who brails a steak with the same nicety as she embroiders a rosebud, who makes coffee as carefully as she crochets, is the girl who will make the economical, cheery wife, loving mother, and delightful companion. It is not a crime to know how to keep house. Every girl expects to have a home of her own some day, yet the girl and her mother, when circumstances permit, too often act as though there was no such thing as a servantless home, and food grew on bushes ready for the picking.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

How did this happen?" asked the surgeon as he dressed the wound in the cheek and applied a soothing poultice to the damaged eye.

"Got hit with a stone," replied the patient.

"Who threw it?"

"My—my wife," was the reluctant answer.

"Hum! It's the first time I've heard of a woman hitting anything she aimed at," muttered the surgeon.

"She was throwing at the neighbor's hens," explained the sufferer. "I was behind her."

GOOD TIMES.

When the good times come, they needn't beat the drum, For the weary world will know when the good times come; There'll be music on the hilltops and music on the plains, And music in the fiddle and the twinkle of the rains!

When the good times come, then the right shall trample wrong, The world shall move forever to a hal-lu-lu song; And joy will bless as I brighten, and sorrow will be dumb, In that mad and merry season when the good times come!

Rudely Shocked. GEN. LEE AND THE CIRCUS.

HOW GOING TO SHOWS BECAME A PROPER AMUSEMENT.

General Robert E. Lee, the famous Confederate commander, was a kindhearted and simpleminded man as he was brave and able. While president of Washington and Lee University, Virginia, in the latter years of his life, he was greatly beloved by the children, whom he loved to return. It was his delight to give the little ones pleasure. Professor Nelson's two little girls were great favorites. The General would turn and ride with them when they met, encourage them to talk of their dolls and playthings, and then escort them home with as much gallantry as if they were young ladies. He would alight, and, helping them down from the gentle old horse they both rode, he would part with a kiss from each.

Once the strict Presbyterian rule of the Nelson household was rudely shocked by the General. A circus was coming to town, and as Professor and Mrs. Nelson left for a visit of several days, they charged the children on no account to go. So the two little girls hung over the wayside, listened to the music, and envied the children that passed on their way to that tented paradise, but they never once hoped to go.

Presently a larger crowd of children than ever came along, and in their midst was General Lee, keenly enjoyment of the happiness of his little proteges. The little Nelson girls joined the party without a word when he asked them to come along with him. Soon they were all in the tent, and when the performance began all were given reserved seats by the owner of the circus. "Mother, we went to the circus," was the greeting of the children on their parents' return.

"Why, children, didn't I tell you you must not go?" said their mother.

"But, General Lee took us." "Oh, well, said their mother, "if General Lee took you that's all right." After that going to the circus was a legitimate amusement for the children.

"Worse still," said the court. "Try again."

"Now, Judge," said the witness, deprecatingly, "you air leadin' me over my education limits. All I kin say is—it made a devil of a noise, which air not quite so loud an' deaf'nin' as a H—l of a noise!"

HER FIRST THOUGHT.

Mildred—Have you ever thought that your last moment had come? What an awful feeling it is that comes over one at such a time!

Gertrude—Yes, I had that experience once when I was out riding with a fellow and his horse started to run away. It seemed as if we would certainly be dashed to pieces.

Mildred—And what was the first thing you thought of when death seemed to stare you in the face?

Gertrude—A hole in the toe of my left stocking. I have never since then run the risk of being found dead in such a condition.

Woman. NOBLEST WORK OF GOD.

THE FALL OF WOMANHOOD IS A SAD AND AWFUL COMMENTARY UPON THE DEPRIVITY OF MAN.

Durham Sun.

Whether sister, friend, sweetheart, wife or mother, a woman is the noblest work of God. If she be high-minded and pure hearted, she stands near the sun. When, from any cause she falls, the descent is so swift, the distance so great, that restoration is well-nigh impossible. Every man deserves to look upon his sister as queen of all the virtues, upon his sweetheart as a paragon of purity, upon his wife as a spotless priestess of love, and upon his mother as an angel. They are what he lives for, and for them he would brave all dangers and gladly die. They are the pride of life, their smiles illuminate his rugged thorn-strewn path from the cradle to the grave. Their kiss is the balm of Gilead to his bruised and bleeding heart when others forsake, disappointments are sore, and the world is dark. Cheered by a sister's affection, sustained by a wife's devotion, and upheld by a mother's deathless love, it is strange a man should fall by the wayside a victim of vice and lust. Knowing and loving his own so well, it is almost incredible that he could lure to the hell of ruin the sister, daughter, wife or mother of men. The fall of womanhood is a sad and awful commentary upon the depravity of man. Did all men but keep the golden rule, there would not be a wrecked home, a blasted life, a broken heart, or fallen woman in the wide world.
