IMPRACHMENT proceedings have been instituted against Chief Justice D. E. Furches and Judge R. M. Douglas of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

In the House of Representatives a resolution was introduced by Representative Locke Craig, of Buncombe, looking to the impeachment of the Chief Justice and an associate member of the highest court in the State.

The charges on which the impeachures for January as 1,242 in number and ment proceedings are based are that both judges violated the Constitution in issuing the mandamus upon the Treasurer to pay the claim for back salary of Theophilus White, Shellfish Commissioner, when the Legislature, by expressed act forbid such payment,

The resolution created a sensation when introduced in the House Thursother, conditions in high life are distinct- day. While such action has been talked of, no one was expecting the matter at this time. The fact that the resolution was introduced by one of the leaders on the cruiser Albany, convicted of mutiny, floor of the House makes the impeachment proceedings all the more serious As soon as the resolution was introduced it was referred to the Judiciary Committee at the request of the author.

The bill was later referred to a sub committee of five, of which ex Judge W R.
