

WHAT to do with Aguinaldo, now that he has been captured, is the conundrum to be solved by the United States government.

The Legislature of Minnesota sat down hard on the cigarette and passed an act forbidding the selling or giving away to any one any cigarette, cigarette paper or any substitution for both or either, under a penalty of $50 for each offence.

JOSEPH A. CONKLIN, a clerk in the New York postoffice, appropriated a mail pouch containing $40,000 worth of money orders and stamps and sloped to the Pacific slope, but was taken in by the government before he could get to foreign shores.

FRIDAY night the Jefferson hotel at Richmond was destroyed by fire. All the guests were saved but there several narrow escapes. The fire originated in the blanket room on the fourth floor and is thought to have been caused by a defective insulation of an electric light wire.
The Jefferson was the finest hotel in the South and was the pride of Richmond.
Its destruction is a great misfortune.

The Chinese puzzle is still disturbing cabinets and worrying nations. What will come out of it all is just what diplomats and commanders have not been able to determine. If the news from Washington should turn out to be correct—that this country may be entirely shut out of all interests in China, it will not be a calamity as a good many suppose, but a blessing.

GEN. FREDERICK FUNSTON'S daring project for the capture of Aguinaldo in his hiding place in the province of Isabella, Island of Luzon, has proved completely successful.

Aguinaldo was captured there March 23rd.
The United States gunboat Vicksburg, Commander E. B. Barry, with General Funston and Aguinaldo on board arrived at Manila Thursday and now the Filipino chief is behind prison bars. The achievement received merited applause and Dewey thinks it will wind up the insurrection. Funston will be rewarded with a commission in the regular army.

As an independent Democratic journal, the NEWS believes that the verdict of the High Court of Impeachment in the case of the Supreme Court Judges is a just and righteous verdict and that it meets the approval of the white people of North Carolina, the majority of whom are opposed to the respondents politically.
While many good and true Democrats, honest no doubt, in their convictions, voted for impeachment, the refusal to convict by a senate, more than two-thirds of whose members were Democrats, shows that the party can be relied upon in every great emergency.

The verdict will not only be approved by every fair minded person, but we believe that it will have a good effect, and that all who were in favor of impeachment will in a short time realize that it was a mistaken policy of the House ever to have instituted the proceedings.

RECENTLY the Wilmington Messenger said it would like to see figures showing the average pay of preachers in the Methodist E. Church in North Carolina, and so of other churches. We suppose the average is low—below what it should be.
Rev. Dr. A. D. Bots the noble veteran and consecrated man of God, General Lee's "model chaplain," in a short communication to the Greenville Reflector of recent personal experience which is informing said: "This winter, this year went 30 miles to his first appointment preached 3 times, and did not get enough money to pay for his railroad ticket. I saw a few weeks that point had paid him $19 41. Last year he went to his work paid $5 a month house rent, and worked 70 days before he received a cent, but had plenty of money during the year.
Methodism in North Carolina does not starve her preachers."

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEU-MATISM.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.
All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords.
When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Sometime ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. E. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain.
I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale

The Judges Are Acquitted.

THE VOTE 23 TO 27 ON THE FIRST ARTICLE OF IMPEACHMENT—TWELVE DEMOCRATS VOTED AGAINST ARTI-CLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

After a long and tedious trial, which cost the State of North Carolina about $7000, Chief Justice D. M. Furches and Associate Justice R. M. Douglas were acquitted on all of the five articles of impeachment in the High Court at Raleigh Thursday. Twelve Democrats voted with the Republicans against impeachment. On the first article the vote stood 27 to 23 as follows:

- For Impeachment—
- ALEXANDER.
- ARRINGTON.
- BRAY.
- BROUGHTON.
- BURROUGHS.
- CALVERT.
- FOY.
- GUDGER.
- JAMES.
- JUSTICE.
- LINDSAY.
- MENIL.
- MILLER, of Pamlico.
- MORRISON.
- MORTON.
- SCOTT.
- SMITH.
- SPEIGHT.
- THOMAS.
- TRAVIS.
- VANN.
- WARD.
- WARREN.
- WEBB.
- WOOD.
- WOODARD—26.
- Against Impeachment:
- Democrats—
- BROWN.
- CURRIE.
- FOSHREE.
- GLENN.
- HENDERSON.
- LEAK.
- LONDON.
- LONG.
- McALLISTER.
- McINTYRE.
- STRINGFIELD.
- SUGG—12.

Republicans—
BUCHANAN.
CANDLER.
CRISP.
DULA.
MARSHALL.
McINTOSH.
MICHAEL.
MILLER, of Caldwell.
PINNIX.
ROBSON.
STIKLEATHER—11.
President Turner announced the vote and there being a failure of concurrence of two-thirds of the Senate the judges were adjudged not guilty on the first article of impeachment.

Judge Allen, of the board of managers, then arose and said, "While we do not believe the verdict correct, we desire to yield to it, and are willing that the other articles be withdrawn or a verdict of not guilty be entered."

The roll was called, however, on the other four charges and resulted as follows: Article II 26 for impeachment, 24 against it. Vote Article III vote was 25 to 25. On the fifth Article there was a very great change; 16 Senators voting for impeachment and 24 against it.

The judgment of the court was then read which among other things said:
"Now, therefore, it is adjudged by the Senate of North Carolina, sitting as a Court of Impeachment at their chamber in the city of Raleigh, that the said David M. Furches and Robert M. Douglas are acquitted of the charges against them in said articles."

And thus ends a most noted trial.

CAUGHT A DREADFUL COLD.
Marion Kooke, manager for T. M.
Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe winter I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself.
I acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by W. M. Cohen, druggist.

HE KEPT HIS LEG.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 14 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For COLONEL W. H. CHECK.

A Beautiful Tribute Paid To His Memory by Mr. W. R.
Shaw at the Interment Last Week.

Col. W. H. Check, a relative of Capt.
W. T. Check, of this place, died suddenly at Henderson on March 23rd.

At the burial, on the 25th, of March 1901, the following beautiful tribute of respect was paid to his memory on behalf of the Daughters of the Confederacy, by W. B. Shaw, upon the presentation of floral offerings from each:

FRIENDS—May I not, in behalf of these scarred veterans of an hundred conflicts, add a humble tribute to their courage in arms? Yeal may I not speak for these Daughters of the South, these Vestals in the Temple of Liberty and for them place a chaplet on the grave where a hero lies buried? The Confederate soldiers one by one are being gathered to their final resting place. As a warrior and Christian hero, the world has offered no parallel.
As the clouds of hate and prejudice are being dispelled by the sunlight of truth, and the heroes of the South, one by one, are being transferred from the cares and turmoil of life, star by star is being added to the world's constellation of glory.
Our friend was but a type of the Southern Christian soldier, conscious of the justice of his cause, he became a hero in 150 conflicts. At Brandy Station he challenged the admiration of his superiors by his intrepid valor; at Williamsport, Five Forks and Spotsylvania, he exhibited the matchless genius of Marlboro and, capped the valor of Nelson. The immortal spirit of Wolf and Colling-wood brooded over him and served him to deeds, in those bloody conflicts, passing all human expectation. At Gettysburg, that Thermopylae of modern times, he proved a Leonidas indeed. At Lee's Station, with an hundred of his faithful followers, he stampeded the mounted hosts of the enemy and saved the Capital City of the South; last, but not least, at Chamberlain's run, when the camp-fires of the South were shedding their last flickering rays, his intrepid bravery challenged the admiration of his immortal leader, the glorious and matchless Lee, who, upon the tented field in the very midst of carnage, promoted him to his office of Brigadier; too late, however, for a commission, for there, with the shouts of victory mingled the groans of defeat; the cause of the South had gone down.

Hero of the South, rest from your labors; your life and valor has added fresh glory to your mother State. As over the heathered hills of Scotland, tradition still gleams the sword of Wallace, so, in the ages to come, shall the glittering steel of this hero and his colleagues in arms, shed a halo of glory around the cause of freedom, which shall prove a search light in history, by which unborn millions shall read the names of the world's patriots upon the scrolls of the scales. The scattered remnant of thy courage come now to pour out their tears upon thy mortal mould and place a fragrant garland upon thy resting place.
Sleep on in a hero's sacred grave; the grass that shall cover this mould will withier and die from the winter's biting frosts, but your memory shall be a living green, fresh through all the ages, and thy patriotism shall inspire the youth of a thousand years to stand for freedom.

Comrades! "He sleeps his last sleep, he has fought his last battle, no sound can awake him to glory again."

HARRY JORDAN, President of the Southern Cotton Growers' Protective Association, has issued a call to the cotton producers of the Southern States, asking them to meet at the county seat of every county in the South on Saturday, April 6th, for the purpose of adopting some plan to restrict the acreage of the cotton crop for the season 1901 and 1902.

President Jordan urges immediate action by the farmers before the seed for the next crop are placed in the ground.
He claims that the planters will not be able to meet their obligations assumed for guano, and other farming materials with the price of cotton at 6 cents, which he confidently predicts will result from a large acreage.

To Mrs. Joe Person:
My little boy was sorely troubled with impurities of the blood, and the result was boils and sores on his body to such an extent that he could not rest while lying on his back or side, but for three weeks he had to lie with his face down, and turn his head from side to side to rest it.
After consulting a prominent physician he told me to try

Mrs. Joe Person's

which I did. After using it a short time he was completely cured, and his general health restored.
At the same time that my little boy was afflicted with these sore and boils, his bowels were in a very bad condition, and this medicine effected a complete cure of them.
I recommend said medicine as a
