GHOST AN ACTOR.

Apparition that Told a Pennsylvania Man of His Brother's Death.

"Formerly I was a hardened skeptic in matters of psychic phenomena," said a prominent lawyer of Pennsylvania the other day, "but I was converted by an experience that has made me an ardent believer in things supernatural. One night recently I was on my way to Towanda on horseback. While passing through a long stretch of woods I suddenly saw, just ahead of me, the figure of a man. He seemed to be surrounded by a fierce fall of snow, which was apparently hurled against him by a terrific gale of wind. As the man struggled alone feebly against the storm my horse stepped suddenly, pricked up his ears and passed the ground impatiently. All around the figure of the man, was clear and calm. I rubbed my eyes and made up my mind that the man was some drunken fellow on his way home from the village, and that the storm was an optical illusion. I called out to him but no answer came back. I shouted again, and again, louder each time, but the struggling figure gave no response.

"At last the man fell as if exhausted, and the fierce gale whirled the snow around him. Knowing that if the fallen man was drunk he would freeze to death if I left him lying there, I jumped from my horse and ran to help him up intending to take him to the nearest place of shelter. As I reached the prostrate figure I started back and almost fell fainting in the snow. The face was revealed in darkness as clearly as if it had been broad daylight, and it was that of my brother, who lived in Dakota. When I recovered from the shock and turned again to the body, it was gone. There was not even an impression in the snow where it had lain. Bewildered and much unstrung, I finally mounted my horse and rode on. "I gradually recovered my composure, and at last convinced myself that I had been the victim of a strange and unaccountable hallucination, but a strange foreboding of evil haunted me. A few days later I received a letter from the town of Dakota where my brother was, and which informed me that he had been caught in a blizzard while on his way to his cabin and was frozen to death. "The letter gave the date and time of his death. It had occurred at the very hour and night that the apparition of the man struggling against the storm appeared to me on the Towanda road, and I recognized by brother's face as he lay dead in the snow."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

PLACATING MRS. M.

Mrs. Mann—Oh, yes, I suppose I'm a disagreeable thing. No doubt you are sorry you ever saw me.

Mr. Mann—I won't go so far as that. I only wish when I did see you I had taken a better look at you.

COMPARISONS.

Mrs. Seldom-Home—My husband is one of the most disputatious mortals alive. I can hardly ever make a statement without his "begging leave to differ."

Mrs. Jones Lee Oodgers—Your husband is an angel. Nine always differs without begging leave.

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.

The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition and the bowels regular and you will have no need of a blood purifier. For this purpose there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, one dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at W. M. Cohen's drug store.

EDUCATE YOUR CHILDREN.

Every person should be interested in the education of his or her child. The time is now at hand when with our system of schools in North Carolina every child has an opportunity to gain knowledge. The time is approaching when a boy or a girl uneducated will be denied the benefits of society and will be unable to earn a livelihood. If boys or girls expect to enter into any of the professions, into society or expect to succeed in any of the avocations of life they must be educated.

To fit one's self for any of the professions, one must be educated in those branches that bear upon that particular profession.

If one wishes to shine as an ornament in society there must be that culture, refinement and learning that can only come from being thoroughly educated.

It makes no difference what may be your ambition for your child, if it is only to be a plain citizen, yet if you educate that child he will be better enabled to cope with the world and can be more successful in any business he undertakes.

There is one reason that more strongly appeals to the parent now, why the boy should be educated, than heretofore. After 1908 the boy who is 21 years of age and who cannot read and write the constitution of his native State will not be allowed to vote. He cannot enjoy the same privileges of citizenship as did his father. And if there were no other incentive than this it would seem that every boy should be taught a rudimentary education at least.

Send your children to school. You will be held responsible by the Great Creator, Himself, if you allow your child to grow up in ignorance, with so many educational advantages around you.—Ex.

If troubled by a weak digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by W. M. Cohen.

SCROFULA

I bequeath to my children Scrofula with all its attendant horrors, humiliation and suffering. This is a strange legacy to leave to posterity; a heavy burden to place upon the shoulders of the young. This treacherous disease dwarfs the body and hinders the growth and development of the faculties, and the child born of blood poison, or scrofula-tainted parentage, is poorly equipped for life's duties. Scrofula is a disease with numerous and varied symptoms; enlarged glands or tumors about the neck and armpits, catarrh of the head, weak eyes and dreadful skin eruptions upon different parts of the body show the presence of tubercular or scrofulous matter in the blood. This dangerous and stealthy disease entrenches itself securely in the system and attacks the bones and tissues, destroys the red corpuscles of the blood, resulting in white swelling, a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength and a gradual wasting away of the body.

S. S. S. combines both purifying and tonic properties, and is guaranteed entirely vegetable, making it the ideal remedy in all scrofulous affections. It purifies the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and strong and a complete and permanent cure is soon effected. S. S. S. improves the digestion and assimilation of food, restores the lost properties to the blood and quickens the circulation, bringing a healthy color to the skin and vigor to the weak and emaciated body.

Write us about your case and our physicians will cheerfully advise and help you in every possible way to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
