LIFE'S LITTLE DAY.

One secret of a sweet and happy Christian life is learning to live by the day. It is the long stretches that tire us. We think of life, as a whole, running on for us. We can not carry this load until we are three score and ten. We cannot fight this battle continually for half a century. But really there are no stretches. Life does not come to us all at one time; it comes only a day at a time. Even tomorrow is never ours until it becomes today, and we have nothing whatever to do with it but to pass it down as fair and good inheritance in to-day's work well done and to-day's life well lived.

It is a blessed secret, this living day by day. Anyone can carry his burden, however heavy, till nightfall. Any one can do his work, however hard, for one day. Any one can live sweetly, patiently, lovingly and purely till the sun goes down. And this is all that life ever means to us—just one little day. To to-day's duty; fight to-day's temptations, and do not weaken and distrust yourself by looking forward to things you can not see, and could not understand if you saw them. God gives us light to shut down the curtain of darkness on our little days. We cannot see beyond. Short horizons make life easier and give us one of the blessed secrets of brave, true, holy living.

HER PRAYER.

The Buffalo News tells a story of a four-year-old girl who was spending a night away from home. At bedtime she knelt at her hostess' knees to say her prayers, expecting the usual prompting. Finding Mrs. B. unable to help her out, she concluded thus: "Please, God, 'cause me, I can't remember my prayers, and I'm staying with a lady that don't know any."

NO INTRODUCTION.

A young married couple—from the country, of course—attended an exhibition of "dissolving views". The bride, being very pretty, attracted the attention of a stylish-looking city gentleman who happened to occupy the same seat with the happy pair. During the exhibition the part of the hall occupied by the audience was obscured. By some accident the lights went out also on the stage. During the darkness the young man from the city pressed the hand of the bride. She was much alarmed, but offered no resistance. Then he actually leaned over and kissed her. This was too much, and the wife resolved to tell her husband.

"John?"
"What?"
"This fellow's kissing me!"
"Well, tell him to quit!"
"No, John, you tell him!"
"Tell him yourself!"
"No, John, I don't like to tell him. You tell him. The gentleman is a perfect stranger to me!" —Play Times.

Hypocrites pray cream and live skin milk.

FULL DRESS IS IRKSOME.

A belated traveller, who was compelled to stay all night in a backwoods cabin, says that soon after the frugal supper of "salty biscuits" and fried "side meat," swimming in grease, had been eaten, a tall, gaunt youth of about 18 and an equally sallow and gaunt girl of 17, both barefooted, took their hats from wooden pegs in the wall and prepared to go out, whereupon their mother, taking her pipe from between her yellow teeth, said reprovingly:

"Go 'long an' wash your feet, Levi, you an' Lolly both! Hain't you ashamed to go off to an evenin' party without washin' your feet?"
They obeyed, but as Levi took the washpan from a bench by the door he said, with a grumble:
"I'd 'bout as soon stay home from a party as to have to fix up for hit!"

Some men are so stingy they won't even give advice.

CHARACTER IN EYES.

According to the language of oris: Black eyes are considered the brightest.

Blue eyes the most lovable.
Gray eyes the keenest.
Hazel eyes indicate quickness of sympathy.

Brown eyes are the most romantic.
The ancient Greeks and Romans admired blue eyes most of all. Minerva was believed to possess eyes so blue that the sea seemed gray and the skies ashen by contrast.

Eyes that are restless have no power. It takes the concentrated gaze to influence and probe the secrets of another's soul.

A very round eye is never found in the face of a clever, quick-witted individual.

"The more the eye resembles the round, head like one of a bird, the more does it betray dullness," says an old writer.

If the left eye is the larger, the individual is ruled by the heart.
A larger right eye signifies hardheartedness.

If, when you examine your eyes, you find that the left eyelid droops further over the eye than does the right, you may take it for granted that you possess delicacy of constitution united with brilliancy of intellect, and that you are a genius in one way or another.
The finest eyes are those that unite sense and sweetness.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

Sold by druggists in every part of the world. 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Judge a man's true worth by what he has in his heart rather than by what he has in his pocket.

A woman's idea of refinement is to be tall and thin.

Contagious Blood Poison

Is the name sometimes given to what is generally known as the BAD DIS-EASE. It is not confined to dens of vice or the lower classes. The purest and best people are sometimes infected with this awful malady through handling the clothing, drinking from the same vessels, using the same toilet articles, or otherwise coming in contact with persons who have contracted it.

It begins usually with a little blister or sore, then swelling in the groins, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores and ulcers appear in the mouth, the throat becomes ulcerated, the hair, eye brows and lashes fall out; the blood becoming more contaminated, copper colored spots and pustular eruptions and sores appear upon different parts of the body, and the poison even destroys the bones.

S. S. S. is a Specific for this loathsome disease, and cures it even in the worst forms. It is a perfect antidote for the powerful virus that pollutes the blood and penetrates to all parts of the system.

Unless you get this poison out of your blood it will ruin you, and bring disgrace and disease upon your children, for it can be transmitted from parent to child. S. S. S. contains no mercury or potash, but is guaranteed a strictly vegetable compound.

Write for our free home treatment book and learn all about Contagious Blood Poison. If you want medical advice give us a history of your case, and our physicians will furnish all the information you wish without any charge whatever.
