Dark Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a great many years, and although I am past eighty years of age, yet I have not a gray hair in my head."
Geo. Yellott, Towson, Md.

We mean all that rich, dark color your hair used to have. If it's gray now, no matter; for Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. Sometimes it makes the hair grow very heavy and long; and it stops falling of the hair, too.

THE present Congress has made appropriations aggregating one billion dollars. And yet when the Appalachian Park bill came up, the cry of economy sent it over till the next session.

THE Dublin papers say that since King Edward's illness turmoil is at an end, and that all classes sympathize with him. Just like the Irish, who never jump on a fellow when he is down.

THE Illinois Steel Company is not as big as the U S Steel Trust, but it has a bigger sense of the fitness of things. It has advanced the wages of its workmen 10 per cent on account of the increased cost of living.

LONDONERS are exhibiting a certain grim humor by wearing, apropos of the new ship trust, labels which read, "Permit—This is to certify that the bearer is allowed to walk the earth by permission of J Pierpont Morgan & Co."

A sure sign of insanity—an old negro in Virginia, who had worked hard and saved up a few hundred died the other day. He left a will and when it was opened his two sons who survived him were surprised to find he had left all of h's property to distant relatives, cutting them off entirely. They contested the will on the ground of insanity of the testator. At the trial an old negro, a neighbor of the testator, was called on as a witness for the caveators. Being asked if he knew anything to show that the old man was insane, he said: "Yes sir, about two years before he died he asked me if 'possum was good to eat."

RINGWOOD LETTER.

RECOLLECTIONS OF A PLEASANT VISIT TO KINSTON—PERSONAL MENTION

In 1891, the writer visited relatives in Kinston, and remained there several years. During the time, many kind Christian friends bestowed special attentions, which will never be forgotten. Among those affectionately remembered will mention, Mrs. J. W. Grainger, and Mrs. J. Q Jackson, mother and aunt of the young bride, Mrs W. A. Pierce. Congratulations are extended through the columns of the NEWS, to the couple and best wishes for their present and future happiness. Doubtless the beautiful school girl, as maiden, then, will be quite an acquisition to Weldon as wife, now.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garrett and infant son, recently visited the family of Mr. C. A. Williams.

Mr. George A. Gossett has visited his mother and other relatives in this section. After faithful service in Havana, Cuba, as a soldier in the late Spanish war, and returning to the land of his birth, he richly deserved, and met a warm welcome.

Touchingly beautiful are those remarks in last NEWS, about the simple petition, "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" Memory reverts to early childhood days, mother teaching me that prayer, while kneeling by her side. It has never been intentionally omitted since.

THE UNFINISHED PRAYER.

"Now I lay me"—say it, darling;
"Lay me," lisped the tiny lips
Of my daughter, kneeling, bending
O'er her folded finger-tips.

"Down to sleep"—"To sleep," she murmured,
And the curly head dropped low;
"I pray the Lord," I gently added,
"You can say it all, I know."

"Pray the Lord," the words came faintly,
Fainter still—"My soul to keep!"
Then the tired head fairly nodded
And the child was fast asleep.

But the dewy eyes half opened,
When I clasped her to my breast,
And the dear voice softly whispered,
"Mamma God knows all the rest."

Oh, the trusting, sweet confiding
Of the child heart! Would that I
Thus might trust my Heavenly Father,
He who hears my feeblest cry!

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.
