

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, dispirits and saps ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy, the immediate effect of the medicine being the relief of the bladder. Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold in fifty-cent, fifty-cent and one dollar bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Do not make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N.Y., on every bottle.

HAD FITS.—There were a half dozen men during two or three days last week who fell heir to one fit a piece near the Bank of Weldon. Each fit was in three parts and these parts were in succession. Eye witnesses say they were the most complete fits they ever saw. If you are interested in fits on general principles call at G. & S., next door to Bank of Weldon, and learn more about them. They are hustling for business and their goods and treatment are worthy of farther investigation.

BRILLIANT WEDDING AT THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, IN WHICH A WELL KNOWN NORTHAMPTON MAN WEDS A BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTER OF WELDON.—QUIET HOME WEDDING AT INDOUBT, IN WHICH THE LOVELY MISS MAUDE INGE BECOMES THE BRIDE OF MR. ELIAS CARR, OF EDGECOMBE.

The Methodist Episcopal church was the scene of a brilliant wedding yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which hour Mr. Waverly Bell Fitzhugh, of Northampton county, was married to Miss Mary Esther Zollicoffer, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Zollicoffer. Rev. W. W. Rose, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The church was artistically decorated under the skillful management of Mrs. F. W. Garrett, a noticeable feature being a large heart made of evergreens and suspended just back of the pulpit, while potted plants and choice flowers were profusely arranged about the chancel.

At the hour appointed and just as the bridal party entered the vestibule, Mrs. W. T. Shaw sang with exquisite taste, "Believe." Then Miss Laura Powers, who presided at the organ, began the grand old Mendelssohn wedding march, and the attendants came in as follows, walking in single file down right and left aisles: Misses Susie and Nannie Zollicoffer, two little sisters of the bride, who were ribbon girls.

Mr. John Ellis and Miss Jessie Edwards, first bride's maid.

Mr. W. M. Cohen and Miss Virgie Suiter.

Mr. Joseph Suiter and Miss Bertha Allen.

Mr. S. R. Clay and Miss Alice Joyner.

Then came the bride, who wore a handsome going-away-gown of champagne broad cloth, and carrying Bride's roses, with her as her maid of honor, Miss Patty Bell Sumnerell, who was gowned in gray crepe de sheen, and carrying a bouquet of bridesmaid's roses, and wearing black picture hat.

The bridegroom entered with his best man, Mr. Edwin T. Zollicoffer, and at the chancel rail the contracting parties formed the center of an interesting group, and then Rev. W. W. Rose, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The church was darkened and there were red and white electric lights, giving a soft and pleasing effect, the owners of the electric plant having kindly offered to run the lights during the marriage.

Those who acted as ushers were Messrs. F. W. Garrett, T. C. Harrison, R. S. Travis and W. H. Joyner.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh left via the Atlantic Coast Line for an extended trip north. They will visit Niagara Falls during their journey and will spend a few days in Canada.

The bride is an exceedingly handsome young lady, and is noted for her lovely disposition of heart and mind and is a general favorite in social circles and greatly beloved by all.

Mr. Fitzhugh is a splendid young man, and popular with every one, and is to be congratulated in his good fortune in winning for a bride one of Weldon's loveliest young women.

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE.

A SEABOARD AIR LINE YARD MASTER IS ATTACKED BY A NEGRO AND SHOTS IN SELF DEFENSE.

James Henry Banks, colored, a yard hand, was shot and instantly killed here Monday morning about 9 o'clock by night yard master, C. A. Hudson, of the Seaboard Air Line. The negro, who was large and strong as a giant, attacked Mr. Hudson at the railroad crossing near the round house, had him in the collar and down upon the embankment. Mr. Hudson is a small man, and realizing that there was no escape and fearing that he would be killed or receive great bodily harm, he fired in self defense. He did not want to kill the negro and fired about the shoulder at first. Banks became more aggressive and had his powerful right arm raised to strike when Hudson fired the fatal shot. Banks ran off, wheeled around and started back, but fell upon the track and died in a few moments.

Special coroner Garrett was notified and he summoned a jury of inquest consisting of the following gentlemen, Messrs. Sam Brown, C. G. Evans, S. D. Hancock, R. S. Gary, W. B. Drewry, and Lucius Green. The jury viewed the body about ten o'clock and then adjourned over until 7 p. m.

When the case came up at night the hall was well crowded. Mr. David Bell, of the firm of Day and Bell, and Mr. T. C. Harrison, appeared for Mr. Hudson. Several witnesses were examined. Mr. W. W. Williams, chief of the wrecking crew, however, was the only eye witness and his testimony was clear and given without prejudice. He said: "I was on the engine when Mr. Hudson came along and called me. We were talking when Banks came by and passed on, walking a car length from us. He then turned around and came back and wanted to know what Hudson was telling me. I told him Mr. Hudson said that he (Banks) had cured him. Banks turned to Hudson and made a remark. Hudson said 'that's not so.' Banks said, 'if you say that's not so, you are a G—d—stinking liar,' and grabbed Hudson in the collar and shoved him across the track and up against the bank. I heard the pistol fire, saw that Banks had Hudson in a tight place and after Hudson had fired four or five times, I saw Banks run off, then wheel around with a look as if he intended to rush upon Hudson again, but he fell upon the track." Mr. Williams being questioned by Attorney Bell, said that Banks could easily have handled two or three men like Hudson. That Hudson ceased firing the minute Banks released him and did not fire another shot.

Mr. Gort and Mr. W. D. Stainback were next examined, they did not see the shooting but told of the difficulty leading up to the killing of Banks.

Bryant Manly, colored, was a witness but he did not know anything about it, he only heard the report of the pistol.

After argument by Messrs. Bell and Harrison, the jury took the case and after deliberating for a short time returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that James Henry Banks came to his death, while making an aggressive assault and attack upon one Carter A. Hudson, by a pistol shot from the hands of said Carter A. Hudson, acting in self defense; and we further find that it was justifiable homicide, and that the said Hudson is guilty of no crime, as he used no more force than was necessary to defend himself against said unlawful assault and attack by the deceased."

Signed, W. B. DREWRY,
L. N. GREEN,
R. S. GARY,
SAM BROWN,
S. D. HANCOCK,
C. G. EVANS.

After receiving the verdict the coroner immediately ordered that Mr. Hudson be discharged from custody.

SCIT SETTLE.—The following appeared in the editorial columns of the News and Observer, dated February 19, and will be read with interest by Mr. Sumnerell's many friends in Halifax county:

In its issue of Wednesday, July 19, 1899, this paper made charges of cruelty to the convicts under him against Mr. E. L. Sumnerell, of Northampton, who was then supervisor of the Northampton State farm.

For these charges Mr. Sumnerell brought suit against the editor of this paper and the News and Observer Publishing Company. This suit has now been compromised and settled and we do not withdraw all charges heretofore made in the columns of the News and Observer against Mr. Sumnerell and regret their publication.

These charges, when made, were based upon reports which then appeared to be correct, but which we are now advised by leading and prominent gentlemen of Northampton county were incorrect and unjust to Mr. Sumnerell.

FORGOT THE EDITOR.—The editor of The Wirograss Blade throws out this hint to a subscriber:—

"Mr. Job Pardee killed hogs Tuesday morning. He some time ago promised to remember us with some backbones and sperris, but he did not do so. We lean upon very good authority that two of the hogs killed by Mr. P. weighed twenty-six pounds each."

SAYS WE SHOULD HAYN A BAIKOR.—Mr. J. W. Grainger, of Winston, spent several days in town last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pierce.

In conversation with a representative of this paper Mr. Grainger said there was no reason why Weldon should not become the most important manufacturing and commercial town in Eastern Carolina. He said that in his opinion one of Weldon's greatest needs was a bridge over Roanoke river. With our water power, railroad facilities and many other advantages he appeared surprised that the property owners of the town did not take active steps to have this bridge.

"Weldon, in his opinion, would greatly benefit every business man and property owner in Weldon."

TRUENOOD-HERBERT.—The following clipped from the New Orleans Picayune, will be read with interest by Halifax county people:

At St. Ann Church on Wednesday, Feb. 4, 1903, Pearl, daughter of the Hon. John Herbert, was married by the Rev. Father Bogart to S. Leonard Truendood, of Weldon, N. C. The bride looked beautiful in her traveling dress of castor cloth, trimmed with grapes and blue chiffon, with hat to match. She wore a quiet home wedding, there being present only members of the family and a few intimate friends.

The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was most impressively performed by Rev. W. W. Rose.

Just before the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. W. T. Shaw, who presided at the piano, sang "Oh Perfect Love," and then she struck up Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the ceremony there were soft strains, under her artistic touch, from Rustiana Cavalier.

After the ceremony the bridal party came to Weldon, where they took the 11:30 train over the Atlantic Coast Line for the home of the late Governor Elias Carr, in Edgecombe county.

The bride is one of the handsomest young women in Halifax county and is popular and beloved by a large circle of relatives and friends. Our best wishes go with her to her new home.
