But we everlock the fact that would shrink to the same size at home that they do down town. the particular spot in this world which we are given to occupy is, and will be, precisely what we choose to make it whether we do right or wrong, whether we are happy or otherwise, depends very largely, if not entirely, on ourselves.

We have all experienced the feeling of brightness which a sunshiny woman carries with her wherever she goes She may have just as many worries to face, just as many anxieties to bear, but she overcomes them largely by a bright sunny disposition. We are not all capable of laughing in the face of trouble or adversity, but we can at least make an attempt and even if the laugh lacks the ring of heartiness, it is infinitely better than the
