THE COLONEL'S WATERLOO.

Colonel John M. Fulller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and, although DEMOCRATS DION'T GRIEVE LONG. I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bettle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. 1 consider them the best medicine on earth and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by W. M. Cohen, druggist, at 50c. a bottle.

THE EDITOR'S CAREER.

The stork disappears and we look into the cradle and behold a male child. After running the gauntlet of measles, mumps and chickenpox he coters school. At the age of ten he is a redheaded, freekled faced boy and the terror of the neighborbood At twelve he is an apprentice in a printing office. At eighteen he has acquired two cases of long primer and an army press, and is the editor of a country a 'bel'ing.' Horne were tooted, bells newspaper. At twenty he is married At thirty he is bald headed, stoop shouldered and the father of a large family, At thirty five he is a corpse in a cheap pine coffin, and as 500 delinquent subscribers file past his bier for the last look, they are heard to say: "He was a good fellow, but he could not save his money."-Ex.

PRESERVING HUSBANDS.

For this purpose select a nice, kind amiable, industrious, generous man. The American variety is for better than the foreign kind. Prepare him by having him go through a long engagement which effectually renders him easy to handle. Gently detach him from all of his old friends and acquaintances and remove any habits he may have. He is thee ready to can, preserve or make jam as you choose

To out, merely deprive him of his latchkey and thr w a handful of motherin-law in the house Men corked up like this have been known to keep for years without spoiling, though when they are opened up, if kept too long they are apt to be sour. To make iam prepare as before, but shed all of his finer feelings by nagging and pound them into a pulp by complaints. To preserve a husband, put us much love into the heart as it will hold, add an ocean of sympathy, a world of tenderness, a pound of forebearance, a dram of patience and drop him loto it until he is thoroughly costed over with sugar Husb ut should always be cristaline one at a time, never in pairs; neither should they ever be stood in hot water This is where many women make mis takes. -- Verypt is ''nomercial Appeal
