CURED AFTER ALL OTHERS FAILED

Hon. J. P. GIBSON, of Bennettsville, S. C., a well known member of the South Carolina Legislature, has voluntarily written to "The Field," the Conway, S. C., newspaper, the highest possible praise of

Rheumacide

"GET AT THE JOINTS FROM THE INSIDE."

He writes the Bulletin Chemical Co., Sept. 8, 1904, that his daughter, Miss Kate Gibson, had a terrible case of Rheumatism that all other medicines and many doctors had tried in vain to cure. "She could not walk a step," he writes, "and would cry and scream from pain. From the week she began to use Rheumacide she improved, and is now absolutely cured of this terrible disease. For Rheumatism, that remains a speck, and I cannot address you I have written, so she adds her name—Margaret L. Gibson."

This is one out of thousands of instances where this wonderful medicine has been used to cure Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, and all other ailments of the joints.

BOY.

BOYS. THEY MAKE US SIGH FOR THE INNOCENCE WE HAVE OUTLIVED AND WHICH MIGHT YET HAVE BEEN OURS.

You may present your catalogue of all the most lovely and lovable objects of earth and sea and sky, and, without a moment's hesitation, I shall choose from among them all a little child. The blessed Christ set such a one in the midst of his disciples as a model and example for all those, matured in sin, who would prepare for entrance into the eternal kingdom. Today that man who is farthest removed from the faith and confidence of childhood is the one most in danger of everlasting torment.

The world has taken it for granted that little girls are good, just because they are; and then somehow it has spread abroad, as by common consent, that little boys are bad. I wonder who started this story on the boys? There is not a word of truth in it. A baby boy is just as good as a baby girl, and neither is worse than the other until one is led astray by some tongue that has been taught to wound or deceive, while the other remains in the gentle presence of a warm, true heart that beams with light and love.

Another false notion seems to have become current, and that is that it is just as necessary for boys to be bad as it is for girls to be good. I believe that naturally every boy is good. God made him so, and intended that he should remain so. If he does not, God is not to blame; and if the child does that which is bad before he is old enough to discern between good and evil, he is not to blame. He is simply imitating older people.

The man who is cheated, slandered or persecuted during the business of the day goes home at night and looks into the eyes of his pure innocent boy, and regards him as a vindication of God—that makes all things good.

I've seen a man wear a frown a week and carry a grudge in his heart all his life, but I've seen a boy's tears dried and his wounds healed instantaneously by a mother's kiss. I've seen grown people pound and fret because of supposed slight, but I've seen a sadly neglected boy quiet and uncomplaining. I've seen men brawl and fight over slight differences of opinion, but I've seen an unmercifully beaten boy kiss the hand of his heartless parent as soon as the smacking ceased. I've seen men plunge into questionable enterprises without stopping to think, but I've seen a boy hold back from inviting amusements and asks: "Father, do you think it is wrong?" God bless the boys! the pure, true boys. They make us sigh for the innocence we have outlived and which might yet have been ours.

A MADE FOR LIFE.

Spurring his faded horse to renewed efforts when the animal should be refreshed with proper food and rest, is about as sensible as prescribing nerve tonics, alcoholic compounds, coca mixtures and cocktails which only spur on the already weakened nervous system. Neither does it do to put the nerves to sleep with narcotics. When you feel worn-out, broken-down, jaded, and feel the effects of brain tire as well as nerve weakness, sleeplessness and fatigue, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a tonic which will do you lasting good. Build you up, increase your appetite and strength and improve the condition of the blood. When the blood is impoverished the nerves feel the effect. Nervousness in nine cases out of ten is the cry of the starved nerves for food. Feed the nerves on rich blood and all nervous manifestations will cease. "I have been suffering for about eight years," writes Mrs. H. Pierce, of Millington, Ky. "I have had several attacks to treat me—some for female weakness and others for stomach trouble, but received no relief. When I wrote you for advice I was hardly able to work, and you advised me what to do. I took nine bottles, five of Golden Medical Discovery, four of Favorite Prescription, and two of the Peppermint. Dr. Pierce's medicine will do all that you claim for them."

To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 300 pages. Send 25 cents in stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound, 1907, addressed to Dr. W. B. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

POSTMORTEM KINDNESS.

THE KIND WORDS YOU INTEND TO SAY, SAY NOW. THE GENEROUS DEEDS YOU INTEND TO SHOW, SHOW NOW.

Life's sunshine is braided with death's shadow. I have attended hundreds of funerals—a recent one stands out with special sadness. The faithful wife and mother lay still and at rest. The flowers were many and beautiful. Always and everywhere appropriate, their perfume lips spoke of the eternal garden and the life song its gladness Easter song. The service was over. There was the last fond kiss and look. As the heart broken daughter left the coffin she had said: "Mamma loved flowers—she never had many—but she has now." Yes, I thought, but how much better it had been if some of these beautiful flowers had sweetened the mother's heart before it was still in death.

Poor Caroly! He little appreciated the wife who cared for him so kindly and made possible his literary success. It all came to him after she died. He went to the place where she was last seen alive, bared his head in the wind and rain, and said: "Oh! If I could but see her five minutes to assure her that I had really cared for her throughout all that! But she never knew it—she never knew it!"

Mary gave the alabaster box of affection before the Lord's death. Many others lay until the flowers they send are for the sepulchre. Better late than never. Better never late. The kind words you intend to say, say now. The generous deeds you intend to show, show now. Record your love now in your friend's toilsome days, not in the future on his dreary tombstone. What are hot tears on the marble brow, loving words in the heavy ear, or a fragrant rose in the death white fingers?

"You placed this flower in her hand, you say, This pure, pale rose in her hand of clay? Methinks, could she lift her sealed eyes They would meet your own with a grieved surprise!

When did you give her a flower before? Oh, well, what matter when all is o'er?" "Behold now is the accepted time."—G. L. Merrill.

LITTLE BROTHER'S SCHEME.

"I wish you was a good deal smaller, Mr. Slowleigh." "Why so, Johnnie?" "Cause then I could put you in my corn popper and hold you over a hot fire. His says she's been waiting for you to pop for 'most a year."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

One song is worth a score of sermons. They who hunt trouble rarely come home with an empty bag.

LAST HOPE VANISHED.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smirhart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c, and $1.00 bottles at W. M. Cohen's drug store. Trial bottles free.

A SINGER'S NOTE.

The Singer—"He carries a note longer longer than any one I know." The Banker—"Perhaps. But I've carried one of his for a year now."—Yonkers Herald.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

A STEEL TRUST.

"I'll try to steal her heart," quoth he "And win her sweetest smiles," "I'll try to steal my heart," said she, "Against Love's subtle wiles," So both in steel began to deal, And, as you may opine, Love soon declared a dividend And started a combine.

FRIGHTFUL SUFFERING RELIEVED.

Suffering frightfully from the violent poisons of indigestion, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c. at W. M. Cohen's drug store, guaranteed.

THE LIFE BEYOND.

TO LOSE THE WONDERFUL POSSIBILITIES THAT THERE AWAIT ALL THE REDEEMED IS ONE OF THE WORST THINGS WHICH COULD BEFALL US.

Man, in the exercise of his fullest possible powers, is but the merest fraction of himself. He is only a hint of what he shall be if he will but let God have his way with him. If here his regal will can rule nations and make the subtle forces of the universe to be his willing servants, what may he not do when God has stricken every impediment from his soul and given him all eternity to grow in? If now he can measure the circumference of stars and literally "weigh the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance," can we give even a guess at what he will be when he is given the power of an endless life, and there shall be no death to break in on his expanding powers? Now we know in part. We can deal only in fragments, with chips from the quarries, with a drop here and there from the ocean, with a fugitive beam of light, with a sporadic dust-grain from the mountains, and with but a small segment of time in which to experiment. The hope of glory is a dream for which the whole world can give no substitute, and to lose the wonderful possibilities that there await the redeemed in glory is one of the worst and saddest things which could befall any of us in this world.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 60c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistakes, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Theiford's Black-Draught comes nearer regulating the entire system and keeping the body in health than any other medicine made. It is always ready in any emergency to treat ailments that are frequent in any family, such as indigestion, biliousness, colds, diarrhoea, and stomach aches.

Theiford's Black-Draught is the standard, never-failing remedy for stomach, bowel, liver and kidney troubles. It is a cure for the domestic ills which so frequently summon the doctor. It is as good for children as it is for grown persons. A dose of this medicine every day will soon cure the most obstinate case of dyspepsia or constipation, and when taken as directed brings quick relief.

Ask your dealer for a package of Theiford's Black-Draught and if he does not keep it send to Theiford's Black-Draught Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed to you.
