Don't Let

LET NO MEAN THING RUFFLE THE SERENITY OF YOUR SOUL.

There is a wide and deep philosophy contained in that phraseology of the street—"Forget it." It is as important to forget as to remember. One is as difficult as the other. And ability along one line is as hard as to acquire as the other. Both must be cultivated.

It is impossible to become an optimist without learning how to forget. Disagreeable things are bound to happen and one must train one's self to wipe them off the mind as the boy wipes the figures from his slate. Having erased the ugly memories, it is easier to write the pleasant things on the slate of the memory.

The man who considers himself a pessimist, who treasures up a wrong, who nurses an injury, who lets ignoble hatreds fester in his heart, cannot be a happy man. His soul is like a crouched tiger ready to spring upon the victim of his wrath. Learn how to forget.

If it is easier for you to put on record in your memory personal grievances and to bug an ugly feeling, it is because you have chosen to do so. If you hoard up in your mind the unhappy episodes of life, it is because you have formed the habit of doing so.

To persist in that habit of mind will make you miserable in the disposition to remember. Learn to forget.

Let go the uninspiring, the depressing and weakening grievance. Hold on to the memories that cheer and brighten. There is not room for both. Wipe out the resentments. Write in the place of your hatreds the things that are pure and just and lovely and of good report. Let no mean thing ruffle the serenity of your soul.

Forget it.

FEMINE PHILOSOPHY.

Woman is more forgiving than man, but she is not more forgetful.

The bashful man furnishes lots of amusement for womankind.

The young woman's best weapon is beauty and the older one's tact.

The twentieth century matrimonial yoke seems to be made of paper.

The woman who has absolutely no sense of humor is oftentimes the most amusing one.

The average wife knows that to be perfectly happy she must be blind to many of her husband's faults.

The modern man who wants to succeed with modern woman doesn't rely solely upon flattery.

A woman often makes a fool of herself because it is expected of her; a man does the same thing because he can't help himself.

Every woman has a secret sorrow of which the world is unaware, and oftentimes her sadness is mistaken for coldness.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?

A woman simply must love something—be it man or dog.

Getting married is as much of a gamble as swopping horses.

No modern grand widow is inclined to run to bay.

There is a fixed role for doing almost everything—except making love.

Some men think without talking and some talk without thinking.

Gossips have no use for people who refuse to furnish material for them.

When a man criticizes your actions he expects you to praise his.

Perhaps more people would dwell in the state of matrimony were it not for its variable atmosphere.—Chicago News.

PERIL IN THE HAND-SHAKE.

Not long ago Dr. J. N. Hirsch, of Chicago, said: "The most delicate perfume upon the hands is not a sign of freedom from germs, and the most refined are not free from germs of lungs or throat, and the germs are rapidly spread by touching the hand that has handled the handkerchief of one afflicted with a cold, catarrh or consumption. The breath one inhales from the lungs of another may contain germs of disease." You will not only be able to resist the germs of consumption, but many thousands of cases have been known where persons who were suffering from incipient phthisis, or the early stages of consumption were absolutely cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It maintains a person's nutrition by enabling him to eat, retain, digest and assimilate food. It overcomes the gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and thus the person is saved from those symptoms of fever, night sweats, headache, etc., which are so common.

An alternative extract like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, will assist the stomach in assimilating or taking up from the food such elements as are required for the support of the system. Do not permit some designing druggist to insult your intelligence by offering you a remedy which he claims is "just as good" because he made it up himself, or ten chances to one you will get a medicine made up largely of alcohol, which will only weaken the system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is heartily recommended by every person who has ever used it and it has stood the test of thirty-eight years of approval from people all over the United States.

Price. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send at one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or in stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TIRED MOTHERS.

[Reprinted By Request]

A little elbow leans upon your knee,
Your tired knee, that has so much to bear;
A child's dear eyes are looking lovingly
From underneath a thatch of tangled hair,
Perhaps you do not heed the velvet touch
Of warm, moist fingers, folding yours so tight—
You do not prize this blessing over-much,
You are almost too tired to pray to-night.

But it is a blessedness! A year ago
I did not see it as I do today—
We are so dull and thankful and too slow
To catch the sunshine till it slips away,
And now it seems surprising strange to me
That, while I wore the badge of motherhood,
I did not kiss more oft and tenderly
The little child that brought me only good.

And if some night, when you sit down to rest,
You miss the elbow from your tired knee,
This restless, curling head from off your breast,
This lapping tongue that clatters constantly
If from your own dimpled hands had slipped,
And ne'er would restle in your palm again;
If the white feet into their grave had tripped,
I could not blame you for your heartache then!

I wonder so that mothers fret
At little children clinging to their gowns,
Or that the footprints, when the days are wet,
Are ever black enough to make them frown.
If I could kiss a rosy, restless foot,
And hear a patter in my home once more;
If I could mend a broken cart today,
Tomorrow make a kite to reach the sky—
There is no woman in God's world could say
She was more blissfully content than I.

But ah! the dainty pillow next my own
Is never rumpled by a shining head;
My singing birdling from its nest has flown,
The little boy I used to kiss is dead!

—Mrs. Mary Riley Smith.

NO SECRET ABOUT IT.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Bare Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at all druggists' drug stores.

The world is a dark place to the man whose eyes are in his pocket.

A BAD SCARE.

Some day you will get a bad scare, when you feel a pain in your bowels, and fear appendicitis. Safety lies in Dr. King's New Life Pills, a sure cure, for all bowel and stomach diseases, such as headache, biliousness, constiveness, etc. Guaranteed at all druggists' drug stores, only 25c. Try them.

WATCH AN INCH THICK.

In these days of watches no thicker than a silver dollar, which jewelers show with pride to their fastidious customers, a timepiece of two centuries ago is a rare curiosity.

Such a one is shown in the collection of the Bostonian society at the old state house, Boston. It represented in its day, probably, the height of fashion in watches. Its case of silver is heavy and its thick crystal mob crowned with a flat disc at the top, the size of a dime. The dial is silver, as well as the fob chain and clasp. The entire thickness of the watch is more than an inch.

This ancient timepiece was made in 1676, in London, by Thomas Plannor. So well did the maker do his work that after 228 years the watch probably could be relied on to tell the time if properly cleaned and repaired.

WOMEN AS WELL AS MEN ARE MADE MISERABLE BY KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness of soul disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as many people suppose.

Women, as well as men are made miserable by kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail (if not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. THE RENTIER'S ADVANTAGES.

"If we economize," said the husband, "we will soon have a house of our own instead of having to live in rented property."

"But I'm not sure I should like that," answered the wife. "I couldn't drive nails anywhere I please in the walls or woodwork of our own house, you know."
—Chicago News.

FOOLED HIM.

"Why am I like a pig?" asked Mr. Jones triumphantly of his wife. He expected she was going to say, "Because you are so sharp," and he was simply paralyzed who she replied:

"Because if you should get lost it wouldn't be worth while to spend time looking for you."

Fitting in The Streets.

MEN ALWAYS TAKE A GIRL AT HER OWN ESTIMATE.

"I wish I could make the girl who flirts in the street see herself as others see her. When she makes eyes at a man he, of course, returns the compliment (?) with interest. It does not mean that he thinks her pretty or attractive; he simply means that he thinks if this girl does not respect herself, why should I respect her. Men always take a girl at her own estimate. If she is self-respecting, dignified and ladylike, they will treat her accordingly. If she is forward, bold-looking and ready to meet familiarity, they will meet her on her own ground. They will be free and easy and hail follow well met with her, but they won't care to introduce her to their sisters, and they will never fall in love with her. Girls often complain that they can't walk down the street without being spoken to by some man. As a rule it is entirely a girl's own fault if she is spoken to or insulted in any way. If she walks straight ahead, looking and behaving as a modest, ladylike girl should, she will be comparatively free from annoyance. Men know perfectly well the girls to whom they can speak. Another girl who is minding her own business may walk un molested from one end of the city to the other.

"Ever since the world began woman has occupied the enviable position of being the one sought after. Man has placed her on a pedestal and has been content to worship her and work for her and woo her. Just as long as she keeps her womanliness she will keep her place on the pedestal. When she, for her own accord, climbs down, making herself easy of conquest and, therefore, less desirable, she is in danger of losing her place on the pedestal for good and all. The girl who flirts and has men following her and speaking to her is laboring under the mistaken idea that she is receiving attention of a most objectionable sort and is dangerously near insult."

A Living Monument.

If we were to assemble all those who have been cured of heart disease by Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and who would to-day be in their graves had not Dr. Miles' been successful in perfecting this wonderful heart specific, they would populate a large city.

What a remarkable record—a breathing, thinking, moving monument, composed of human lives,—that for which every other earthly possession is sacrificed.

The Miles Medical Co. receive thousands of letters from these people like the following:

"I feel indebted to the Dr. Miles' Heart Cure for my life. I desire to call the attention of others suffering as I did to this remarkable remedy for the heart. For a long time I had suffered from shortness of breath after any little exertion, palpitation of the heart; at times terrible pain in the region of the heart, so serious that I feared that I would some time drop dead upon the street. One day I read one of your papers, and immediately went to my druggist and purchased two bottles of the Heart Cure, and took it according to directions, with the result that I am entirely cured. Since I have never had an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends who are afflicted with heart trouble, in fact I am traveling advertisement for it. I am widely known in this locality."

Manager of Lebanon Democrat, Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you, or it falls he will refund your money.
