COMING—HUMPHRY DUMPHY—"Humphry Dumphy" is coming to town with all the well remembered environments, more elegant and more attractive than ever. The company will be at Emory's Hall, on Monday night, October 9th. George H. Lane, the famous pantomimist and clown will be in the title role, and will be assisted by a cohort of pretty girls, a full chorus of well-trained voices and many clever comedians. Vanderville, comic opera and pantomime will be interspersed throughout the plot, while the latest films of moving pictures and the most recent illustrations will round out a performance which for novelty and extravagant scenic and electric effects cannot be surpassed. The great mystery "Eve, or the Birth of Woman," will be the star feature of the engagement. Crowded houses everywhere. One of the best shows ever in the South.

RESIGNATION OF A PASTOR.—Rev. W. Morgan, pastor of the Baptist church here, has tendered his resignation to the congregation of the church to accept a call to West Virginia.

Mr. Morgan accepted the call to the vicarage of the church here three years ago and during his ministry in Weldon he labored earnestly and faithfully for the good of his flock. Mr. Morgan was greatly aided in his pastoral work by Mrs. Morgan, and during their stay in Weldon they have made many friends, not only among members of their own church but of other denominations, all of whom regret to give them up.

Tickets on sale October 9th to 14th inclusive, with final return limit October 16th. All tickets include one admission coupon to the Horse Show.

R. M. PURNELL.—The firm of R. M. Purnell & Bro. will hereafter be R. M. Purnell. Mr. J. A. Purnell has disposed of his interest in the business to his brother and Mr. R. M. Purnell now becomes sole owner and manager and will continue to do an up-to-date grocery business at the same old stand. He desires to return thanks to his many friends for their liberal patronage in the past, assuring them of his best efforts to merit a continuance in the future. He will be grateful to those whose accounts are overdue if they will come forward and settle the old balances due R. M. Purnell & Bro. "Buster" is an enterprising young business man, thoroughly reliable and enjoys the good will and confidence of the public.

THE VAN AMBURG SHOW.—The performances under the big tent given here last week by the Van Amburg people were, in many reports, the best ever seen in Weldon. The daring trapeze acts of the little girls were simply wonderful, as were also their acrobatic performances. The slack wire walking, the tumbling and riding were all among the best seen here in years and the Van Amburg people presented some new features in the saw dust arena that won the admiration of the thousands present.

They have the largest, as well as the smallest, elephant in captivity; other animals from the wilds of Africa and some birds of beautiful plumage. The managers impressed us as being clever and courteous and we can truthfully say that it was one of the cleanest and best shows we have seen here in some years.

Oh, Goyer's Maple Syrup is in town! A syrup fine of much renown; It makes the children dance and sing, And sets the plumber and the king Agog with appetizing glees for what 'Thro' Fancy's eye they see— A stream so golden, clear and sweet, 'Twould tempt an anchorite to eat, Poured over smoking lard-bread cakes Or hot corn pone that Dinah makes Or biscuit brown, just from the pan, Or flapjacks dear to boy and man From little tots to mothers tall, It's liked by each, it's liked by all. The purity of Maple and 'woody' flavor give it fame.

Wherever people think the best is not too good for self or guest. Then buy the syrup of this rhyme. The one is known in every clime. Goyer's Maple Syrup is sold by E. Clark, Weldon, N. C.

OLD FRIENDS MEET.—Mrs. Susan A. Thomas, of Northampton county, who was here visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. B. Zollioffer, and Mrs. Mary E. Morcock of this town, had a pleasant meeting last Thursday. They were friends to the old days and had no sense each other for over sixty years. Mrs. Thomas is now 77 years old and Mrs. Morcock is 91. There was something pathetic and dramatic in the meeting. When last they had looked into each other's faces Mrs. Thomas was a girl of 17 years, and Mrs. Morcock was a woman of 34 years. What memories must have clustered about this meeting; what great changes have taken place, what stirring times they have passed through. The Civil war, with all its horrors, the days of reconstruction, the death of loved ones, the birth of children and grandchildren, the passing away of more than half a century, and yet out of it all these two friends of other days meet once more. They talked of their younger days, of the joys and sorrows that have entered into their lives and of the years that have slipped into the past, leaving them aged, and with silvered heads, but with hearts that are still young. May this meeting be to them the renewing of youth and a prolonging of their days upon earth.

HEBREW HOLIDAYS.—Friday at sunset was the beginning of the Hebrew New Year, and from sunset Friday till sunset Saturday the day was observed as a holiday and all places of business were closed. On next Tuesday comes the Day of Atonement.

The New Year in Hebrew is known as "Rosh Hashanah," and the Day of Atonement, "Yom Kippur." Wherever the members of the faith may be, they will be found in the synagogues on the above days. The services are very elaborate and the synagogues are filled to overflowing.

The beginning of the New Year marks a period of great rejoicing. Presents and cards are exchanged and calling is in order. The reformed Hebrews only observe one day, while the orthodox, following the ancient custom, keep two days.

In direct contrast to the New Year with its exchange of presents and congratulations is the solemn Day of Atonement, the strictest holiday of all in the Jewish calendar. Services on the Day of Atonement last all day and not a morsel of food passes the lips of the devout Jew for twenty-four hours, or from sunset to sunset.

A NEW ERA IN LIFE INSURANCE.—For years the big foreign life insurance companies have been making a fast and furious race for business. They have boasted in loaded head lines of the volume of insurance written. They have not counted the cost. The policyholders have been forgotten—anything to swell the business. They are now reaping the harvest of the frenzy. The public is now beginning to see through the glamour of mere big business, and a new era is dawning in life insurance when the question of thoughtful insurers is going to be not "how much business are you doing," but "what have you got to show for it."

The Southern Life and Trust Company of Greenboro began its life insurance business July 1st, 1903, with a surplus to policyholders of $290,000.00 and in two years has increased this protection to its policyholders to $260,287.86.

The Southern Life and Trust Company has a surplus to policyholders greater than any other Southern life insurance company (not industrial) and more than double that of any other North Carolina Life Insurance Company, and makes a larger reserve deposit on its policies with the State of North Carolina than any other company.

If interested call on or write Dr. E. Stainback, special agent, this office.

MEETING OF COTTON FARMERS.—The executive committee of the Halifax Branch of the Southern Cotton Association met at Halifax Monday, President W. C. Whitaker in the chair.

Mr. L. J. Baker said he thought a lecturer should be secured to canvass the county and he was willing to contribute $25.00 toward a fund for that purpose. Mr. F. P. Shields said "put me down for $25.00 also."

Mr. G. W. Bryan said he would contribute $10.00.

Dr. Ferguson agreed with Mr. Baker in his remarks and subscribed $10.00. Captain W. T. Jenkins believed that it was time to go to work and contributed $10.00. Mr. Powell, of Coonoona, and Chairman Whitaker each contributed $10.00.

Members of the executive committee were instructed to collect from the farmers in their respective townships, funds to aid in securing a lecturer. It was the sense of the meeting that lectures be delivered at convenient places in each township and that at each appointment there be a dinner prepared for all in attendance.

The members of the executive committee present retired and, after consultation, decided to ask Mr. E. K. Hilliard, editor of The Commonwealth, to present the work of the Association to the farmers at the meetings to be arranged. Mr. Hilliard, it is understood, will accept the invitation to deliver the lectures. He is a pleasing speaker and will doubtless draw large crowds at each appointment.

Mr. J. P. BURN, of Rocky Mount, has been selected as Chief Marshal for the Weldon fair. Mr. Burn will have a splendid corps of assistants, a full list of which will be published at an early day.

QUEEN OF AERIAL WONDERS.—Miss Zingarella, who by her wondrous daring has earned the title of "Queen of Aerial Wonders," has been engaged for the Weldon fair as one of the greatest attractions the world has to offer. Ascending the dizzy height the narrow pathway of a spiral tower upon a revolving globe with no protection, her act has been viewed with breathless amazement by countless thousands at the greatest places of amusement in the world. This little lady performs wondrous feats of daring never before attempted by a human being. We have aimed to get the best to be obtained, in Zingarella we have secured the most thrilling and sensational attraction in this or any other country. She challenges the world to equal her marvelous performance. Zingarella will perform every day at the great Weldon fair, this is but one of the countless attractions which you can't afford to miss. And also remember that the fair will be held on October 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th.

JAMES B. BRICKELL.—Mr. James B. Brickell, one of the best known citizens of Halifax county, died at his home near here Monday morning at 2 o'clock, aged 62 years and one month.

In the death of Mr. James Brickell the county has lost one of its most gallant sons, and the community in which he lived, a faithful, true and charitable neighbor and friend.

He was a brave soldier of the "lost cause" and served his State and country with that courage and devotion characteristic of his noble ancestors. Mr. Brickell was severely wounded at South Mountain and lay for three days and three nights upon the battlefield without nourishment of any description. In this crippled condition he was taken prisoner by the Union soldiers and was treated kindly. He carried the seal of the memorable conflict to the grave, never having recovered sufficiently from the wound he received to lay aside his crutches.

He was for a long time collector of taxes in this township and his accounts were scrupulously accurate and while he was faithful in collecting the taxes of the county he never willingly subjected any taxpayer to inconvenience, but indulged as far as it was in his power.

The funeral services took place from his late home Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. There was a large number of people present and many of his old comrades in arms, who helped to consign the remains of the soldier, citizen and friend to his last resting place. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. A. Humble, of the Weldon Methodist Episcopal church and the interment was in the family burying grounds.

Mr. Brickell leaves a devoted wife and a daughter, Mrs. W. L. Grimmer, who have the sincerest sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.
