WHAT WOMAN SUFFRAGE WILL DO.

IT WILL BRING ABOUT HUNDREDS OF REFORMS THAT WILL MAKE THIS OLD WORLD JUST BE LOVELY.

The national convention of Woman Suffragist was in session in Baltimore recently. The Baltimore Sun says of it: Woman suffrage will according to different speakers:

- Bring an end to war.
- Solve the divorce problem.
- End the contest between capital and labor.
- Make salaries and wages higher.
- Cause prices to be lowered.
- Bring an end to the supremacy of the servant girl.
- Settle the race problem.
- Purify municipal government.
- Decrease race suicide.
- Make babies plentiful, fat and precocious.
- Improve the complexion.
- Make jails and penitentiaries more congenial for criminals.
- Keep girls from getting too sentimental.
- Improve the methods of courtship.
- Cause factory girls to stop wearing red hats.
- Increase the age of messenger boys.
- Make Grover Cleveland admit that he knows nothing about women.
- Teach the boys and girls to go hand in hand to school and arm in arm to the polls.
- Make girls stop idolizing soldiers and show greater regard for the young men with tall foreheads and serious purposes.
- Bring about a hundred of other reforms that will make this world just lovely.

FROM THE PROFESSOR.

PERHAPS NOT STRICTLY IN ORDER, BUT STILL GOOD SENSE.

A young Southern lawyer sat in the Supreme court in which Justice Henry M. Gildersleeve was trying a case. "This is the first time I have ever seen the justice," he said, "but if he's so broad-minded as other members of his family there'll be no narrow application of the law in this case. A relative of his, Prof. Gildersleeve, was my professor in the University of Virginia. It was in the same class of which young Bradley Johnson, son of the famous Confederate General of that name, who died last fall, was a member. One day several of us had been out on a canoe and had failed to appear for recitations. It was our duty to report to Prof. Gildersleeve and make our excuses. I think it was I that was deputed to present the excuse. I hadn't said much when the professor broke in with a sternness which made us wish we couldn't tell the difference between French wine and corn whiskey. "Young gentlemen," he said, "you must realize you have entered upon the stern realities of life." "We all bowed humbly, wondering whether expulsion was to be our fate. "Young gentlemen," he added, "never take it with water. I never do. Good day, gentlemen."—New York Times.

LIKE SEEING OLD FRIEND.

The elderly cannibal greeted the new missionary warmly.

"Jackson?" he said, with a vigorous pressure of the hand. "Surely not K. Hooker Jackson III?"

"Yes," said the young man, beaming.

"Yes. Th same?"

"Then it will interest you to know, sir," said the savage, "that I once served your grandfather, the first K. Hooker."

"Looked? And in what way?" the missionary said.

"Broiled," the other answered, grinning ominously.

ALWAYS KEEPS CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IN HIS HOUSE

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or ever after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand.

THE FORSAKEN.

It has been said, for all who die there is a tear
Some pining, bleeding heart to sigh o'er every bier.
But in that hour of pain and dread who will draw near
Around my humble couch and shed one farewell tear.

Who'll watch life's fast departing ray in deep despair,
And soothe my spirit on its way with holy prayer?
What mouner 'round my bier will come in weeds of woe,
And follow me to my long home solemn and low?

When lying on my clayey bed in joy sleep,
Who there, by new affection led, will come and weep;
By the pale moon implant the rose upon my breast
And bid it cheer my dark repose—my lowly rest?

Could I but know, when I am sleeping low in the ground,
One faithful heart would there be keeping watch around,
As if some gem lay shined beneath that cold sod's gloom
'Twould mitigate the pangs of death and lighten the tomb.

Yes, in that hour if I could feel from halls of glee
And beauty's presence one would steal in secrecy,
And come and sit and weep by me in night's deep noon,
Oh! I would ask of memory no other boon.

But ah! a lonelier fate is mine, a deeper woe;
From all I love in youth's sweet time I soon must go.
Draw around me my pale robes of white, in a dark spot
To sleep, through death's long dreamless night, lone and forgot.

GOODBYE.

Good-bye, a lover whispers,
Standing beside the gate;
'Tis hard, so hard to leave you,
But we cannot alter fate;
Think of me love for aye,
Good-bye, sweetheart, good-bye.

Good-bye dear mother; hold me
Close to your loving heart,
Ah! how it hurts to say it,
To know that we must part;
List, list, the wild heart cry,
Good-bye, mother, good-bye.

The little wasted fingers
Rest calmly in our own,
And baby's bright young spirit,
Without a sigh or moan,
Steers for its home on high,
Followed by our good-bye.

EPIGRAMS ON WOMEN.

Emil Reicher in a recent London lecture said: "Nations differ in nothing more than in their women."

"You will never know what a woman is unless you suffer very much."

"Women do not love Napoleons; they love mere middle-class mediocrities."

"Men who want to found empires do not want the higher development of woman."

"You will in vain search history for a great man who has not been influenced by a great woman."

"In America the woman governs the man absolutely. In a certain sense the last man that came to America was Christopher Columbus."

DOCTORS ARE PUZZLED.

The remarkable recovery of Kenneth Melver, of Vanceboro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the throat and congestion of the lungs, three doctors gave me up to die, when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and I am happy to say, it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and La Grippe. Guaranteed at any drug store. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

SNUBBING HUSBY.

The lady was making some remarks about the kind of clothing some other ladies at church had on.

"The finest garments a woman can wear," said her husband "is the mantle of charity."

"Yes, she snapped, "and it is about the only dress, judging by the fuss they make over the bills, that some husbands want their wives to wear."

It takes a great deal of sunshine to produce a perfect peach or a perfect rose. The sunshine will do what clouds cannot do. It is the sunshine that gives the inimitable tint of beauty to fruit and flower.

No character is complete which lacks moral sunshine. Many a man has failed because he thought that life was too important and too short "to be trifled with," as he put it. But the fact is, the cheerful life is the healthy, productive life. Cheerfulness is as necessary to man as sunshine is to the flower. Nothing normal can be produced in darkness or in the shade. Sun is just as necessary to the normal life as water is to fish or as oil is to machinery.

Note it where we will, the smileless life—the life which has no brightness or sunshine, no humor or gladness—is morbid, sour, pessimistic. It is the joyous life, the cheerful, happy life that is helpful and inspiring. This is the sort of life the world wants. It has too many sour faces, too many vinegary countenances, too many critics, too much pessimism. It wants more sunshine, more optimism, more joy.

Is it not a pitiable thing to see people going through life peddling vinegar, radiating bitterness, criticizing, finding fault, seeing only the ugly, ignoring beauty, nagging, worrying, fretting and tearing down? Some people seem to have a genius for seeing the crooked, the ugly, the disagreeable. There are many vinegar peddlers. We need more joy peddlers, more sunshine makers, people who ignore the ugly, the bitter, the crooked, but who see the world of beauty and perfection which God has made. We need the people who see the man and the woman that God made—pure, clean, sane and healthy—not the ugly, diseased, discordant, criticizing one that sin, wrong thinking and wrong living have made. A man becomes strong and creative when he sees his fellow men and the world as God made them—but those who look for the bad, the ugly, the crooked, are never creative. They are never producers. They are destroyers. They tear down.—Success Magazine.

A TEXAS REMEDY FOR DIVORCE.

IT WOULD SAVE MANY A HEARTACHE, THOUGH IT MIGHT PLAY THE DIKENS WITH THE BUSINESS OF THE DIVORCE LAWYERS.

Lamar county furnishes a case of marriage after probation that is unique and suggestive.

A widower farmer desiring a wife was introduced by a mutual friend to a widow with children temporarily abiding in a charity institution. Both were favorably impressed on first acquaintance, but the lady had a saving sense of prudence and suggested that she keep house for the farmer for a week, and at the end of that time each could more intelligently determine the grave question of a union for life. Accordingly, she went, with her children, and was duly installed as housekeeper.

The experiment was eminently satisfactory to both parties and at the end of the week they were married.

The example is not altogether practical of emulation, and perhaps it will shock the sentimental and the romantic, but it contains the wise suggestion that folk desiring to become husband and wife should be sure of knowing each other in their common clothes and under workaday conditions. Parlor manners on the part of the lady and picnic gallantry on the part of the gentleman are not conclusive indexes of character, nor is the yam, yam of ecstasy of infatuation sufficient evidence of incompatibility.

If the man may not put the woman to a practical test in housekeeping, he may at least find occasion to observe her everyday temperament and her household accomplishments. If the lady may not test the man's disposition to hand over his pay check on Saturday nights, she may learn whether he is decent to his sister or his mother and whether his church assessment equals his bar bill.

An Illinois widow has cause to doubt her husband's love—for her money.

Love at first sight may require the services of an oculist after a second look.

Nothing succeeds like the successful harvest of a young man who has some wild oats.

TORTURE BY SAVAGES.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes of the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cashington, Me., "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood Disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

TOO BUSY TO HEAR IT.

"When the old man is shaking down the furnace, carrying out the ashes, leading the cat and six kittens, and making the beds," remarked the observer of events and things, "of course, he is too busy to hear his daughter in the parlor, singing: 'Everybody Works but Father.'"

FOR AN IMPAIRED APPETITE

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion and give you an appetite like a wolf. These Tablets also act as a gentle laxative.

THE CAUSE OF MANY Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney troubles are allowed to advance the kidney-pipe is a need blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away melt by cell.

Bladder troubles must always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery, and a book that tells all about it, both free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
