THE HUMORIST.

"See that man there?"
"Yes. What about him?"
"One of our great millionaires; but he has lost his appetite. The poor devil lives on milk and crackers. Pass the corned beef and cabbage, please and praise the Lord!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Knicker—How did they pass the summer?
Bocker—His wife went away and tried to be a gay young kitten, while he stayed at home and tried to be a sad old dog.—New York Sun.

"Now, dear," said the hero of the elopement, as they boarded the train. We are safe from pursuit."

"And also," said the young girl, radiantly, "safe from starvation. Here's a check pa made out to your order."—Philadelphia Press.

"You must not kiss me until we are formally engaged."
"Do you always insist on that rule?"

"I have always tried to."—Illustrated Biss.

"He and his brother are making lots of money now between them."

"Are they in partnership?"

"Practically. He is a cigarette manufacturer, and his brother is an undertaker."—Philadelphia Press

Briggs—You call on the Dimpletons very often. What sort of children have they?
Griggs—Perfect; best in the world.

Briggs—Tell me about them. What are they like?
Griggs—Oh! I've never seen them.—Brooklyn Life.

GIRLS.

The silly season's over now—
But this cold fact remember.
The peck-a-boos, tho' good to see
Are chilly in September.

OLD SWEETHEARTS.

The old sweethearts, I love them; the gray-haired lovers all, Around whose heads the sunbeams of the years of loving fall. The roses bloom above them along the tender way, They walk in dreamful shadows through avenues of gray. You'd love them if you knew them, just as the years seem to— The old sweethearts that wander down lanes of honey-dew!

They tell of love inconstant, of broken truth and trust, Of dreams of love that darken and die upon the dust; But these, the gray-haired sweethearts, through sunshine and through strife,

Make fair the golden balance of love that lives through life; Of love that falters never, and hearts that beat as one, In storms or calm or shadow, through years of cloud and sun.

Through all the years of promise and all the days of dream He leans to her with ardor, she softens to his gleam; The faith of hearts grown fragrant in long companionship, The clasp of gentle fingers, the touch of tender lip— A love so old, old-fashioned, so quaint, so sweet, is theirs, A grace outliving custom, and toil and trial and cares.

The dawn of love beheld them, the dusk behold them still As hand in hand together they climb the sunset hill, And heart in heart forever they look toward the west, Where life, a quiet current, flows on to valves of rest. Ah, tender shines their vision of love through all the years— The sweethearts of life's gladness, the sweethearts of its tears.

The old sweethearts, I love them; with all their gentle grace, The velvet of the wrinkles that line each softened face, The gray hairs intertwining the locks that caught the glow Of summer's golden beauty in times so long ago— The old sweethearts, God bless them! whose hearts are blithe with spring And through whose souls the echoes of love's sweet summer ring.

THE ROSARY.

The hours I spent with thee, dear heart,
Are as a string of pearls to me;
I count them over, every one apart,
My rosary.

Each hour a pearl, each pearl a prayer,
To still a heart in absence wrong;
I tell each bead unto the end, and there
A cross is hung.

Oh! memories that bless—and burn!
Oh! barren gain—and bitter loss!
I kiss each bead, and strive at last to learn
To kiss the cross.

Sweetheart,
To kiss the cross.

No one would buy a suit with collars that could not be washed. There is always that possibility of a little too much and that makes a cautious man afraid to go to the tailor. The thinking man, who provides for his stomach by keeping a bottle of Kodol for dyspepsia within reach, Kodol digests what you eat and restores the stomach to the condition to properly perform its functions.

Sold by W. M. Cohen, Weldon, N. C.

A WAIT FOR WINTER.

Oh, for the days of sleet and snow!
Though branches may be bare,
And all seem sullen here below,
There will be ice to spare.

—Washington Star.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

MRS. WISLON'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Prepare and ask for "Mrs. Wislon's Soothing Syrup," and take to other kind.

The rich would not be so willing to buy their wealth if they realized how long they would have to pay for it.

MISTAKEN PIGEON-HOLES.

Endeavor to Find Out Your Proper Sphere and Then do Your Best to Excel.

"Unless above himself he can Erect himself, how poor a thing is man."

"He would have made a first class farmer, but he's hardly a fourth rate lawyer," said one gentleman of another, speaking of a friend.

"Got into the wrong pigeon-hole, has he?" was the reply. "Well, there are hosts of others in the same fix. Reminds me of a story I once heard. A renowned archaeologist appeared one day, his face adorned with various cuts and abrasions.

"It is surprising," he said, in reply to the inquiries of his friends "but I was shaved this morning by a man I have reason to think is considered by all above the ordinary barber. He took a first class course at Oxford, that I know; also he is a frequent contributor to some of our best scientific periodicals."

"He may be all that," was the response, "but he is an exceedingly poor barber."

"I cannot dispute you," replied the scholar, "I shaved myself."

It has been said that genius is an immense capacity for taking pains, but one must exercise discretion in one's efforts. Doing one's best is the true measure of success; but it must be the best of which one is capable. "Raphael must not whitewash cellar walls for a living."

"If you do not get the gold medal, you may get the silver," said a young fellow about to engage in the intercollegiate games.

"I never try for the second prize," was the quick response.

But, alas! how many there are in the world who never outgrow the first tiny pigeon hole they find themselves in.

"You have no right to find fault with my looks. I'm just as God made me."

"I know it," was the reply of the friendly critic, "that is what I am blaming you for—you've never made any improvement on yourself."

It was the one who retained just what his lord gave him who was adjudged an unprofitable servant. Progress and the improvement are the duty of everybody. The glory of living, General Armstrong was wont to say, was doing what could not be done. The object of life is to grow, and that means that one must do his very best in everything he undertakes.

"If I were a cobbler, I would make it my pride

The best of cobblers to be;
If I were a tinker, no tinker beside
Should mend an old kedge like me."

And tomorrow's standard should always be better than today's.

But, it must be remembered, there are many, weary ones doing patiently and faithfully their ungenial tasks. There are merchants who have artists or poets; there are men toiling with their hands to support dear ones when choice of life-force was denied them; but who can doubt but that God will gratify their longings in the better life beyond?—Kate S. Gates in Zion's Herald.

THE COOK TO DECIDE.

Jack (after acceptance)—Shall I speak to your father now?
Helen—Mercy, no! Not to him!

Jack—Your mother, then?
Helen—No, no! You must ask the cook if she would object to one more in the family.—New York Press.

A man may have a good disposition and still be of no earthly use to the community in which he dwells.

AN INGRATEFUL SON.

There is No Suffering Like Heart Agony.

A mother never regrets any physical pain that she can endure for her loved ones. It is the anguish caused by their ingratitude and wrong-doing. A family old woman—now at Heaven—said to me, "When our children are small they trample upon our love; but when they grow up they trample upon our hearts."

That was the cry of a broken heart. She had a drunken, debauched son, who had squandered her money, forged his father's name and disgraced the family.

That mother complained not of any physical suffering she had endured for her boy. She had gone down into the very jaws of death, almost to give him life, but the pain was swallowed up in joy when she pressed the new-born child to her heart. Through years and years she has ministered to his wants. She had spent sleepless nights with him when he was sick. Her hand had smoothed his brow, and her feet had been quick to go upon errands of love for him. In pain and watchfulness and weariness she had cared for him; but never a murmur fell from her lips. It was a joyful service.

But his waywardness broke her heart.

A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Great Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood that is invigorating to the brain and nerves of the weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists that contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs, and the only one every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of the most noteworthy testimonials are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card addressed to Dr. R. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. "The Works of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the disease for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the student and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonial" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicine are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" is the name of the medicine on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deep-seated. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure, apoplexy, are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney poisons in the blood will attack the vital organs at the kidneys themselves break down and waste away and die.

Kidney troubles most always result from a disarrangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make a mistake by taking Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

Remember, kidney trouble and bladder trouble, if not cured, will cause a disarrangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. ### Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour eructations, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but its famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Kidney, Liver and Bladder Trouble.

Other manufacturers say to you, "Buy a bottle and if it doesn't cure, we refund you money." We say "Take a full $1.00 bottle—FREE and if it benefits you—then use L.V.A.S.O.L. until cured." This stipulation can be found on L.V.A.S.O.L. Dr. W. M. Cohen's drug store. Only a limited number given away. So don't miss the opportunity to take L.V.A.S.O.L.

Heart Weakness

The action of the heart depends upon the heart nerves and muscles. When from any cause they become weak or exhausted, and fail to furnish sufficient power, the heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats; and in its effort to keep up its work, causes pain and distress, such as smothering spells, short breath, fainting, pain around heart, arm and shoulders. The circulation is impeded, and the entire system suffers from lack of nourishment.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure makes a heart strong and vigorous by strengthening these nerves and muscles.

"I had palpitation and pain around my heart, and the doctors said it was incurable. I don't believe it now, for after taking six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, three bottles of the Nervine and three boxes of the Scro and Liver Pills, I am entirely cured, and feel better than I have for five years, and it is all due to these remedies. I want you to know that your medicine cured me. It relieved me from the pain in my chest was gone, and I kept on feeling better, even after I kept taking it." JOHN H. SHEPHERD, holding Mich.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
