THROUGH LIFE.

Don't look for the flaws as you go through life;

And even when you find them It is wise and kind to be somewhat blind

And look for the virtue behind them.

For the cloudiest night has a fint of light Somewhere in its shadows hiding; It is better by far to look for a star,

Than the spots on the sun abiding,

The current of life runs ever away To the bosom of God's great ocean; Don't set your force 'gainst the river's course And think to alter its motion.

Don't waste a curse on the universe

Remember, it lived before you; Don't but the storm with your puny form, But bend and let it go o'er you

The world will never adjust itself

To suit your whims to the letter Some things go wrong your whole life long, And the sooner you know it the better.

It is folly to fight with the infinite, And at last go down in the wrestle wiser man shapes into God's plan,

As water shapes into a vessel.

When Compared with Hers.

So great is the influence of a sweet-minded woman, on those around her that it is almost bound less. It is to her that friends come in seasons of sorrow and sickness, for help and comfort. One soothing rouch of her kindly hands works wonders in the feverish child; a few words let fall from her lips in the car of a sorrow stricken sister will do much to raise the load down to the dust in anguish.
