THE CHEERFUL MAN.

A Habit of Cheerfulness Enables One to Transmute Apparent Misfortunes Into Real Bless-

The cheerful man is pre-eminently a useful man.

The cheerful man sees that evthe bad, and that every evil has its compensation balm.

A habit of cheerfulness enables one to transmute apparent misfortunes into real blessings.

He who has formed a habit of things, has a great advantage over the chronic dyspeptic who sees no good in anything.

It was Lincoln's cheerfulness and sense of humor that enabled him to stand under the terrible Many Terrible Predictions Are load of the civil war.

If we are cheerful and contented all nature smiles with us; the air is balmer, the sky clearer, the earth has a brighter green, the trees have a richer foliage, the flowers and the stars are more beautiful.

All good thought and good ac- nished to the N. Y. World: tion claim a natural alliance with good cheer.

Serenc cheerfulness is the great dissolvepreventive of humanity's ills.

Grief, anxiety and fear are enemies of human life and should be resisted as we resist the plague. Cheerfulness is their antidote.

Without cheerfulness there can be no healthy action, physical mental or moral, for it is the normal atmosphere of our being.-

HE KNEW BETTER.

'Very pleasant out this way now, isn't it?" growled the sarcasne Mr. Babklotz, as he ploughed through the snow and mud."

It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the lagredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the Prescription is advised.

IF YOU COULD KNOW.

If you could know the half of all I yearn to be to you, Dear Heart! Each day that dawns I struggle to be strong and do my part: Yet when at last the night comes softly down I humbly pray Lord, grant me still to prove my tender love just one more day

Just one more day to strive to rise above small trouble, perty care, That my cramped soul may break its earth-forged bonds, at last to dare, To face the future and to gladly live with courage new, crywhere the good outbalances Loyal and cheerful facing toward the light for Truth and you.

> And yet I feel, in spite of all the heights which I can never scale; In spite of all the many tasks in which I daily fail,
> That my deep love, more deep and pure and strong than I can ever show, You, somehow, through my failures, doubts and fears, will come to know.

> The dreary clouds can't hide the sun for aye; it glimmers through: The sweet, wet violet, struggling through dead leaves, yet shows its blue, And so I trust, though oft I strike love's chord with clumsy hand, You'll feel the melody I tried to play, and understand,
