"HOME, SWEET HOME."

A True Incident, By Jovanna Ringgold in the Biblical Recorder.

The fine house enjoyed by a family of "Yankees" were boarded up by "Yankees" in South Georgia. The man was sitting before the fire, his body upon the seat, his hands, and feet, a wreath of smoke, the sick and dirty chimney. It was in the morning and he was in what should have been a bright day, as it was the second day of January, but to the heart of this one, in this remote spot, west of the Christmas and New Year season had brought no gladness, except that peace of soul that comes any time of the year when we think on the great goodness of God, and are reconciled to His will.

She had heard no Christmas greetings exchanged, and no kind face of neighbor or friend had looked upon her, during the holidays. On the other hand her husband and herself had been kept awake many nights by the shooting of guns, bursting of fire crackers and the unearthly yells of drunken negroes. There had seemingly been a contest among the rowdy part of the negroes, as to who could make the most noise. Now that Christmas was over and work was to be resumed, all was quiet, and the woman was mentally reviewing the past year. What changes had been wrought in one short year?

She remembered how in the first days of the year, back in their North Carolina home, her husband and herself had decided to seek their fortunes in the far South. How with minds fully made up to endure any hardship or brave any difficulty, they had taken leave of home and friends, and had made their journey successfully to their new location in South Georgia. She remembered how that just as the wonderful beauties of early summer in the semi-tropical climate were beginning to unfold, the highest hand of fever had laid the husband low, and for weeks and weeks he had been a patient sufferer. How she had watched alone night after night by the bedside when the life that meant more to her than anything else on earth seemed to be trembling in the balance; oh, how she had missed the kindly help and loving sympathy of all the dear ones at home, home! At the thought of home, there rushed over her a flood of sacred memories, and as her eyes filled with tears, she began in a low voice to sing, "Home, Sweet Home," not thinking any one would hear her. As she finished the last verse and pushed back the shutter from the window, she was surprised to see a number of negroes, men and women, who had stopped to listen.

One burly young fellow was vigorously rubbing his eyes with his coat sleeve. One old woman ejaculated:

"Bress de Lawd, honey, I wish I was dere," and with much mumping and wiping eyes, the dusky unsought audience moved on, one old man, remarking:

"Be it ever so humbel, Dere's no place like home."

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. J. N. Stokes, father of that epic poet, The Liberator, Living, Va., 1897. I can't say in my last week and, at one approach, thanks to Anker-Pain-Expeller, I was able to get on my feet. No dull aches followed, the same simple means the word. "Head, eye, ear, nose and skin disease. Guaranteed at all druggists."

You can never make a woman believe that she isn't saving money by buying more to get a discount.

Found at Last.

J. A. Harrison, of Lynchburg, West Va., writes: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me, and for the relief of colic, indigestion, flatulence, liver and stomach constipation, will ever take the King's New Discovery. Guaranteed satisfactory. To all my druggists."

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Hopper. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him, when, by our druggist's advice, I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed heat cough and cold cure by any druggist. See and try. Trial bottle free.

How to Remain Young

To continue young in health and strength as Mrs. N. Y. Lowell, Massachusetts, did, she says: "Three bottles of Electric Litters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned as red as flame. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Litters. I can now do all my work with ease and my husband's eyes are guaranteed at any drug store. Price 50c."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble, which is the result of indigestion and impure blood, is a common ailment among women. It is often mistaken for rheumatism, neuralgia, or other ailments. The only reliable remedy is Dr. King's New Discovery. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail for a cent, if you send in this advertisement. Name of treatment, and all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured, in writing Dr. King & Co., Birmingham, N. Y., to see and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Koot. Dr. King's Swamp-Koot, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.
