One Year, $1.00; half a year, 50c; six months, 35c.

A weekly Democratic journal devoted to the moral, educational, political and agricultural interests of the people and surrounding countries.

Advertising rates reasonable and liberal on application.

MASSACHUSETTS increased its "dry" area at the recent municipal elections.

ABE HUMMEL must now see the advantage of having no reputation to sustain.

ALFRED AUSTIN should cheer up. Frank L. Stanton says his latest poem "Monastery Bells" has the "right ring."

JOHN Alexander Dowie's last act was to write a document threatening to return and smite his enemies. Great ghosts!

An Ohio woman has a nervous affliction that keeps her laughing all the time, but it excuses her from church and funerals.

THE Tennessee legislature is tampering with that ancient right of the freeman to go down to the tavern and swear at the court.

The books of the Chicago treasury are said to be in perfect order. There is missing $173,000, however, that is probably to be classed as disorderly.

A correspondent of the New York Sun is attempting to discover "a cure for poetry." He will never succeed, crushed in the waste basket it will rise again.

We are slowly coming to the conclusion that Brownsville just imagined that it was shot up. Keep on, Mr. Foraker, you will soon be able to prove that the "sun do move."

Now they are wondering whether or not, Mr. Roosevelt can bat. We are inclined to think that fishing for anything less than whales would be irksome to President Roosevelt.

PRESIDENT RIPLEY, of the Santa Fe, says government ownership of railways means the downfall of the Republic. He probably means the downfall of Ripley, and his master Harriman.

THE Baltimore Sun is very much surprised to note that the kidnapping of young Marvin is one Delaware outrage that hasn't been changed to Adelaks. The only answer is, that no one has thought of it.

JUST three weeks till the opening of the Jamestown Exposition on Hampton Roads, near Norfolk. The exposition will be formally opened by President Roosevelt on Friday the 26th. Meet us on the "War Path."

At the Exposition, "Grant street," named in honor of General U. S. Grant and his son, Gen. F. D. Grant, will lead directly to the Lee parade grounds, but there will be no apple trees planted around.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is a ten-year old disease that stays with you all the more the longer you have it, and that is called "Harriman's Cancer." The only positive news known to the medical fraternity is that Harriman's cancerous disease requires a radical operation, and that it is a slow process. This is the reason why so many men have been taken away from us, and so many others have been left to us.

"LET your thoughts turn westward," says an advertiser of women's wear. What is one going to do with his arm?

Orphan people's happiness gives a pessimist a headache.

Washington, April 1.—After a week in frigid air, the Burlington passenger train which had been running at 65 miles an hour, had to stop and wait a number of minutes to negotiate a stretch of New York state roads, adding half an hour to each of the 100 miles. It is a waste of time and money to wait.

Washington, April 1.—A doctor who has been studying the effects of British tobacco on the health of the English, and other吸烟者, has written to the medical journal of the Royal Society of Medicine, suggesting a number of measures specifically designed to save the English from the effects of British tobacco. These include the following:

"We must stop by statute that allows men to drink beer from their own determination of amount (as far as 12 oz. is concerned), and we must make it illegal for men to drink beer in public places with the exception of those who are members of the Royal Society of Medicine."

Washington, April 1.—A justice judge could not ignore a nomination of license in the case of Harry Kendall Davis, who had sold illegal Schnapps. White, they found before the young defendant a process far more appealing than the simple shot. The dark gates of the盲人酒馆 open wide for him. And when they shall stand together bound hand and foot, begins a battle in his.

Andrew Carnegie, in an interview, while in Washington, has expressed the following opinion on the subject:

"I sincerely believe the President's attitude towards the railroads. He has, from every side, been told that he ought to do it.

The influence had been exerted with him. If they do, he will be compelled to do it. I regard the President's influence as the railways as wholesome and conservative."

The Washington Herald comments upon the action of the Utah Legislature, one branch of which has made bridge whist a felony.

It says: "By an almost unanimous vote one branch of the Utah Legislature has passed a bill making the playing of bridge whist a crime, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary from two to five years. We are not surprised to hear that the bill was opposed by many society women who lobbied against the passage. We note with interest, also, that should the bill pass, it is certain to receive Governor Cutler's signature, as it is signed his per se clause."

The writer continues: "The Governor is confident that the law will be upheld by the people of the Church of Latter Day Saints. That many who have been financially embarrassed through the losses at cards, of their several better halves.

We are not surprised at the re-billion of the Mormons' wealth one who has been so successful in his business, and who is a member of the Mormon church, should be allowed to satisfy any man, and even the or give themselves to the game of cards, or any other game.

It might seem that it would be better to give up a few weeks than to put a penalty on bridge, but the Mormon is set in his ways, and his home circle or circle of homes may be protected.

This is Worth Saving

The following simple household receipt will remove any form of diarrhea, and cure any disease of the bowels, and render the body strong and healthy.

Take a glass of warm water, strain it through a cloth, add a dash of pepper, mix well, and drink it.

It will know an authority states that the ingredients are equally of your own concoction, and happiness comes to him who uses it.
