

When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do anything else. It's nature's way.

A Weekly Democratic Journal devoted to the material, educational, political and agricultural interests of the tax and surrounding counties.

Advertising rates reasonable and furnished on application.

WHAT will we eat, when dollar wheat sends flour so high that we cannot buy?

Big Chief Forsaker carries a pipe of peace in one hand, and a tomahawk in the other.

HAVING found out where he stands, Senator Forsaker refuses to sit down and keep quiet.

If Miss Mabelle Gilman isn't a blushing bride, a good many people think she ought to blush.

Gov. HUGHES, of New York, wants to use for a while, the office he has before he tries to run down another.

NEXT we expect to hear that we are getting spring on the installment plan on account of the car shortage.

A Kentucky dairyman has been caught selling milk with minnows in it. He should be more particular about his water supply.

THE French artist who painted President Roosevelt's portrait, "in a restful pose," must have portrayed him in a sound sleep.

THE experts may succeed in getting a photograph of the canals in Mars, but they can't get any photo of the canal in Panama.

THE report is denied that the Pacific coast people are waiting to attend the Jamestown Exposition by way of the Panama canal.

THE Sultan of Morocco is said to be very chummy with his dentist; but what could be more natural since the man undoubtedly has a pull?

THE fellow with the didn't-know-it-was-loaded-gun has laid it aside for a season and gone to rocking the boat. The force of folk-killers seem inadequate to cope with the increasing supply.

"In an Indiana town, sixteen women attacked one man, and whipped him because he persisted in brutally beating his wife. Anybody find fault with the ratio?" asks Bryan's Commemorative. The ratio is perhaps a trifle old-fashioned but the story does not disclose an altogether bad state of affairs in Indiana.

SINCE the "captains of industry" have found that the people of this country propose to take more notice of the way they have been systematically robbed by them, "captains" have been shouting that hard times are going to come, but with our foreign trade increasing over $200,000,000 over last year and cotton and wheat away up, we do not see how a "panic" will find room to stand on, in this country, do you?

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, LUCAS COUNTY, ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. THE official announcement of the names of the attorneys, who are to represent North Carolina in the case in which the Southern Railway will seek to set at naught the laws of the state reducing freight and passenger rates, has been made as follows:

Attorneys: Hon. R. D. Gilman, ex-Chief Justice; James E. Shepherd, Hon. F. V. Woodard, W. Wilson, ex-Judge R. W. Winston and Victor S. Revant, of Durham; Hon. Walter L. Daniel, of Weldon.

It is to be noted that the Philadelphia Sunday Press, published at four cents per copy, besides the usual news, a splendidly illustrated magazine weekly magazine, such famous authors as Conan Doyle, Anthony Hope, and Sewall Ford are frequent contributors, and you cannot get better reading. Send orders to The Press, Philadelphia, Pa.

Widow's partner struggle. Mrs. Wm. Mahoney, widow of the deceased president of the United States, fell into sleep this morning at her home, Canton, Ohio, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She had been an invalid for years and the end came peacefully, like a good killing asleep. Her life was one of love and devotion, and after President McKinley's death she expressed a desire to join him and with sweet Christian resignation she awaited the summons.

REV. DR. CUNNINGHAM, of St. Louis, Mo., the pioneer of Southern Methodism, died in his 81st year, the first minister to declare his allegiance in the formation of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South—spoke twice Sunday at the Epworth Methodist Church, Norfolk, Va. He is 83 years of age, and a remark he made at Epworth Church was striking—that he had been married and living with one woman for sixty-three years without getting a divorce. He is well preserved, and his reminiscences were very interesting, says the Ledger-Dispatch. His parents were Virginians.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals throat.

ARRINGTON. In the year of May 1907, the funeral of Mr. J. L. Arrington, near Arrington Springs, was a grand affair. The deceased was a well-known citizen, who for many years had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. He was a good man, loved by all who knew him. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since early life. His wife was a good woman, loved by all who knew her. She was a member of the same church. Her death was a great loss to the community. The funeral was held at the home of the deceased, and was attended by a large number of friends. The burial was in the cemetery at Arrington Springs, N. C. May 27, 1907.

Surprise the Accepted Remedy for a Hundred Years.

It is a well-known fact that the human skin is the largest organ of the body, and it is also the most sensitive. It is the first line of defense against the elements, and it is the most exposed to injury. It is therefore of great importance to keep the skin in good health, and to prevent it from becoming diseased. The best way to do this is to use a good skin medicine, such as Foley's Honey and Tar. This medicine is made from natural ingredients, and it is gentle on the skin. It will soothe the skin, and it will help to prevent the formation of pimples, spots, and other skin troubles. It is a true skin preservative, and it is the best remedy for all skin troubles.
