PERHAPS July will be the warm month.

THE picnic and Sunday school season is at hand.

WHAT the world needs is more sympathy and less law.

Now is the time for the electric fan to get a move on itself.

The close season for the moth ball may now be considered as on.

It has been found that the sun still has some warmth in it, after all.

JUNE is rapidly passing away and it appears that the sun spots have been dissolved.

THE town board of commissioners will meet in regular session at the city hall, Monday, July 1st, at 8 o'clock p. m.

WHOEVER discovered that 1837 almanac that predicted "no summer for 1907" may as well lose the old book now.

THE prophet who said there was going to be no summer must have been badly frost bitten; but this weather ought to thaw him out.

The county commissioners will meet in regular session at Halifax Monday, July 1st. Among other important matters to come up for consideration will be the applications of liquor dealers for a renewal of license for six months.

COTTON DYING.—Halifax county farmers report that cotton is dying by the acre in many fields since the advent of warm weather. They say it is because during the cold weather the roots of the plants were badly injured and that when seasonable weather arrived the plants having no roots sickened and died. Some report that they will plow up the cotton at this late day and plant the land in peanuts.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining "uncalled for" in the Weldon post-office:

Mrs. Sallie Boon, A. B. Cook, Mrs. Ellen Jones.

Persons calling for above letters will please say "advised," giving date of advertising.

JOHN O. BURTON, P. M., Weldon, N. C.

HARRIS WAS ACQUITTED.—In Warren Superior court last week, Harris, who some time ago killed Henry Dickson, was acquitted.

Harris, who it seems is peculiar, had been made the butt of jokes and ridicule. Dickson especially tormented him. At the time of the homicide Harris resented the teasing of Dickson and the latter abused and threatened him.

Harris got a gun and when Dickson started to attack him he killed him.

Senator W. E. Daniel, of this town, and Mr. Tasker Polk, of Warrenton, defended Harris, while the State was represented by Solicitor Kerr and Mr. Sam G. Daniel.

Mr. Daniel is just as able and effective before a jury in defending as he was as prosecuting attorney.

A SHOWER OF LINEN.—Mr. and Mrs. William Mercer Cohen entertained the bridal party of the Zollicoffer-Allen wedding at a "Linen Shower" Tuesday evening at six o'clock. Each guest contributed a piece of linen. These articles were attached to a hoop and suspended from the ceiling. The prospective bride stood under the hoop and then there was a shower of linen over her head the hoop dropping over her.

Souvenir cards with toasts composed by the hostess were presented to each guest, and they were requested within a given time to write telegrams to the bride, a dainty prize being offered for the best. The prize was won by Miss Reita Renn, of Portsmouth, Va.

The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and green. Elegant refreshments were served and the assembled guests then drank to the health of the bride in some delicious punch or frappe.

TO DRAIN SWAMP LANDS.—For the past year or more Congressman Claude Kitchin, of the Second district, has been quietly at work in behalf of reclaiming the valuable swamp lands of Roanoke river, and for the diking of the river to prevent overflows.

Sometime ago he received a letter from J. O. Wright, Supervising Engineer of the United States department of agriculture, stating that he and Mr. Kipp, assistant engineer, will come down some time this summer at a date to be fixed later by Mr. Kitchin, and go over the swamp lands along the Roanoke river through the counties of Halifax, Northampton, Bertie and Martin.

Mr. Wright also promises to make a talk to the people on the subject.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Wright says that lands in Indiana, Illinois, South Carolina, and other States he mentions, by draining have been greatly increased in value. Lands formerly worth $3 to $5 an acre now sell for $100 to $150 an acre.

The swamp lands of Roanoke river are among the best in the United States and the farmers of the counties named should appreciate Congressman Kitchin's efforts to have them drained and reclaimed.

The music was most elaborate. Lochingrin's bridal chorus, "Faithful and True We Lead You Forth," being a most delightful feature of the ceremony, with Mrs. W. T. Shaw as director and Miss Belle Stainback organist. The singers composing the chorus were:

Soprano—Mrs. W. E. Daniel, Misses Jennie Tilghman, Helen Pope, Lulu Stainback and Kate Tilghman.

Contralto—Misses Laura Powers and Margaret Shaw.

Tenor—Messrs. W. T. Shaw and A. L. Stainback.

Bass—J. W. Sledge, B. A. Pope, J. W. Powell and J. O. Duvall.

Thirty minutes before the time fixed for the entrance of the bridal party Miss Belle Stainback, the accomplished organist, delighted the audience with selections from Comcone, and Reveries by various authors, giving a fine interpretation of the master composers. During the ceremony she played in excellent time and taste "Hearts and Flowers," and used Mendelssohn's grand wedding march as a recessional.

The bridal party entered in the following order: Pages—Messrs. Allen Zollicoffer, and James Pierce; Flower girls—Misses Eva Stainback and Lillie Riddick, of Raleigh, who scattered rose leaves and other flowers from dainty baskets.

Then came Miss Kate Harrison, of Brinkleyville, and Miss Eunice Clark in right and left aisle; Messrs. Jere Zollicoffer, of Henderson, and W. C. Worrell, of Rich Square, in like order.

Next came Miss Mary Long Green and Miss Reita Renn, of Norfolk, Messrs. R. T. Daniel and H. D. Allen in the same order.

Then followed Misses Susie Zollicoffer and Jeannette Daniel, Messrs. P. N. Stainback, Jr., and Augustus Zollicoffer, of Henderson.

Miss Florence Allen Hart entered in the right aisle and the dame of honor followed in the left aisle.

The groom then walked up the right aisle with his brother, Mr. Dallas Zollicoffer, who was best man and the bride came in with her brother, Mr. A. S. Allen, who gave her away. Master Allen Stainback, who was ring bearer, preceded the bride to the chancel.

The bridesmaids were all gowned in white chaffon with long white gloves and shoes to match and carried pink carnations.

In the recessional the bridesmaids and groomsmen were paired as follows: Miss Kate Harrison with Mr. Jere Zollicoffer; Miss Eunice Clark with Mr. W. C. Worrell; Miss Mary Long Green with Mr. R. T. Daniel; Miss Susie Zollicoffer with Mr. P. N. Stainback, Jr.; Miss Jeannette Daniel with Mr. Augustus Zollicoffer; Miss Florence Allen Hart with Mr. D. B. Zollicoffer, Jr.; the bride with the groom, of course, and the dame of honor alone. Master Allen Zollicoffer with Miss Eva Stainback, Master James Pierce with Miss Lillie Riddick.

Mrs. William Mercer Cohen was dame of honor. She wore sage green crepe de shene over tulle, trimmed with Duchess lace, white picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of La France roses.

Miss Florence Allen Hart, a niece of the bride, was first maid of honor and Miss Jeannette Daniel, a cousin, was second maid of honor. These young ladies were gowned in white chaffon with long white gloves and white shoes to match and carried bouquets of pink carnations, tied with white tulle.

The decorations were in excellent taste and reflected much credit upon those in charge. About the altar and chancel were palms, graceful ferns and other beautiful potted plants, while over a hundred wax tapers threw a soft light upon the assemblage in the darkened church, rendering the scene one of beauty and never to be forgotten by those in attendance.

Attending in a measure the great popularity of the couple the bride received a splendid collection of elegant and costly presents, in cut

A Society Event of Much Interest.

MISS BERTHA HART ALLEN

Becomes the Bride of Mr. John Bevan Zollicoffer. Bridal Chorus a Delightful Feature.

In the presence of a large and fashionable assemblage of relatives and friends, at the Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Miss Bertha Hart Allen, youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Jane Allen, became the bride of Mr. John Bevan Zollicoffer, Rev. H. A. Humble, pastor of the Church, in a most impressive manner, performing the ceremony, which, for better or for worse, binds in inseparable bonds of love, "until death us do part," the lives of two of our most popular young people.

The music was most elaborate. Lochingrin's bridal chorus, "Faithful and True We Lead You Forth," being a most delightful feature of the ceremony, with Mrs. W. T. Shaw as director and Miss Belle Stainback organist. The singers composing the chorus were:

glass, silver ware, chairs, lounges, tables, china, bric-a-brac, gold coins and checks. Mrs. S. A. Thomas, the grandmother of the groom, sent $100 in two fifty dollar bills. Many of the presents came from friends and relatives from various sections of Virginia and North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Zollicoffer, followed by showers of rice and best wishes of many friends who gathered at the station to see them off, left over the Atlantic Coast Line on the 5 o'clock train for Washington City. Their bridal trip will include other Northern points and a visit en route home, to the Jamestown Exposition. Then after spending a week with Mrs. S. A. Thomas, in Northampton county, they will be at home to their friends in Weldon, N. C.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: Mrs. Walter Renn and Mrs. S. P. Hawks, of Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Zollicoffer, of Henderson; Mrs. S. A. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Waverly Fitzhugh, of Northampton county; Miss Lome Poter, of Wake Forest; Miss Kate Harrison, of Brinkleyville; Mr. W. C. Worrell, of Rich Square; Messrs.
