

THE GOOD OLD NORTH STATE.

BY WILLIAM GASTON
Carolina! Carolina! Heaven's blessings attend her!
While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her;
While the scorners may sneer at and wring her down,
Our hearts swell with gladness whenever we name her.

Hurrah! Hurrah! the Old North State forever!
Hurrah! Hurrah! the good Old North State!

Though she envies not others their mortal glory,
Say, whose name stands foremost in history's story?
Though too true to herself, 'er to croach to oppression,
Who can yield to just rule more loyal submission?

Hurrah, etc.

Plain and artless her sons, but whose doors open faster
At the knock of a stranger, or the rattle of disaster;
How like to the rudeness of their dear native mountains,
With richness in their bosoms and life in their founts is,

Hurrah, etc.

And her daughters, the Queen of the Forest resembling,
So graceful, so constant, yet gentlest breath revealing,
And true lightwood at heart, let the match be applied to them,
How they kindle and flame! Oh! none know but who've tried them,

Hurrah, etc.

Then let all who love us, love the land that we live in,
(As happy a region as on this side of Heaven,
Where Plenty and Freedom, Love and Peace smile before us,
Raise aloud, raise together, the heart-thrilling chime!

Hurrah! Hurrah! the Old North State forever!

Hurrah! Hurrah! the good Old North State!

HE WANTED COMPANY.

He Thought Sure He Was Going to Die.

Shortly after two o'clock one bitter winter morning a physician drove four miles in answer to a telephone call. On his arrival the man who had summoned him said:

"Doctor, I ain't in any particular pain, but somehow or other I've got a feeling that death is nigh."

The doctor felt the man's pulse and listened to his heart.

"Have made your will?" he asked finally.

The man turned pale.

"Why, no, doctor. At my age—oh, doc, it ain't true, is it? It can't be true!"

"Who's your lawyer?"

"Higginbotham, but—"

"Then you had better send for him at once."

The patient, white and trembling, went to the phone.

"Who's your pastor?" commanded the doctor.

"The Rev. Kellogg M. Brown," numbed the patient. "But, doctor, do you think—"

"Send for him immediately. Your father, too, should be summoned; also your—"

"Say, doctor, do you really think I'm going to die?" The man began to blubber softly.

The doctor looked at him hard.

"No, I don't," he replied grimly. "There's nothing at all the matter with you. But I hate to be the only man you've made a fool of a night like this." Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree in Everybody's.

You may know the greatness of any man by the way he treats a child.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

Dickie Dickey of Fayette, N. C., also had a foot-containing accident. Dickie Dickey has done more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble and paid out much money for medicines to little purpose until I began taking Dickie Dicy. I would not take $400 for what they have done for me. I found time to go to work again, and today am in full force again, and body and mind are in fine condition. Dickie Dickey is a great blessing. Guaranteed by any druggist.

Some think they are full of faith because they turn their backs on the facts.

A NEW CREED.

I believe in cleanliness of body, mind and soul.
I believe in kindness to man, woman, child and animal.
I believe in truth, because it makes me free.
I believe in charity that begins at home, but doesn't end there.
I believe in mercy, as I hope for mercy.
I believe in moral courage, because I am more than a brute.
I believe in righteously, because it is the shortest and best line between extremes.

I believe in patience, because it is the swiftest way to secure results.
I believe in that kind of industry that takes an occasional vacation.
I believe in that sort of economy that spends money for a good purpose.

I believe in honesty, not for policy's sake, but for principal's sake.
I believe in hospitality, because it puts a roof over every man's head.

I believe in obedience, because it is the only way to learn how to command.

I believe in self-control because I want to influence others.

I believe in suffering, because it purifies and purifies.

I believe in sin, because I believe in God.

There was company to dinner at Nellie's house in South Broad street, and the diners were enjoying the first course, which consisted of oyster soup, says the Philadelphia Press.

Nellie made away with hers for some time in silence, until she had nearly cleaned the plate, when she paused and looking at her mother across the table said in a sly whisper:

"Mamma, what do you think Dere's hair in the soup?"

"Hush, Nellie," said mamma, frowning. "It's nothing but a crack in the plate."

Nellie moved the bowl of soup back and forth over the supposed crack, and then exclaimed triumphantly:

"Knick a crack more!"

MARRIED THE WRONG MAN

There is no three weeks when a religion is as popular as in the month of June. Many a man appears very religious in Sunday, but if you see him at home he is hardly likely when he longs for something else, some trivial thing you would not notice he says he would do personal work. And it would do you good for him to speak often about becoming Christians. As man is not the front where you live had been snoring at his family, especially at his poor wife until he had spoken the pleasure of everybody in the home for that day at least. Then he went slumbering the door behind him. His little boy had snuck off at one side listening to it all. He looked into his mother's tearful eyes and coming across the room, took hold in his own and exclaimed:

"Mamma, we made an awful mistake when we married father didn't we."

I use the knowledge you have and you will have all you can use.

The physician at Quicksilver, Va., a high spot of Watty Kidney and Bunker Hill, "I am doing well, and improve so fast in health that I can't say much more than Kiddy and I feel well." I feel just as well now.
