THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

The World Is Wide. If You Wish To Be Something, "Pitch In."

The brave always have friends.

Where others have gone you can go. If the old track don't suit you, make a new one; somebody will walk in it. Don't hurry too fast, especially until you know the road or become acquainted with your team. Mind your own business and look after it yourself. Don't stop to club whiffits or to retail gossip. You may grow weary, but remember this is not a world of ease, and rest lies beyond. Success is never obtained in a country like this without effort. If you fall down, get up. If it is dark strike a light. If you are in the shade, move around; if there is shade on one side there is sure to be sunshine on the other. It takes longer to skin an elephant than a mouse, but then the skin is worth something. Never be content with doing what another has done-excel him. A trade is a good thing to have; it is better than goldbrings a larger premium. But to make a premium, the trade must be perfect-no silver plated affair. Determine in your mind to be a good workman, or let the job out. Learning a trade is different from eating mush and milk-mechanical education does not slip down without a chewing. Never slight your work, never. Every job you do is a sign. Poor signs are against success. People always speak well of a boy who minds his own busiwatching us, and help often comes nor childrenwhen and from whom we least expect it. Confidence is the safe in which men often deposit rich treasmes, and as you prove worthy so will your reward of success be.

THE EDEN ABOVE,

We're bound for the land of the pure and the holy, The home of the happy, the kingdom of Love. Ye wanderers from God in the broad road of folly, O, say, will you go to the Eden above?

In that blessed land neither sighing nor anguish Can breathe in the fields where the glorified move; Ye heart-burdened ones who in misery languish, O, say, will you go to the Eden above?

Nor fraud nor deceit nor the hand of oppression, Can injure the dwellers in that holy grove; No wickedness there, not a shade of transgression-O, say, will you go to the Eden above?

Each saint has a mansion prepared and all furnished, Ere from his clay house he is summoned to move: Its gates and its towers with glory are burnished-O, say, will you go to that Eden above?

March on, happy pilgrims, that land is before you. And soon its ten thousand delights we shall prove; Yes, soon we shall walk o'er the hills of bright glory-O, say, will you go to that Eden above?

And yet, guilty sinner, we would not forsake thee. We halt yet a moment as onward we move; O, come to thy Lord, in His arms He will take thee, And bear thee along to the Eden above.
