say take Cod Liver Oil—they undoubtedly mean Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion

The oil is emulsified and made easy to take—easy to digest and easy to be absorbed in the body—and is the most natural and useful fatty food to feed and nourish the wasted body that is known in medicine today.

Nothing can be found to take its place. If you are run-down you should take it.

SPLENDID MEETING.—As a result of the series of meetings held in the Presbyterian church at Enfield by Rev. J. S. Wood, assisted by Rev. Dr. Black, there were seventy-five conversions. Mr. Wood is greatly pleased with the result and is now arranging to hold a meeting here at an early date.

Poteau, President of Wake Forest College, will deliver the Washington's birthday address at the Public School Auditorium, Monday evening, February 22nd. The public is most cordially invited. The stamps are red, with a profile portrait of Lincoln in an oval in the center. The oval is surrounded by a wreath of laurel, and beneath it is a ribbon bearing the words—"1809—Feb. 12—1909."

The head of Lincoln reproduced stamps was drawn by Augustine Saint Gaudens.

CALL EXTENDED.—At a meeting of the vestry of Grace Church Sunday morning a call was extended to Rev. James D. Miller, of Baltimore, to the rectoryship of Grace Church. Personally Mr. Miller is unknown here but he is highly recommended by Bishop Chesire as a splendid preacher, a diligent worker in the Sunday school and one who will make a most acceptable pastor. Mr. Miller is a native of North Carolina, and while he has a call to remain in Baltimore, it is understood that he desires to return to North Carolina.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Miller may accept the call.

BEAUTIFUL ART EXHIBIT.—There will open at the Graded School on February 25th and continuing through the 29th, perhaps the most notable Art Exhibition of its size ever given in our vicinity.

The event will not only be a notable one among school entertainments but will be a revelation of the exceeding beauty and distinction of good pictures in the school room, for the Graded school has been able to secure 200 examples of the best school subjects in large reproductions, attractively arranged and catalogued to the end that every parent, child and friend of the Graded school may see and appreciate, now, the advantages to be derived from beautiful pictures in our school rooms.

Each parent can assist us by making a contribution of whatever amount the donor may desire to be applied to the picture fund. Local organizations may assist us by making a donation of a picture of their selection.

WORK FOR NEW CHURCH.—The members of the W. H. M. Society of the M. E. church held quite an interesting and enthusiastic meeting on Monday last, at the home of Mrs. A. L. Stainback. Two years ago these ladies pledged themselves to raise $1,000 or $250 a year for four years for their new church. Sometime since Mrs. Johnson, the president, requested all the ladies to try to raise a certain amount by this meeting, it being the close of the fiscal year. There were 27 members present and more than $100 was reported. This brings the amount of money in hand to $500 at the end of the 2nd year. A resolution was offered and unanimously adopted that the same course be pursued for another year and about $250 was pledged in a very few minutes. The ladies see and feel very much the need of a church suitable to other conditions and are determined to do all they can to aid in the work of building the church at an early day.

This was also the time for the annual election of officers in which there were several changes. Mrs. D. R. Anderson was made 1st vice-president and has charge of the local benevolent work. Mrs. W. T. Shaw, who has so successfully managed the Mite Box Brigade, resigned, and Mrs. Sanford Powell was elected in her place. Mrs. R. H. Latham and Mrs. H. C. Spiers were elected to other offices.

At the close of the meeting which was most enthusiastic and harmonious, Mrs. Stainback, assisted by Mrs. Cornwall and Mrs. Austin, served elegant refreshments, for which the ladies showed their appreciation by extending to her a rising vote of thanks for her bountiful hospitality.

DEATH INVADERS ANOTHER HOME.—Mrs. Agnes McGee, esteemed by all who knew her, laid down life's burden and entered into rest Friday morning last, aged 81 years.

In the death of this noble Christian woman another link has been broken, another home left desolate, and we stand with uncovered heads in the presence of the great mystery—death.

Mrs. McGee had been twice married. Her first husband was Mr. Robert Bissett, to whom she was married before she came to Weldon. Mrs. McGee was a native of Scotland, her husband was an Englishman, and they moved to Halifax county in 1859, their home being near Day's Cross Roads. This union was blessed with three children, Mr. R. O. Bissett, Mrs. H. H. Howard and Mrs. E. M. Uzzell, all of whom are living and were here with their mother when she fell upon sleep.

Mr. Bissett died in 1862 and during the war Mrs. Bissett struggled bravely and devotedly for the maintenance of her children and gained scores of friends by her splendid energies and fine Christian character. In 1865 she was married to Mr. J. H. McGee, and of this union there is one surviving child, Miss Agnes McGee, whose love and devotion for her mother has been remarkably beautiful and touching.

The funeral service was held at her late residence Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. S. Wood, of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. S. E. Mercer. The interment was at Cedarwood cemetery; the pall bearers being: Messrs. C. J. Owen, W. Y. Gay, D. R. Anderson, W. W. Wiggins, J. L. Harris, E. Clark.

Two of her favorite hymns were sung at the residence during the service "Abide With Me," and "How Firm A Foundation."

Mrs. McGee was a consistent communicant of the Presbyterian Church and she greatly aided in the building of the church here several years ago.

Her pastor, Rev. J. S. Wood, in his closing prayer at the grave, thanked the Lord for the influence of such a life in the community. Often, he said, when cast down and discouraged she would by her words of cheer and tender sympathy send us on our way rejoicing. Weldon and this entire community is better for the life she lived. Her influence will go on forever, touching and sweetening the lives of loved ones and devoted friends.

To the afflicted we offer our sincerest sympathy, yet in that affliction how their hearts must be comforted by the blessed assurance that she laid down the cross to take up the crown of eternal life.

The floral offerings and designs were among the most beautiful ever seen here.

BUYING GRAVESTONES.—If you contemplate buying gravestones or a monument, this item may prove of interest and value to you.

The Couper Marble Works, whose warehouses and factory are at 159, 161 and 163 Bank street, Norfolk, are paying us to insert in our local columns the suggestion that you go to Norfolk next week to see the great fleet of war ships now returning from its famous cruise around the world, and to witness what promises to be the most imposing naval, military and civic parade ever seen on the streets of that city.

Whilst the Coupers cordially invite you to call and inspect their extensive stock of finished memorial work.

They say they have the largest stock ever, in all styles and values, ready for immediate delivery; and that no difficulty should be experienced in making a selection. They also ask that you read their advertisement in this issue.

SETH HART DEAD.—Mr. Seth P. Hart, one of the best known and most popular travelling salesman on the road, died suddenly in New York last Friday. His remains were brought here and interred in the family square at Cedarwood cemetery Sunday, Rev. S. E. Mercer, of the M. E. Church, conducted the service.

Mr. Hart was a brother of the late M. F. Hart, of this town. He was a native of Northampton county and his first experience in mercantile life was in Weldon as salesman in the store of Captain Geo. D. White. Mr. Hart went from here to Norfolk and later he accepted a position with a large Philadelphia clothing house. For years his territory was South and he frequently visited Weldon. Late years he had not travelled this section and it had been several years since he had been here. Mr. Hart was a genial, wholesome man and no salesman on the road was more popular. He had made his headquarters in New York for some years.

His remains were accompanied to Weldon by his nephew, Mr. J. J. Lawrence, of Petersburg, Va., who went on to New York immediately on receiving news of Mr. Hart's death. He was about 55 years old and was a bachelor.

Our agency will show convincing evidence of 35 years extensive sale and highly satisfied users of L. & M. Paint. All dealers in other paints combined cannot furnish equal evidence. When painting with L. & M. you are painting with Metal Zinc Oxide combined with White Lead. Zinc is imperishable and makes the L. & M. wear and cover like gold. Its colors remain bright and lasting.
